The Collected Works Saint Rafael Arnaiz, 2022-05-14 Saint Rafael Arnaiz was born in Burgos Spain on April 9 1911 When he was twenty one years old he left behind the comforts of his wealthy family and an unfinished degree in architecture to join the Trappist Cistercian abbey of San Isidro de Due as A sudden onset of diabetes and the beginning of the Spanish Civil War 1936 1939 turned his monastic journey into an unusual one In these unfavorable circumstances and despite the shortness of his life he died soon after his twenty seventh birthday Rafael developed a solid spirituality which in its simplicity is a straight path to holiness He has been compared to mystics like Teresa of vila and John of the Cross whose writings inspired him and his theology of the cross born from his prayer places him in continuity with the best of the monastic tradition In his letters and journals compiled in this volume his heart speaks of the joys and struggles of striving to live for God alone Romantic Tales Craik, 1861 The Christian Observer , 1833

The Ladies' Repository , 1860 The idea of this women s magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey s Lady s Book and Snowden s Lady s Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Approximately Heaven James Whorton, 2008-06-17 Enter the distinctly off kilter world of Don Wendell Brush an unemployed Tennessee electrician with a penchant for throwing back a few beers before lunch Mary his long suffering wife of seven years has left him or is trying to Heartsick at the thought of losing her Don beats her out the door reasoning that if he leaves Mary will have to stay behind in their ramshackle house to take care of their dog and cat On the strength of this logic Don finds himself out on the street with only his decrepit old truck the shirt on his back and nothing to do but avoid home Approximately Heaven is a marvelously rambunctious debut by turns melancholy and uproarious about one hapless man s pursuit of happiness or at least another six pack preferably both The novel charts Don s amiably clumsy attempts to improve his situation beginning with his decision to take a road trip with his friend Dove Ellender a retired chain drinking ex felon with emphysema to Mississippi to deliver some furniture Or maybe there s something besides furniture in the trailer behind Dove s leaky half ton green and white 1969 Ford truck but Don isn t asking and Dove s not telling Will Don find his heaven or something close to it Will Mary give him another chance his fourth actually If heaven is a house that is square level and plumb with a loving family inside then for Don even a sober hope of these things would be enough In the course of his hero s grand misadventures prizewinning short story writer James Whorton traverses the broken white line between the absurd and the desperately poignant Fans of Richard Russo will want to raise a glass or at least crack open a can of Natural Light Featuring an endearingly flawed protagonist dead perfect dialogue and a mordant eye for small town southern life Approximately Heaven is about the paradise we long for and the approximations for which we settle It heralds the arrival of a major and heaven sent new literary talent The Good Soldier Ford Madox Ford,2012-09-06 This is the saddest story I have ever heard Wealthy American John Dowell describes in a disarmingly casual compellingly intimate manner how he and his wife Florence meet an English couple in a German spa resort They become friends over the years and gradually the history of their relationships and the passions that lie behind the orderly Edwardian fa ade are unveiled Dowell is the archetypal unreliable narrator and his casual revelations are both unexpected and explosive A masterpiece of early Modernism and a virtuoso performance of literary skill Ford s Tale of Passion reflects contemporary interests in psychology sexuality and the New Woman Its portrayal of the destruction of a civilized elite anticipates the cataclysm of the First World War which erupted while Ford was finishing the book This new edition includes Ford s important essay On Impressionism which sheds valuable light on his artistic technique ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more *Reflections and prayers for holy communion.
