Pilgrims and Politics Antón M. Pazos, 2016-04-08 The objective of this book is to analyse the historical relationships between the phenomenon of Christian pilgrimage and political power within Europe from the Middle Ages up to the present day It establishes a discussion in which the twelve contributors to the volume can compare very different situations such as the medieval pilgrimages and politics in the Latin East as part of warfare and conflict resolution the significance and reality of pilgrimages in late medieval England or in Rome during the papacy of Innocent III the two way traffic pilgrimages in the Tuscan city of Lucca or the pilgrimages in Eastern European countries as an aspect of opposition to communist power A major focus is on the pilgrimages to Santiago de Compostela an important Christian sanctuary from the time of the discovery of the tomb of the apostle St James in the 9th century Topics covered include the Way of St James as seen through medieval Muslim sources the political reading of the apostolic cult as an ideological instrument of the propaganda of the Asturian monarchy Santa Maria de Roncesvalles as an example of political involvement in the assistance of the Jacobean pilgrims the Order of St John as protector of the medieval pilgrims to Santiago de Compostela or the nationalist use of the pilgrimages as an element of national unification and internal cohesion during the Spanish Civil War The final chapter provides a broader global perspective on pilgrimages up to present times Romanesque and the Year 1000 Gerhard Lutz, John McNeill, Richard Plant, 2025-03-31 Romanesque and the Year 1000 examines the art and architecture of the Latin West between c 970 and c 1030 a period which witnessed crucial developments in iconography and stylistic expression across a wide range of media Despite the complex political situation in late 10th century Europe a period marked by chaos in some areas and the effective exercise of authority in others the last quarter of the century saw an apparent upsurge in artistic production in the Empire southern Britain Lombardy the Alps and the Mediterranean albeit one whose survival rate is low The decades after the millennium have left a larger residue of work notably in France Catalonia and northern Italy but were the 1020s artistically more dynamic than the 980s How might we describe the cultural climate of the Latin West between c 970 and c 1030 Individual chapters examine the influence of Carolingian art on artistic production around 1000 the emergence of new approaches to architecture in France Germany England and northern Italy and the response of artists to perceived order and disorder at the turn of the millennium There are studies of architectural sculpture in Catalonia and Castile new town foundation in Saxony and monastic architecture in southern Britain together with examinations of Ottonian sarcophagi book covers in gold and ivory the wall paintings at Reichenau the patronage of Willigis at Mainz and Robert the Pious in northern France the early Romanesque of Poland and Hungary and the reflection of a new type of affective piety in the manuscript illumination of late Anglo Saxon England Romanesque and the Year 1000 presents a wealth of new research in artistic production at a critical period and is of interest to art historians archaeologists and historians alike
