Alternativen A Multi Option German Reader:

Books in Print, 1994 Eye Movements in Reading Strategies Christiane Wotschack, 2009 Throughout its empirical research history eye movement research has always been aware of the differences in reading behavior induced by individual differences and task demands This work introduces a novel comprehensive concept of reading strategy comprising individual differences in reading style and reading skill as well as reader goals In a series of sentence reading experiments recording eye movements the influence of reading strategies on reader and word level effects assuming distributed processing has been investigated Results provide evidence for strategic top down influences on eye movement control that extend our understanding of eye guidance in reading Directory of German Studies Alan Ng, Valters Nollendorfs, 1996 A Comparative Review of Optical Character Readers Used in Mail Processing United States. Distant Readings Matt Erlin, Lynne Tatlock, 2014 Explores the concept of distant reading and its application to the analysis of nineteenth century German literature and culture drawing on a range of approaches from the emerging digital humanities field In nineteenth century Germany breakthroughs in printing technology and an increasingly literate populace led to an unprecedented print production boom that has long presented scholars with a challenge how to read it all This anthology seeks new answers to the scholarly quandary of the abundance of text Responding to Franco Moretti's call for distant reading and modeling a range of innovative approaches to literary historical analysis informed by the burgeoning field of digital humanities it asks what happens when we shift our focus from the one to the many from the work to the network The thirteen essays in this volume explore the evolving concept of distant reading and its application to the analysis of German literature and culture in the long nineteenth century The contributors consider how new digital technologies enable both the testing of hypotheses and the discovery of patterns and trends as well as how distant and traditional close reading can complement each other in hybrid models of analysis that maintain careful attention to detail but also make calculation enumeration and empirical description critical elements of interpretation Contributors Kirsten Belgum Tobias Boes Matt Erlin Fotis Jannidis and Gerhard Lauer Lutz Koepnick Todd Kontje Peter M McIsaac Katja Mellmann Nicolas Pethes Andrew Piper and Mark Algee Hewitt Allen Beye Riddell Lynne Tatlock Paul A Youngman and Ted Carmichael Matt Erlin is Professor of German and Chair of the Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures and Lynne Tatlock is Hortense and Tobias Lewin Distinguished Professor in the Humanities both at Washington University in St Louis

Precarious International Multicultural Education: Hegemony, Dissent and Rising Alternatives Handel Kashope Wright, Michael Singh, Richard Race, 2012-09-22 Multiculturalism and multicultural education are at a paradoxical moment There is work that continues as if the multicultural hegemony was still intact and on the other hand work articulated as if multiculturalism was decidedly passe The essays in this collection will be of considerable interest to academics policy makers and students of both multiculturalism and multicultural education principally because they touch on both perspectives but concentrate for the most part on the thorny problematic of the workings of multicultural education in its present precarious moment Given the renewed urgent attacks in various western countries the cottage industry of death of multiculturalism texts and the rise of the interculturalism transnationalism diaspora alternatives is multiculturalism dying Are the ends of multiculturalism the management or celebration of diversity representation and recognition for all in society creation of just and equitable communities at the global national and local school classroom levels better theorized and realized through the ascendant alternatives Representing the precarious moment in Canada Ireland Australia the United States and the United Kingdom the essays in this collection address these questions and both depict and trouble hegemonic multicultural education and contrast it with its supposed successor regimes

Alternative Communities in Hispanic Literature and Culture Luis H. Castañeda, Javier González, 2016-09-23 What are Hispanic alternative communities and how are they represented in literature film and popular music This book studies the fictional representation of circles of artists and intellectuals youth gangs musical bands packs of marginal urban dwellers groups of immigrants and other diverse associations that share the common trait of being small and subversive collectives perhaps akin to secret societies plotting to take control of society These groups usually exist within a larger and established community typically the nation state though maintaining with it complicated relations of rivalry criticism outright violence and other forms of antagonism Thus alternative communities represent the other side of official institutions by constituting dystopias that condemn the status quo or by building utopias that point to new social arrangements In the Hispanic world a broad transatlantic space that includes Spain and Spanish America alternative communities have existed since the 19th century a time of nation building for Spanish American countries all the way to the 21st century when hybrid postnational and cosmopolitan communities begin to appear The seventeen chapters brought together in this volume which constitutes the first systematic approach to Hispanic alternative communities tackle this complex cultural phenomenon from diverse critical perspectives

Alternative Approaches in Conflict Resolution Martin Leiner, Christine Schliesser, 2017-10-13 This edited volume brings together alternative and innovative approaches in conflict resolution With traditional military intervention repeatedly leading to the transformation of entire regions into zones of instability and violence Afghanistan Iraq Libya Syria the study of alternative and less violent approaches to conflict resolution has become imperative Four approaches are presented here negotiation religion and gender reconciliation and forgiveness and the arts This volume contains the insights and experiences of fourteen internationally renowned scholars and practitioners from different contexts Can forgiveness help heal relationships in post apartheid South Africa How can art assist dealing with unrememberable events such as the genocide in Rwanda What transformational resources do women offer in contexts of massive human rights violations The aim here is twofold to provide and encourage critical reflection of the approaches presented here and to explore concrete improvements in conflict resolution strategies In its interdisciplinary and international outlook this work combines the tried and tested approaches from conflict resolution experts in academia NGOs and civil society making it an invaluable tool for academics and practitioners alike
