

The Black Christ

I

GOD'S glory and my country's shame,
And how one man who cursed Christ's name
May never fully expiate
That crime till at the Blessed Gate
Of Heaven He meet and pardon me
Out of His love and charity;
How God, who needs no man's applause,
For love of my stark soul, of flaws
Composed, seeing it slip, did stoop
Down to the mire and pick me up,
And in the hollow of His hand
Enact again at my command
The world's supremest tragedy,
Until I die my burthen be;
How Calvary in Palestine,
Extending down to me and mine,
Was but the first leaf in a line
Of trees on which a Man should swing
World without end, in suffering
For all men's healing, let me sing.

Fruit Jeff Nicoll,2023-05-09 The history of Christianity includes many doctrines adopted and actions taken to meet immediate problems but which had unintended consequences they are bad fruit Matt 7 15 20 The oldest is antisemitism which arose from the competition of the early church with early Judaism It was built into the New Testament and was developed by the church fathers Having learned to dehumanize it was easy to apply the same techniques to other groups the church became complicit with enslavement misogyny and other forms of oppression One response to the bad fruit is to reject religion in the manner of Christopher Hitchens However the dogmas are part of our culture even if in secular form If the roots of marginalization are not understood they cannot be eliminated This work uses a range of critics and defenders of traditional Western Christianity to identify poisonous fruits and detoxify them The critical voices do not create a consensus Nevertheless a core can be perceived what Erasmus called the few truths Grounded in the religious tradition they can be shared with secular people as a basis for an ethical merciful and respectful society Although the history of Christianity is bloody there are ways to go forward And Bid Him Sing Charles Molesworth,2022-12-22 A full length critical biography examining the life and work of the poet and literary giant of the Harlem Renaissance While competing with Langston Hughes for the title of Poet Laureate of Harlem Count e Cullen 1903 46 crafted poems that became touchstones for American readers both black and white Inspired by classic themes and working within traditional forms Cullen shaped his poetry to address universal questions like love death longing and loss while also dealing with the issues of race and idealism that permeated the national conversation Drawing on the poet s unpublished correspondence with contemporaries and friends like Hughes Claude McKay Carl Van Vechten Dorothy West Charles S Johnson and Alain Locke and presenting a unique interpretation of his poetic gifts And Bid Him Sing is the first full length critical biography of this famous American writer Despite his untimely death at the age of forty two Cullen left behind an extensive body of work In addition to five books of poetry he authored two much loved children s books and translated Euripides Medea the first translation by an African American of a Greek tragedy In these pages Charles Molesworth explores the many ways that race religion and Cullen s sexuality informed the work of one of the unquestioned stars of the Harlem Renaissance An authoritative work of biography that brings to life one of the chief voices of his generation And Bid Him Sing returns to us one of America s finest lyric poets in all of his complexity and musicality Praise for And Bid Him Sing At last One can only be grateful to Charles Molesworth for this concise yet comprehensive biography of Count e Cullen the shooting star of the Harlem Renaissance This book sets the facts straight about a man whose childhood and inner life have been obscure despite his fame More importantly Molesworth reveals the complex intersections of racial loyalty and aestheticism spirituality and sexuality representativeness and individuality in the life and work of Harlem s black
