Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children's and young adult literature which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines education English and library and information science

Early Childhood and the Asian American Experience Sohyun "Soh" Meacham, Su-Jeong Wee, Jinhee Kim, Sophia Han, Wu-Ying Hsieh, 2024-10-07 This essential and urgent book presents research based understandings about Asian American early childhood bringing to light the battle Asian Americans face against American nativism from their early years experiences The first of its kind in academic literature the book addresses the well known issue of underrepresentation of Asian Americans in early childhood education research and practice and in American society in general Using the intersectionality and multiple identities perspectives the authors explore a myriad of inaccurate cultural perceptions and misrepresentations centering within group differences among Asian American children and giving particular attention to disempowered groups among them Issues related to socioeconomic status gender disabilities linguistic backgrounds and minority groups among Asian American populations are addressed with implications for researchers and educators as well as context for examining the policies that cause inequities among Asian American children This book is key reading for early childhood education researchers professors and graduate students to become more productively engaged in discussions and practices toward racial justice

Black Skin, Blue Books Daniel G. Williams, 2012-09-15 Williams analyses and compares the ways in which African Americans and the Welsh have defined themselves as minorities within larger nation states the UK and US The study is grounded in examples of actual friendships and cultural exchanges between African Americans and the Welsh such as Paul Robeson's connections with the socialists of the Welsh mining communities and novelist Ralph Ellison's stories about his experiences as a GI stationed in wartime Swansea This wide ranging book draws on literary historical visual and musical sources to open up new avenues of research in Welsh and African American studies

Black Men and Racial Trauma Yamonte Cooper, 2024-02-23 This volume comprehensively addresses racial trauma from a clinical lens equipping mental health professionals across all disciplines to be culturally responsive when serving Black men Written using a transdisciplinary approach Yamonte Cooper presents a Unified Theory of Racism UTR Integrated Model of Racial Trauma IMRT Transgenerational Trauma Points TTP Plantation Politics Black Male Negation BMN and Race Based Shame RBS to fill a critical and urgent void in the mental health field and emerging scholarship on racial trauma Chapters begin with specific definitions of racism before exploring specific challenges that Black men face such as racial discrimination and health trauma criminalization economic deprivation anti Black misogyny and culturally specific stressors emotions such as shame and anger and coping mechanisms that these men utilize After articulating the racial trauma of Black men in a comprehensive manner the book provides insight into what responsive care looks like as well as clinical interventions that can inform treatment approaches This book is invaluable reading for all established and training mental health clinicians that work with Black men such as psychologists marriage and family therapists social workers counselors and psychiatrists Racial Microaggressions Daniel G. Solórzano, Lindsay Pérez Huber, 2020 Drawing from over 2 decades of research this book offers an in depth analysis of a systemic form of everyday racism commonly experienced by People of Color Racial microaggressions are layered and cumulative assaults often carried out in subtle and unconscious ways which take a psychological and physiological toll on the body mind and spirit The authors make a unique contribution to the study of racial microaggressions by using Critical Race Theory CRT to develop the concepts frameworks and models provided in this book Focusing on the lived experiences of People of Color Racial Microaggressions in Education can be used to disrupt the everyday racism that continues to target so many Communities of Color A brilliant and timely contribution to the current discussions and actions related to race and racism Dolores Delgado Bernal California State University Los Angeles An excellent review of critical race theory and methods Margaret Montoya University of New Mexico Timely relevant evidenced based and instructive this book is essential reading for those who want to commit themselves to achieving racial justice in education Tyrone C Howard professor University of California Los Angeles Beautifully written with passion humanity and academic rigor An essential examination of racial microaggressions as a key issue facing contemporary educators and society at large David Gillborn professor of critical race studies University of Birmingham

Multiracial Identity in Children's Literature Amina Chaudhri, 2017-02-10 Racially mixed children make up the fastest growing youth demographic in the U S and teachers of diverse populations need to be mindful in selecting literature that their students can identify with This volume explores how books for elementary school students depict and reflect multiracial experiences through text and images Chaudhri examines contemporary children s literature to demonstrate the role these books play in perpetuating and resisting stereotypes and the ways in which they might influence their readers Through critical analysis of contemporary children s fiction Chaudhri highlights the connections between context literature and personal experience to deepen our understanding of how children s books treat multiracial identity

Race and Colorism in Education Carla Monroe, 2016-12-08 As one of the first scholarly books to focus on colorism in education this volume considers how connections between race and color may influence school based experiences Chapter authors question how variations in skin tone as well as related features such as hair texture and eye color complicate perspectives on race and they demonstrate how colorism is a form of discrimination that affects educational stakeholders especially students families and professionals across P 16 institutions This volume provides an outline of colorism s contemporary relevance within the United States and shares considerations for international dimensions that are linked to immigration refugee populations and Canada By situating colorism in an educational context this book offers suggestions for how educators may engage and confront this form of discrimination

