Birthright Murder Greed And Power In The U Haul Family Dynasty:

Birthright Ronald J. Watkins, 1993 On a peaceful summer night in 1990 beautiful Norwegian born Eva Berg Shoen was murdered in her sleep in Telluride Colorado Police quickly labeled her killing a contract hit Within weeks of the murder the victim's father in law L S Shoen founder of U Haul International publicly charged that two of his sons who now ran the company were psychotic L S also claimed on national television that they were directly or indirectly responsible for the murder of their brother's wife It wasn't supposed to turn out this way In 1945 L S Shoen founded U Haul with a single trailer and over the years he relentlessly built it into a four billion dollar corporation He divided ownership among his twelve children by three wives intending that the company would be a lasting legacy for his family But once his offspring were of age they voted their father out of control and then fell out among themselves embarking on an orgy of litigation in one of the most vitriolic family disputes in American history The controlling faction fired their own father then canceled his retirement income Threats were followed by assaults then by death threats Board meetings disintegrated into fistfights as brother assaulted brother and family shareholder meetings became brawls that were plastered across the nation's newspapers For three years the official investigation into this unsolved murder has focused on U Haul management Now author journalist Ronald J Watkins reveals the inside story of the Shoen family disclosing secrets long kept from the public eye and suggests a startling explanation for this brutal murder He explores the history of this uniquely American family tracing its twisted course from the migrant worker fields of Depression era Oregon to the New York boardroom of Bear Stearns during the go go economy of the 1980s following the Shoens from anonymity to supermarket tabloid
