Saint Thérèse of Lisieux

Birthday Of Little Jesus:

Don't Depend on God Janice Tarbox, 2007-02 DON T DEPEND ON GOD Janice Tarbox I ve written hundreds of short stories But then I didn t start until I was sixty I wrote one poem This is that poem What Have I To Give To You Bouquets of stars to spread on your bed Sabers of moonbeams crossed over your head Prisms of silhouettes to dance into view Oceans of laughter is your due Warmness and softness wherever you roam A home full of peace high up on the dome Spoons cups and bowls of overflowing joy Genuineness and thoroughness wound up in a coil I am your master your servant your friend Bursting with bubbles to make amends Barrels of nothingness to fill with Eureka s Sunsets of colors unable to speak of Silence so strong ghosts hear your songs Hangers of king s robes that you may put on Mountains and valleys of sweet perfumed flowers Truckloads of riches to claim as your dower As like whales living deep down in the sea With immeasurable freedom you are to be Strings and ribbons of family and friends Wisdom beyond every monk and amen Come here come here take all that I ve said I ve a huge reservoir just waiting to spread Before that year of sixty my husband and I were foster parents for ten years I had a real knack for making babies happy But then I was very sad inside my head After having written hundreds of short stories and one poem I decided to write some lyrics to a favorite melody of mine Ashokan Farewell by Jay Ungar It was composed for the PBS miniseries The Civil War I am love come stay with me Here it s warm and soft and cool I m a stone I m a tree The sun is my strength It is light and living free Take the step along my path The breath of a bee The moon is my beauty You won t miss what s out there We ll laugh and we ll sing and A hill and a cloud And now and forever For others to be We ll be everything Come fly with me I am that I am What started my writing short stories was a quote from Joel S Goldsmith from his book titled Consciousness Is What I Am Nothing can come into our experience except through our consciousness so what our life will be depends on what we entertain in consciousness Little Jesus and the Bethlehem Birthday Kimberley Gordon, Viviana Camille, Olivia Francine, 2024-10-09 Little Jesus and his pal Wolfie are ready for bed when Little Jesus asks Imma for a bedtime story Happy to oblige her son Mother Mary or Imma as Little Jesus calls her shares with the two the story about the arrival of Little Jesus just a few years earlier Imma explains how she traveled on Dabi the donkey while Abba led them to Bethlehem for the census Imma explains to Little Jesus and Wolfie how hard it was to find a place to stay and how they finally settled in with the animals Imma mentions the many visitors who came to welcome Little Jesus their family the shepherds and the wise men from afar Imma describes the special time in her life with captivating and tender details as would any mother when sharing such a splendid bedtime story While this story has been shared for over two millennia this retelling by Imma enables listeners to hear it from the mommy s perspective as told to her young child
