Black Artist In America:

The Black Artist in America Dennis Thomison, 1991 Helps the user identify African American artists and locate published reproductions of their work ranging from the colonial period to the present The Black Artist in America Dennis Thomison, 1991 Helps the user identify African American artists and locate published reproductions of their work ranging from the colonial period to the present Black Artists in America Earnestine Lovelle Jenkins, Celeste-Marie Bernier, Alaina Simone, 2024-01-09 The second book in a three volume series on Black American artists featuring work from the 1950s to the 1970s that responded to the cultural political and social concerns of the era During the turbulent 1950s to 1970s Black American artists responding to increasing civil rights activism challenged inequities in the art world Artists created works that celebrated their racial identity connected with Black audiences and participated in the struggle for political economic and social equality The establishment of artist collectives such as Spiral and museums devoted to Black art including the Studio Museum in Harlem alongside the emergence of art historians and critics such as David Driskell and Linda Goode Bryant marked early steps to bring Black art into broader artistic discourse The book features 140 color illustrations of paintings sculptures and works on paper by such celebrated artists as Romare Bearden Sam Gilliam Jacob Lawrence Norman Lewis Howardena Pindell and Alma Thomas as well as by under recognized artists Essays provide an overview of the period and in depth examinations of James A Porter an artist and art historian credited with establishing the field of African American art history and Merton D Simpson an abstract painter member of the Spiral group and one of the most important dealers of African art in the United States Published in association with the Dixon Gallery and Gardens Exhibition Schedule Dixon Gallery and Gardens Memphis October 22 2023 January 14 2024 Crocker Art Museum Sacramento February 4 May 19 2024 African American Art and Artists Samella S. Lewis, 2003 Examines the lives and works of African American artists from the eighteenth century to the present with biographical and critical text and illustrated examples of their work Black Artists in Their Own Words Lisa E. Farrington, 2025-09-02 The first book to center Black artists voices on Black aesthetics revealing a century of evolving relationships to race identity and art What is Black art No one has thought harder about that question than Black artists yet their perspectives have been largely ignored Instead their stories have been told by intellectuals like W E B Du Bois and Alain Locke who defined a school of Black art in the early twentieth century For the first time Black Artists in Their Own Words offers an insightful corrective Esteemed art historian Lisa Farrington gathers writing spanning a century across the United States the Caribbean and the African continent including from renowned artists Henry Tanner Nancy Elizabeth Prophet Romare Bearden Wifredo Lam Renee Cox and many more that reveals both evolutions and equivocations Many artists especially during the civil rights era have embraced Black aesthetics as a source of empowerment Others prefer to be artists first and Black second while some have rejected racial identification entirely Here Black artists reclaim their work from reductive critical narratives sharing the motivations underlying their struggles to create in a white dominated art world African-American Art Sharon F. Patton,1998 Discusses African American folk art decorative art photography and fine arts The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham,2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America A History of African-American Artists Romare Bearden,Harry Brinton Henderson,1993 A landmark work of art history lavishly illustrated and extraordinary for its thoroughness A History of African American Artists conceived researched and written by the great American artist Romare Bearden with journalist Harry Henderson who completed the work after Bearden s death in 1988 gives a conspectus of African American art from the late eighteenth century to the present It examines the lives and careers of more than fifty signal African American artists and the relation of their work to prevailing artistic social and political trends both in America and throughout the world Beginning with a radical reevaluation of the enigma of Joshua Johnston a late eighteenth century portrait painter widely assumed by historians to be one of the earliest known African American artists Bearden and Henderson go on to examine the careers of Robert S Duncanson Edward M Bannister Henry Ossawa Tanner Aaron Douglas Edmonia Lewis Jacob Lawrence Hale A Woodruff Augusta Savage Charles H Alston Ellis Wilson Archibald J Motley Jr Horace Pippin Alma W Thomas and many others Illustrated with more than 420 black and white illustrations and 61 color reproductions including rediscovered classics works no longer extant and art never before seen in this country A History of African American Artists is a stunning achievement The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter,2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries African American Artists Performing for the Camera After 1970 Martyna Ewa Majewska,2025-03-27 This study demonstrates how African American artists active since the 1970s have instrumentalized performance for the camera to intervene in existing representations of Black and Brown people in America and beyond Majewska argues that producing carefully designed photographs films and videos via performance became a key strategy for dismantling the conceptions of race and gender fixed by US popular culture jurisprudence and pseudoscience Studying the work of Adrian Piper Glenn Ligon Lyle Ashton Harris Senga Nengudi Maren Hassinger Howardena Pindell David Hammons and Pope L this book examines the ways in which these artists incorporate their bodies and personal experience into their respective performances simultaneously courting and foreclosing autobiographical readings The strategies examined here while diverse all challenge conventional interpretations of performance art especially those overdetermined by race gender and sexuality The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history performance studies photography and African American studies Black Artists on Art Samella S. African American Performance and Theater History Harry J. Elam, David Krasner, 2001-01-18 African American Performance and Theater History is an anthology of critical writings that explores the intersections of race theater and performance in America Assembled by two esteemed scholars in black theater Harry J Elam Jr and David Krasner and composed of essays from acknowledged authorities in the field this anthology is organized into four sections representative of the ways black theater drama and performance interact and enact continual social cultural and political dialogues Ranging from a discussion of dramatic performances of Uncle Tom s Cabin to the Black Art Movement of the 1960s and early 1970s articles gathered in the first section Social Protest and the Politics of Representation discuss the ways in which African American theater and performance have operated as social weapons and tools of protest The second section of the volume Cultural Traditions Cultural Memory and Performance features among other essays Joseph Roach s chronicle of the slave performances at Congo Square in New Orleans and Henry Louis Gates Jr s critique of August Wilson s cultural polemics Intersections of Race and Gender the third section includes analyses of the intersections of race and gender on the minstrel stage the plight of black female choreographers at the inception of Modern Dance and contemporary representations of black homosexuality by PomoAfro Homo Using theories of performance and performativity articles in the fourth section African American Performativity and the Performance of Race probe into the ways blackness and racial identity have been constructed in and through performance The final section is a round table assessment of the past and present state of African American Theater and Performance Studies by some of the leading senior scholars in the field James V Hatch Sandra L Richards and Margaret B Wilkerson Revealing the dynamic relationship between race and theater this volume illustrates how the social and historical contexts of production critically affect theatrical performances of blackness and their meanings and at the same time how African American cultural social and political struggles have been profoundly affected by theatrical representations and performances This one volume collection is sure to become an important reference for those studying black theater and an engrossing survey for all readers of African American literature David C. Driskell

