The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric Lynée Lewis Gaillet,Winifred Bryan Horner,2010-03-15 Through two previous editions The Present State of Scholarship in Historical and Contemporary Rhetoric has not only introduced new scholars to interdisciplinary research but also become a standard research tool in a number of fields and pointed the way toward future study Adopting research methodologies of revision and recovery this latest edition includes all new material while still following the format of the original and is constructed around bibliographical surveys of both primary and secondary works addressing the Classical Medieval Renaissance and eighteenth through twentieth century periods within the history of rhetoric The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric doesn t simply update but rather recasts study in the history of rhetoric The authors experienced and well known scholars in their respective fields redefine existing strands of rhetorical study within the periods expand the scope of rhetorical engagement and include additional figures and their works The globalization and expansion of rhetoric are demonstrated in each of these parts and seen clearly in the inclusion of more female rhetors discussions of historical and contemporary electronic resources and examinations of rhetorical practices falling outside the academy and the traditional canon New to this edition is a cumulative review of twentieth century rhetoric along with a thematic index designed to facilitate interdisciplinary or specialized study and scholarly research across the traditional historical periods As programs incorporating rhetorical studies continue to expand at the university level students and researchers are in need of up to date bibliographical resources No other work matches the scope and approach of The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric which carries scholarship on rhetoric into the twenty first century Women's Ways of Making It in Rhetoric and Composition Michelle Ballif,D. Diane Davis,Roxanne Mountford,2010-03-17 This volume explores how women in the fields of rhetoric and composition have succeeded despite the challenges inherent in the circumstances of their work. Focusing on those women generally viewed as successful in rhetoric and composition, this volume relates their stories of successes and failures to serve as models for other women in the profession who aspire to make it too to succeed as women academics in a sea of gender and disciplinary bias and to have a life as well. Building on the gains made by several generations of rhetoric and composition scholars, this volume provides strategies for a newer generation of scholars entering the field and in so doing broadens the support base for women in the field by connecting them with a greater web of women in the profession. Offering frank discussion of professional and personal struggles as well as providing reference materials addressing these concerns, solid career advice and inspirational narratives told by women who have made it in the field of rhetoric and composition, this work highlights such common concerns as dealing with sexism in the tenure and promotion process, maintaining a balance between career and family, struggling for scholarly and/or administrative respect, mentoring junior women, finding one's voice in scholarship and struggling to say no to unrewarded service work. The profiles of individual successful women describe each woman's methods for success, examine the price each has paid for that success, and pass along the advice each has to offer other women who are beginning a career in the field or attempting to jumpstart an existing career. With resources and general advice for women in the field of rhetoric and composition to guide them through their careers as they become survive and thrive as professionals in the discipline, this book is a must-have reading for every woman making her career in the rhetoric and composition fields.

Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration Lydia Wilkes, Lilian W. Mina, Patti Poblete, 2023-02-15. The field of writing program administration has long been a space rich in metaphor. From plate twirling to fire extinguishing, parents to dungeon masters, and much more, the work of a WPA extends to horizons unknown. Responding to the constraints of austerity, Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new lenses for established WPAs and provides aspiring and early-career WPAs with a sense of the range of responsibilities and opportunities in their academic and professional spaces. This volume presents twelve chapters that reclaim and revise established metaphors, offer new metaphors based on sustainable relational or emotional labor practices and phenomena, and reveal the improvisational, artisanal nature of WPA work. Chapters resonate across three sections. The first section focuses on organic relationships captured in phrases like "putting out fires" and "seeing forests for the trees," alongside unexpected comparisons to ground and light. The second describes institutional landscapes featuring generative juxtapositions such as the WPA as a labor activist or a mapper of emotional geography. And the third discusses performance crafts like improv comedy and artisanal making. Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new and revised ways of thinking and acting for WPAs who are constantly negotiating the paradoxical demands of their work and continually striving to act ethically in conflicted and even fraught situations. It will inspire practicing, aspiring, and former WPAs working in a time of transformation by highlighting more sustainable ways of enacting WPA identity Contributors Jacob Babb John Belk Katherine Daily O Meara Ryan J Dippre Douglas Hesse Andrew Hollinger Rona Kaufman Cynthia D Mwenja Manny Pi a Scott Rogers Robyn Tasaka Alexis Teagarden Christy I Wenger Lydia Wilkes

A Feminist Legacy Suzanne Bordelon, 2009-03-10 The first book length investigation of a pioneering English professor and theorist at Vassar College A Feminist Legacy The Rhetoric and Pedagogy of Gertrude Buck explores Buck s contribution to the fields of education and rhetoric during the Progressive Era By contextualizing Buck s academic and theoretical work within the rise of women s educational institutions like Vassar College the social and political movement toward suffrage and Buck s own egalitarian political and social ideals Suzanne Bordelon offers a scholarly and well informed treatment of Buck s achievements that elucidates the historical and contemporary impact of her work and life Bordelon argues that while Buck did not call herself a feminist she embodied feminist ideals by demanding the full participation of her female students and by challenging power imbalances at every academic social and political level A Feminist Legacy reveals that Vassar College is an undervalued but significant site in the history of women s argumentation and pedagogy Drawing on a rich variety of archival sources including previously unexamined primary material A Feminist Legacy traces the beginnings of feminist theories of argumentation and pedagogy and their lasting legacy within the fields of education and rhetoric

Rewriting Composition Bruce Horner, 2016-02-22 This book shows how dominant inflections of key terms in composition reinforce composition s low institutional status and the poor working conditions of many of its instructors and tutors Horner demonstrates ways to challenge debilitating definitions of these terms and to rework them and their relations to one another in constructive ways
