Bitter Almonds Recollections And Recipes From A Sicilian Girlhood:

Bitter Almonds Mary Taylor Simeti, Maria Grammatico, 2015-11-10 At the age of eleven the daughter of a Sicilian sharecropper Maria Grammatico entered the San Carlo Institute in the mountaintop town of Erice an orphanage run by nuns who were famous throughout Sicily for their almond pastries but who were less adept at dealing with young girls After ten years of hard work and harsh discipline Maria emerged with the secrets of the nuns pastries hidden inside her head This is the story of her carefree country childhood her Dickensian life in the orphanage with no heat no running water and only wood burning ovens and her triumphs as an entrepreneur and a world famous pastry chef Bitter Almonds includes 46 of the recipes that she stole from the nuns committed to writing for the first time in these pages Italian Folk Joseph Sciorra, 2011 Sunday dinners basement kitchens and backyard gardens are everyday cultural entities long associated with Italian Americans yet the general perception of them remains superficial and stereotypical at best For many people these scenarios trigger ingrained assumptions about individuals beliefs politics aesthetics values and behaviors that leave little room for nuance and elaboration This collection of essays explores local knowledge and aesthetic practices often marked as folklore as sources for creativity and meaning in Italian American lives As the contributors demonstrate folklore provides contemporary scholars with occasions for observing and interpreting behaviors and objects as part of lived experiences Its study provides new ways of understanding how individuals and groups reproduce and contest identities and ideologies through expressive means Italian Folk offers an opportunity to reexamine and rethink what we know about Italian Americans The contributors to this unique book discuss historic and contemporary cultural expressions and religious practices from various parts of the United States and Canada to examine how they operate at local national and transnational levels The essays attest to people's ability and willingness to create and reproduce certain cultural modes that connect them to social entities such as the family the neighborhood and the amorphous and fleeting communities that emerge in large scale festivals and now on the Internet Italian Americans abandon reproduce and or revive various cultural elements in relationship to ever shifting political economic and social conditions The results are dynamic hybrid cultural forms such as valtaro accordion music Sicilian oral poetry a Columbus Day parade and witchcraft stregheria By taking a closer look and an ethnographic approach to expressive behavior we see that Italian American identity is far from being a linear path of assimilation from Italian immigrant to American of Italian descent but is instead fraught with conflict negotiation and creative solutions Together these essays illustrate how folklore is evoked in the continual process of identity revaluation and reformation

Food for Thought Simona Stano, Amy Bentley, 2021-09-18 This volume offers new insights into food and culture Food habits preferences and taboos are partially regulated by ecological and material factors in other words all food systems are structured and given particular functioning mechanisms by specific societies and cultures either according to totemic sacrificial hygienic rationalist aesthetic or other symbolic logics This provides much food for thought The famous expression has never been so appropriate not only do cultures develop unique practices for the production treatment and consumption of food but such practices inevitably end up affecting food related aspects and spheres that are generally perceived as objectively and materially defined This book explores such dynamics drawing on various theoretical approaches and analytical methodologies

thus enhancing the cultural reflection on food and at the same time helping us see how the study of food itself can help us understand better what we call culture It will be of interest to anthropologists philosophers semioticians and historians of food