Policing Black Lives, Revised and Expanded Edition Robyn Maynard, 2025-10-15T00:00:00Z The bestselling first edition of Policing Black Lives became a mainstay of bookshelves and classrooms across North America and Europe as the first comprehensive account of the state sanctioned surveillance criminalization and punishment of Black lives in Canada This revised and expanded edition updates the original text in the wake of global Black uprisings in 2020 and offers new insights on how to build liveable futures without policing Delving behind Canada's veneer of multiculturalism and tolerance award winning scholar and activist Robyn Maynard traces the afterlives of slavery across multiple institutions Maynard sheds light on the state's role in perpetuating colonial dispossession racial profiling police killings incarceration immigration detention deportation exploitative migrant labour practices disproportionate child removal and the school to prison pipeline as well as the ubiquity of Black resistance The first new chapter meticulously documents how half a century of police reforms have served to undermine Black freedom struggles while expanding the scope and scale of policing in Canadian society In the second Maynard advances a compelling vision for making policing obsolete and building new forms of safety

Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Mingshui Cai, 2002-10-30 There is much discussion of multiculturalism in education This is especially true of multicultural literature for children and young adults The rise of multicultural literature is a political rather than a literary movement it is a movement to claim space in literature and in education for historically marginalized social groups rather than one to renovate the craft of literature itself Multicultural literature has been closely bound with the cause of multiculturalism in general and thus has been confronted with resistance from conservatives This book discusses many of the controversial issues surrounding multicultural literature for children and young adults The volume begins with a look at some of the foundational and theoretical issues related to multicultural literature The second part of the book addresses issues related to the creation and critique of multicultural literature including the authorship of such works and the role of the reader in determining whether or not a work is multicultural The third looks at the place of multicultural literature in the education of children and young adults Throughout its discussion the book makes extensive references to a large body of multicultural fiction and provides a thorough review of research on this important topic

Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith, Shirelle Phelps, 1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk's Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence

Racial and Cultural Minorities George Eaton Simpson, J. Milton Yinger, 2013-06-29 We need scarcely note that the topic of this book is the stuff of headlines Around the world political economic educational military religious and social relations of every variety have a racial or ethnic component One cannot begin to understand the history or contemporary situation of the United States the Soviet Union China Zimbabwe South Africa Great Britain Lebanon Mexico Canada indeed almost any land without careful attention to the influence of cultural and racial divisions Preparation of this new edition has brought a strong sense of déjà vu with regard both to the persistence of old patterns of discrimination even if in new guises and also to the persistence of limited and constraining explanations We have also found however rich new empirical studies new theoretical perspectives and greatly expanded activity and analyses from members of minority groups Although this edition is an extensive revision with reference both to the data used and the theoretical approaches examined we have not shifted from our basically analytical perspective We strongly support efforts to reduce discrimination and prejudice but these can be successful only if we try to understand where we are and what forces are creating the existing situation We hope to reduce the tendency to use declarations and condemnations of other persons actions as substitutes for an investigation of their causes and consequences Immigration, Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada ,2019-01-21

Canada's history since its birth as a nation one hundred and fifty years ago is one of immigration nation building and contested racial and ethnic relations In Immigration Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada Retrospects and Prospects scholars provide a wide ranging overview of this history with a core theme being one of enduring racial and ethnic conflict and inequality The volume is organized around four themes where in each theme selected racial and ethnic issues are examined critically Part 1 focuses on the history of Canadian immigration and nation building while Part 2 looks at situating contemporary Canada in terms of the debates in the literature on ethnicity and race Part 3 revisits specific racial and ethnic studies in Canada and finally in Part 4 a state of the art is provided on immigration and racial and ethnic studies while providing prospects for the future Contributors are Victor Armony David Este Augie Fleras Peter R Grant Shibao Guo Abdolmohammad Kazemipour Anne Marie Livingstone Adina Madularea Ayesha Mian Akram Nilum Panesar Yolande Pottie Sherman Paul Pritchard Howard Ramos Daniel W Robertson Vic Satzewich Morton Weinfeld Rima Wilkes Lori Wilkinson Elke Winter Nelson Wiseman Lloyd Wong and Henry Yu Power, Discrimination, and Privilege in Individuals and Institutions Sonya Faber, Monnica T. Williams, Matthew D. Skinta, Bia Labate, 2024-04-01 Individuals and systems are rife with prejudices leading to discrimination and inequities Examples of this include rejection of stigmatized groups e.g. Black Americans Indigenous people in Canada Roma peoples in Europe structural racism e.g. inequitable distribution of resources for public schools disenfranchisement of women employees e.g. the glass ceiling barriers to higher education e.g. biased admissions requirements heterosexism economic oppression and colonization When we take a closer look we find the core of the problem is imbalance in the distribution of power and its misuse The Crisis ,2003-07 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Society Richard T. Schaefer, 2008-03-20 This encyclopedia offers a comprehensive look at the roles race and ethnicity play in society and in our daily lives Over 100 racial and ethnic groups are described with additional thematic essays offering insight into broad topics that cut across group boundaries and which impact on society Race in the Schoolyard Amanda E.
