

Africa's Tree of Life

At the heart of the African plain
Stands a tree both old and sage:
A survivor of sunshine and rain
Silent witness to many an age

But this is no ordinary tree
For her trunk is hollow inside
And faithfully she keeps unseen
The secret of her native tribe

For her cave's a place of birth
A haven safe from danger
This womb of Mother Earth
Is Africa's child manger

The Baobab stands proud and strong
She serves her people as midwife
It's been thus generations long
She's Africa's great Tree of Life

The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors      Black African Literature in English, 1987-1991 Bernth Lindfors, 1995 Black African Literature in English 1987 1991 is the continuation of the 1982 1986 and earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors and lists all the important works produced on Anglophone black African literature published between 1987 and 1991 Containing almost 9 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books and periodical articles as well as providing selective coverage of other relevant sources of informed commentary Also included are a very substantial number of articles which have appeared in African newspapers and magazines      The Hebrew Bible, Nationalism and the Origins of Anti-Judaism David Aberbach, 2022-10-31 In the attempts to unify divided peoples on the basis of a shared past both historical and mythical this book illumines aspects of cultural nationalism common since the Middle Ages As an edited work the Bible includes texts mostly depicting long gone historical eras extending over several centuries Following on from Aberbach s previous work National Poetry Empires and War this book argues that works of this nature notably the Mujo Halil songs in Albania the Irish stories of Cuchulain the songs of the Nibelungen in Germany or the Finnish legends collected in The Kalevala have an ancient precedent in the

Hebrew Bible to which national literatures often allude and refer a subject largely neglected in biblical studies The self critical element in the Hebrew Bible common in later national literature is examined as the basis of later anti-Semitism as the Bible was not confined to Jews but was adopted in translation by many other national groups With several dozen original translations from the Hebrew this book highlights how the Bible influenced and was distorted by later national cultures Written without jargon this book is intended for the general reader but is also an important contribution to the study of the Bible nationalism and Jewish history Bibliography of African Literatures Peter Limb, Jean-Marie Volet, 1996 Provides extensive coverage of the writings of both established and promising new authors in all continental African countries and Madagascar Arranged primarily by language with emphasis on literatures in English and French Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Daughters of Africa Margaret Busby, 1993 National Poetry, Empires and War David Aberbach, 2016-09-13 Nationalism has given the world a genre of poetry bright with ideals of justice freedom and the brotherhood of man but also at times burning with humiliation and grievance hatred and lust for revenge driving human kind as the Austrian poet Grillparzer put it From humanity via nationality to bestiality National Poetry Empires and War considers national poetry and its glorification of war from ancient to modern times in a series of historical social and political perspectives Starting with the Hebrew Bible and Homer and moving through the Crusades and examples of subsequent empires this book has much on pre modern national poetry but focuses chiefly on post 1789 poetry which emerged from the weakening and collapse of empires as the idealistic liberalism of nationalism in the age of Byron Whitman D Annunzio Yeats Bialik and Kipling was replaced by darker purposes culminating in World War I and the rise of fascism Many national poets are the subject of countless critical and biographical studies but this book aims to give a panoramic view of national poetry as a whole It will be of great interest to any scholars of nationalism Jewish Studies history comparative literature and general cultural studies White Lies Denis Herbstein, 2004 Behind the clerical dog collar he wore as Canon of St Paul's Cathedral in London John Collins ran a single minded constantly creative campaign over several decades to provide material support to those waging the struggle against apartheid assisting leaders like Nelson Mandela and thousands of township and rural activists as well as families who suffered because their loved ones were in prison in exile or dead The success of the organisations he founded the International Defence and Aid Fund IDAF and Christian Action depended on a network of volunteers across the world and a small group of South African exiles and British workers in London South African intelligence agents tried to penetrate these networks but to no avail BOOK JACKET South African Treasury of Poems & Prose Moitsadi Moeti Ph.D., 2012-03-16 The ethnographic material in this book derives from a concern with a contemporary South African literary works and Poems it delves in to the corrective history of the region because otherwise it will be impossible to understand how the present came into being and what the trends are for the post apartheid South Africa Thus the material aims to represent the historical events that shaped South African Poetry written in English A General
