Dreams of Difference, Songs of the Same Amy Herzog, 2010 Musical spectacles are excessive and abstract reconfiguring time and space and creating intense bodily responses Amy Herzog's engaging work examines those instances where music and movement erupt from within more linear narrative frameworks The representational strategies found in these films are often formulaic repeating familiar story lines and stereotypical depictions of race gender and class Yet she finds the musical moment contains a powerful disruptive potential Dreams of Difference Songs of the Same investigates the tension and the fusion of difference and repetition in films to ask How does the musical moment work Herzog looks at an eclectic mix of works including the Soundie and Scopitone jukebox films the musicals of French director Jacques Demy the synchronized swimming spectacles of Esther Williams and an apocalyptic musical by Taiwanese director Tsai Ming-liang Several refrains circulate among these texts their reliance on cliché their rewriting of cultural narratives and their hallucinatory treatment of memory and history Drawing on the philosophical work of Gilles Deleuze she explores all of these dissonances as productive forces and in doing so demonstrates the transformative power of the unexpected

Georges Bizet, Georges Bizet's Carmen Nelly Furman, 2020 The popularity of Carmen endures across generations and continents with one of the most frequently performed and instantly recognizable operatic scores of all time and a libretto derived from Prosper Mérimé's novella of the same name written 30 years prior to the opera's 1875 debut. In Georges Bizet's Carmen, the latest volume in the Oxford Keynotes series, author Nelly Furman explores the evolution of Carmen's story and its meaning, illuminating how the titular heroine has maintained her status as a universally recognizable cultural icon. Grounded in Ludovic Halévy's and Henri Meilhac's libretto and drawing on a wealth of mostly French critical theory, this book traces the textual operatic and cinematic tellings and retellings of the story from its success as a novella in the industrial age through to its iconic position in our own cinematic era. As Furman delicately navigates the fraught terrain of racial and gendered discourse and ideology that Bizet's setting of Mérimé's work traverses, she uncovers the elements of the story that give it cultural salience and resonance both in its own right and in support of Bizet's acclaimed musical score. In doing so, Furman reveals how past and present renderings of the Carmen tale mirror the changing concerns and shifting values of individual authors and their societies and how each new rendering has helped to embed Carmen into the global conscience.
