Connecting Children with Classics Meagan Lacy, Pauline Dewan, 2018-03-14 This guide identifies hundreds of books that can help children develop into engaged readers Children's librarians collection development specialists in public libraries as well as K 8 school librarians and teachers will choose from the best in children's titles This unique readers advisory and collection development guide for librarians and others who work with children focuses on readers and their needs rather than simply categorizing books by their characteristics and features as traditional literature guides do Taking this unusual perspective brings forth powerful new tools and curricular ideas on how to promote the classics and how to best engage with young readers and meet their personal and emotional needs to boost interest and engagement The guide identifies seven reader driven appeals or themes that are essential to successful readers advisory awakening new perspectives providing models for identity offering reassurance comfort strength and confirmation of self worth connecting with others giving courage to make a change facilitating acceptance and building a disinterested understanding of the world By becoming aware of and tapping into these seven themes librarians and other educators can help children more deeply connect with books thereby increasing the odds of becoming lifelong readers The detailed descriptions of each book provide plot summaries as well as notes on themes subjects reading interest levels adaptations and alternative formats translations and read alikes This informative guide will also aid librarians in collection development and bibliotherapy services

Black Beauty Sewell, Anna, 2007 Black Beauty begins life in a loving home But his owners are forced to sell him and Black Beauty s fortunes change He is moved from place to place and job to job often suffering cruel treatment and harsh conditions until a chance encounter leads to a new turn of events

Black Beauty Anna Sewell, 2016-08-04 Anna Sewell 30 March 1820 25 April 1878 was an English novelist best known as the author of the classic 1877 novel Black Beauty Anna Sewell was born in Great Yarmouth Norfolk England into a devoutly Quaker family Her father was Isaac Phillip Sewell 1793 1879 and her mother Mary Wright Sewell 1798 1884 was a successful author of children s books She had one sibling a younger brother named Philip and was largely educated at home When Anna was twelve the family moved to Stoke Newington where she attended school for the first time Two years later however she slipped while walking home from school and severely injured both of her ankles Her father took a job in Brighton in 1836 in the hope that the climate there would help to cure her Despite this and most likely because of mistreatment of her injury for the rest of her life Anna was unable to stand without a crutch or to walk for any length of time For greater mobility she frequently used horse drawn carriages which contributed to her love of horses and concern for the humane treatment of animals At about this time both Anna and her mother left the Society of Friends to join the Church of England though both remained active in evangelical circles Her mother expressed her religious faith most noticeably by authoring a series of evangelical children s books which Anna helped to edit though all the Sewells and Mary Sewell s family the Wrights engaged in many other good works
