Alone With The Moon Selected Writings Of Musa Mckim:

Alone with the Moon Musa McKim, 1994 There was an air of fragility and vulnerability about Musa McKim that made her friends want to be protective of her She did not disclose with what fierce and undeceived attentiveness she watched from day to day the human comedy faithfully recording her bittersweet perceptions Now with the posthumous publication of ALONG WITH THE MOON she has given us her slant quirky and quizzical letter to the world Stanley Kunitz Poetry Yaddo Micki McGee, New York Public Library, 2008 Yaddo is a rich account of America's premier artists retreat which has hosted some of the twentieth century's most renowned writers composers and visual artists Hannah Arendt James Baldwin Saul Bellow Leonard Bernstein Elizabeth Bishop Truman Capote Flannery O'Connor Aaron Copland Langston Hughes Carson McCullers Sylvia Plath Philip Roth Clyfford Still and William Carlos Williams all lived and worked at Yaddo Richly illustrated with photographs prints intimate letters papers and ephemera from archives and collections at both Yaddo and The New York Public Library this collection provides a window into the famously private institution recounting the experiences of the artists who took advantage of a bucolic retreat to tap into and mingle with genius With essays by Marcelle Clements David Gates Allan Gurganus Tim Page Ruth Price Barry Werth Karl Emil Willers and Helen Vendler and an overview by curator Micki McGee Yaddo is a collaborative project that revisits the major moments of twentieth century American culture and history

Doombook Michael Price, 1998 False Memory Tony Lopez, 1996 Poetry FALSE MEMORY is a major political poem written through the events of the 1990s representing the damaged world that we know in all its violence and inequality Focusing on public language rather than private experience FALSE MEMORY is a hilarious collage of all the specialized jargons and advertised slogans that situate us in the postmodern world Present Tense Stephen Ratcliffe, 1995 Poetry Things happen fast and abundantly as perceived in the present tense Not that the present isn't selected as much as the past is but being less a function of memory and more of attention to the sights and sounds and textual material before the writer any truly responsible present tense seems less constructed than received it is both littered with specificity and cumulatively abstract Two constants in Ratcliffe's scanner as this long poem in twelve sections hums by among the legible many are the sudden recognitions of music intimately heard in ear and mind and the remarkable articulations of the sense around sunstruck plenitude of natural phenomena that literally radiates outwards from his person in all directions a not always pleasant but inescapably full creation whose principle of order is always change And then he asks why not learn to read the right way monosyllabically as if to slow himself and us down to the actual moments that yield sensory delight and knowledge of the world To be precise and yet as continuous as attention is particular is to harness the presentational immediacy of this work's operative poetic muscle As we read we listen to the language speak but we also hear it streak fly mope glance loaf seduce dance In these stanzaically subtle sections Ratcliffe's performative pen scores a possible creation one filled with all manner of unpredictable noticings dislocations mortal acknowledgments blink the vines cover the house The Oxford Dictionary of American Art & Artists Ann Lee Morgan, 2018-10-04 This new edition of The Oxford Dictionary of American Art and Artists has been fully revised and updated as well as including dozens of new entries offering an insightful and informative view of America's artistic heritage An indispensable biographical and critical guide to American art from colonial times to contemporary postmodernism this valuable resource provides readers with a wealth of factual detail and perceptive analysis of America's leading artists This new edition has been updated to include a number of entries on prevailing topics such as body art light and space Indian American art scatter art and transactional art and features many new or greatly expanded biographical entries on artists such as Ida Applebroog Guerilla Girls Peter Hujar and Shirin Neshat Morgan offers readers a wealth of authoritative information as well as well informed analysis and criticism of artists and their work Filled with fascinating historical background and penetrating insight The Oxford Dictionary of American Art and Artists is an essential resource for art lovers everywhere Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1994 Books in Print , 1994
