English, 2020-10-06 Reconstruction politics and race relations between freed blacks and the white establishment in Perry County Alabama In his fascinating in depth study Bertis D English analyzes why Perry County situated in the heart of a violence prone subregion of Alabama enjoyed more peaceful race relations and less bloodshed than several neighboring counties Choosing an atypical locality as central to his study English raises questions about factors affecting ethnic disturbances in the Black Belt and elsewhere in Alabama He also uses Perry County which he deems an anomalous county to caution against the tendency of some scholars to make sweeping generalizations about entire regions and subregions English contends Perry County was a relatively tranquil place with a set of extremely influential African American businessmen clergy politicians and other leaders during Reconstruction Together with egalitarian or opportunistic white citizens they headed a successful campaign for black agency and biracial cooperation that few counties in Alabama matched English also illustrates how a significant number of educational institutions a high density of African American residents and an unusually organized and informed African American population were essential factors in forming Perry County s character He likewise traces the development of religion in Perry the nineteenth century Baptist capital of Alabama and the emergence of civil rights in Perry an underemphasized center of activism during the twentieth century This well researched and comprehensive volume illuminates Perry County s history from the various perspectives of its black interracial and white inhabitants amplifying their own voices in a novel way The narrative includes rich personal details about ordinary and affluent people both free and unfree creating a distinctive resource that will be useful to scholars as well as a reference that will serve the needs of students and general readers Creating Black Americans Nell Irvin Painter,2006 Blending a vivid narrative with more than 150 images of artwork Painter offers a history from before slavery to today s hip hop culture written for a new generation Transcontinental Links in the History of Non-Western Christianity Klaus Koschorke,2002 Sehr viel starker und fruher als bislang wahrgenommen ist die Geschichte des Christentums in Asien Afrika und Lateinamerika seit dem 16 Jahrhundert durch polyzentrische Strukturen gekennzeichnet Zugleich bestanden zahlreiche Querverbindungen zwischen den entstehenden UeberseeKirchen teils auch ganz unabhngig von missionarischen Netzwerken Die Beitrge der Zweiten Internationalen Munchen Freisinger Konferenz behandeln unterschiedliche Formen transkontinentaler Verbindungen und fruhe Beispiele direkter SudSudBeziehungen Dabei werden drei Paradigmen diskutiert 1 Ethnische Diasporen als Netzwerke die fur eine uberregionale Selbstausbreitung des Christentums relevant sind 2 Transkontinentale Rezeptionsprozesse 3 Parallelentwicklungen in Asien Afrika und Lateinamerika Texte in deutscher und englischer Sprache Since the 16th century the history of Christianity in Asia Africa and Latin America has been much more polycentric in patterns of interaction than has been traditionally recognized At the same time there have existed many links between the emergent overseas churches often quite independent of missionary connections The papers from the Second International MunichFreising Conference deal with various forms of transcontinental links and early instances of SouthtoSouth interactions Texts in German and English Jesus and Justice Peter Goodwin Heltzel,2009-07-21 This timely book investigates the increasing visibility and influence of evangelical Christians in recent American politics with a focus on racial justice Peter Goodwin Heltzel considers four evangelical social movements Focus on the Family the National Association of Evangelicals Christian Community Development Association and Sojourners The political motives and actions of evangelical groups are founded upon their conceptions of Jesus Christ Heltzel contends He traces the roots of contemporary evangelical politics to the prophetic black Christianity tradition of Martin Luther King Jr and the socially engaged evangelical tradition of Carl F H Henry Heltzel shows that the basic tenets of King s and Henry s theologies have led their evangelical heirs toward a prophetic evangelicalism in a shade of blue green blue symbolizing the tragedy of black suffering in the Americas and green symbolizing the hope of a prophetic evangelical engagement with poverty AIDS and the environment This fresh theological understanding of evangelical political groups shines new light on the ways evangelicals shape and are shaped by broader American culture Nicodemus National Historic Site, Kansas, 2006 Voices of the

Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed Who's who Among Black Americans ,1994 Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn, 1979 Afro-American Life, History and Culture ,1985 Shifting to Fit Carol A. Mullen, Kim Robertson, 2014-03-01 While social identity challenges probably confront all school administrators the authors focus on a doubly marginalized leadership population Black female principals whose experiences are rarely tapped Based on lessons from this study and the literature reviewed the authors think that leadership preparation programs should give prospective administrators opportunities to gain knowledge and develop skills relevant to navigating their leadership identities In the age of accountability and with the pressures placed on the education system to ensure the success of all students school leaders are under constant scrutiny The appearance speech body language and interactions of principals with students parents teachers and community members are dissected Stretching to satisfy expectations many principals find themselves trying to conform to a predefined image Work pressures like these prove immeasurably intense for many Black women Society has subscribed to certain beliefs about different groups and these beliefs affect the roles responsibilities and identities of the individuals They can have a positive or negative influence Many principals have created professional identities that they have fine tuned and learned to steer Trial and error has helped them learn identity fitting techniques while other principals may still be learning how to effectively manage people address supporters and nonsupporters and be politically savvy Regardless of how they develop their identity principals work toward inventing and branding themselves fulfilling public identities e.g caregiver and trying out new identities such as commander and chief Black female principals must navigate their identities as bicultural beings with different stakeholder groups and within work spaces that are traditionally geared to monocultural White males
