AlterNatives Ranu Samantrai, 2002 This is the history of the black British women s movement of the 1980s comprising women of African Caribbean and South Asian origin and its place in postwar British politics racism and feminism Black British Literature Mark Stein, 2004 In this fascinating book Mark Stein examines black British literature centering on a body of work created by British based writers with African South Asian or Caribbean cultural backgrounds Linking black British literature to the bildungsroman genre this study examines the transformative potential inscribed in and induced by a heterogeneous body of texts Capitalizing on their plural cultural attachments these texts portray and purvey the transformation of post imperial Britain Stein locates his wide ranging analysis in both a historical and a literary context He argues that a cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach is essential to understanding post colonial culture and society The book relates black British literature to ongoing debates about cultural diversity and thereby offers a way of reading a highly popular but as yet relatively uncharted field of cultural production With the collapse of its empire with large scale immigration from former colonies and with ever increasing cultural diversity Britain underwent a fundamental makeover in the second half of the twentieth century This volume cogently argues that black British literature is not only a commentator on and a reflector of this makeover but that it is simultaneously an agent that is integral to the processes of cultural and social change Conceptualizing the novel of transformation this comprehensive study of British black literature provides a compelling analytic framework for charting these processes The Digital Lives of Black Women in Britain Francesca Sobande, 2020-08-11 Based on interviews and archival research this book explores how media is implicated in Black women s lives in Britain From accounts of twentieth century activism and television representations to experiences of YouTube and Twitter Sobande s analysis traverses tensions between digital culture s communal counter cultural and commercial qualities Chapters 2 and 4 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com Black British Intellectuals and Education Paul Warmington, 2014-02-24 Ask any moderately interested Briton to name a black intellectual and chances are the response will be an American name Malcolm X or Barack Obama Toni Morrison or Cornel West Yet Britain has its own robust black intellectual traditions and its own master teachers among them

C L R James Claudia Jones Ambalavaner Sivanandan Stuart Hall and Paul Gilroy However while in the USA black public intellectuals are an embedded if often embattled feature of national life black British thinkers remain routinely marginalized Black British Intellectuals and Education counters this neglect by exploring histories of race education and social justice through the work of black British public intellectuals academics educators and campaigners The book provides a critical history of diverse currents in black British intellectual production from the eighteenth century through post war migration and into the post multicultural present focusing on the sometimes hidden impacts of black thinkers on education and social justice Firstly it argues that black British thinkers have helped fundamentally to shape educational policy practice and philosophy particularly in the post war period Secondly it suggests that education has been one of the key spaces in which the mass consciousness of being black and British has emerged and a key site in which black British intellectual positions have been defined and differentiated Chapters explore the early development of black British intellectual life from the slave narratives to the anti colonial movements of the early twentieth century how African Caribbean and Asian communities began to organize against racial inequalities in schooling in the post Windrush era of the 1950s and 60s how from out of these grassroots struggles black intellectuals and activists of the 1970s 80s and 90s developed radical critiques of education youth and structural racism the influence of multiculturalism black cultural studies and black feminism on education current developments in black British educational work including post racial approaches Critical Race Theory and black social conservatism Black British Intellectuals and Education will be of key relevance to undergraduates postgraduates and academics engaged in research on race ethnicity education social justice and cultural studies

Women of the Revolution
 Kira Cochrane, 2012-03-31 When hundreds gathered in 1970 for the UK's first women's liberation conference a movement that had been gathering strength for years burst into a frenzy of radical action that was to transform the way we think act and live In the 40 years since then the feminist movement has won triumphs and endured trials but it has never weakened its resolve nor for a moment been dull The Guardian has followed its progress throughout carrying interviews with and articles by the major figures chronicling with verve wit and often passionate anger the arguments surrounding pornography prostitution political representation power pay parental rights abortion rights domestic chores and domestic violence These are articles that in essence ask two fundamental questions Who are we Who should we be This collection brings together for the first time the very best of the Guardian's feminist writing It includes the newspaper's pioneering women's editor Mary Stott writing about Margaret Thatcher Beatrix Campbell on Princess Diana Suzanne Moore interviewing Camille Paglia and Maya Jaggi interviewing Oprah Winfrey there's Jill Tweedie on why feminists need to be vocal and angry Polly Toynbee on violence against women Hannah Pool on black women and political power and Andrea Dworkin writing with incendiary energy about the Bill Clinton sex scandal Lively provocative thoughtful and funny this is the essential guide to the feminist thinking and writing of the past 40 years the ultimate portrait of an ongoing revolution

Literature and the Nation

Brook Thomas,1998 Innocent Subjects Terese Jonsson,2020-12-20 In a time of intensified global white supremacist and patriarchal violence anti racist feminist movements and analyses have never been more vital Women of colour are at the forefront of these struggles worldwide but are white feminists really by their side Despite a rich history of Black and postcolonial critiques of racist and imperial feminist politics racism still exists within contemporary British feminism To explain why Terese Jonsson examines the history of feminism over the last forty years She argues that Black feminism s role in shaping the movement has been marginalised through narratives which repeatedly position white women at the centre of the story from the women s liberation movement in the 1970s to today Analysing the ways in which whiteness continues to pervade feminist literature as well as feminist debates in the liberal media Jonsson demonstrates that despite an increased attention to race intersectionality and difference stories told by white feminists are shaped by their desire to maintain an innocent position towards racism

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa Disch,Mary Hawkesworth,2018-02-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe this collection delves into forty nine subject areas demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science cultural studies and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women s and men s lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories whether the field of analysis is aesthetics biology cultural studies development economics film studies health history literature politics religion science studies sexualities violence or war

Postcolonial Challenges in Education Roland Sintos Coloma,2009 Coloma compiles 20 essays that trace the history of imperialism and colonialism as well as anti imperialism and decolonization noting that there is a lack of consideration of education in studies of these topics and vice versa Education scholars from North America the UK Australia and Qatar consider the operations and effects of colonialism during and after occupation and the way colonized individuals navigate and resist imperialism in schooling educational policy and cultural and knowledge production

Deconstructing Refugee Women's Empowerment Zeynep Kilicoglu, 2025-04-16 This book explores how self identified feminist or women's organizations in the asylum and charity sectors in the United Kingdom and France attach meanings to and address refugee women's empowerment in their operations and how these perpetuate or disrupt global hierarchies Adopting a feminist intersectional and post colonial approach this book provides a nuanced assessment on how refugee assistance might move beyond the dominant vulnerability versus empowerment dichotomy Acknowledging how some of the current practices still impose vulnerability on women it aims to contribute to the newly established literature exploring how refugeehood and asylum seeking are not necessarily disempowering for fleeing women as they can provide new opportunities for negotiating gender norms supporting women to practice agency Building on rich empirical work conducted via semistructured interviews with refugee women and aid professionals and participant observation in refugee communities the book scrutinises how refugee women's empowerment is embedded in the histories of colonialism biopolitics racism and patriarchy which legitimises the boundaries between the West and the rest and it sheds light on the new strategies created by communities to move beyond these hierarchies acknowledging women as autonomous actors who do not need to rely on aid structures Students and scholars of migration and refugee studies feminist international relations gender studies postcolonial studies alongside humanitarian practitioners policy makers and advocates that operate at various levels will find this interdisciplinary book useful for understanding the realities of refugee women and professional workers in aid structures