Julie L. McGee, 2006 In this inquiry into Driskell s life and work art historian McGee analyzes Driskell s philosophical struggles as he sought to both express his feelings about racial strife in America and stay true to his art The Harlem Renaissance and Transatlantic Modernism Denise Murrell, 2024-02-25 Beginning in the 1920s Upper Manhattan became the center of an explosion of art writing and ideas that has since become legendary But what we now know as the Harlem Renaissance the first movement of international modern art led by African Americans extended far beyond New York City This volume reexamines the Harlem Renaissance as part of a global flowering of Black creativity with roots in the New Negro theories and aesthetics of Alain Locke its founding philosopher as well as the writings of W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Featuring artists such as Aaron Douglas Charles Henry Alston Augusta Savage and William H Johnson who synthesized the expressive figuration of the European avant garde with the aesthetics of African sculpture and folk art to render all aspects of African American city life this publication also includes works by lesser known contributors including Laura Wheeler Waring and Samuel Joseph Brown Jr who took a more classical approach to depicting Black subjects with dignity interiority and gravitas The works of New Negro artists active abroad are also examined in juxtaposition with those of their European and international African diasporan peers from Germaine Casse and Ronald Moody to Henri Matisse Edvard Munch and Pablo Picasso This reframing of a celebrated cultural phenomenon shows how the flow of ideas through Black artistic communities on both sides of the Atlantic contributed to international conversations around art race and identity while helping to define our notion of modernism Ebony ,1977-05 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson

Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Black Artists in America Earnestine Jenkins,2022-01-07 Foreword and acknowledgments Kevin Sharp Black artists in America From the Great Depression to Civil Rights Augusta Savage in Paris African themes and the Black female body Walter Augustus Simon abstract expressionist art educator and art historian Catalogue of the exhibition

African Americans in the Visual Arts Steven Otfinoski,2014-05-14 While social concerns have been central to the work of many African American visual artists painters History and Memory in African-American Culture Genevieve Fabre,Robert O'Meally,1994-12-08 As Nathan Huggins once stated altering American history to account fully for the nation s black voices would change the tone and meaning the frame and the substance of the entire story Rather than a sort of Pilgrim s Progress tale of bold ascent and triumph American history with the black parts told in full would be transmuted into an existential tragedy closer Huggins said to Sartre s No Exit than to the vision of life in Bunyan The relation between memory and history has received increasing attention both from historians and from literary critics In this volume a group of leading scholars has come together to examine the role of historical consciousness and imagination in African American culture The result is a complex picture of the dynamic ways in which African American historical identity constantly invents and transmits itself in literature art oral documents and performances Each of the scholars represented has chosen a different site of memory from a variety of historical and geographical points and from different ideological theoretical and artistic perspectives Yet the book is unified by a common concern with the construction of an emerging African American cultural memory The renowned group of contributors including Hazel Carby Werner Sollors V v Clark Catherine Clinton and Nellie McKay among others consists of participants of the five year series of conferences at the DuBois Institute at Harvard University from which this collection originated Conducted under the leadership of Genevi ve Fabre Melvin Dixon and the late Nathan Huggins the conferences and as a result this book represent something of a cultural moment themselves and scholars and students of
