Alternatives to Global Capitalism Ulrich Duchrow, 1995 This work explains why the rich get richer and the poor get poorer It discusses what jobless growth means for an economy no longer interested in human welfare along with the biblical alternatives for ordinary people and NGOs The Churches and the Development Debate Ignatius Swart, 2006-05-01 This book newly addresses the question about the Christian churches participation in development The innovative element of this reflection is the way in which the author finds meaning and significance particularly in the concept of a fourth generation approach to strategic development engagement The book s essential argument is that a fourth generation strategy an approach that makes the contemporary social or people s movements the primary subjects of its development action and theory holds the greatest prospect for authentic participation by the Christian churches in development Economic Ethics Sean Doherty, 2014-03 In the wake of the economic crisis few questions are more pressing than those around the ethics of finance and economics Theology and Economic Ethics expands the self critical resources of contemporary theological economic ethics by bringing the method of a pre modern thinker Martin Luther 1483 1546 into interaction with that of a modern contribution to social ethics the Swiss theologian Arthur Rich 1910 92 The work is undertaken through a close engagement with a selected publication of Luther his 1519 20 Grosser Sermon von dem Wucher and of Rich his masterwork Wirtschaftsethik published in two volumes in 1984 and 1990 respectively It is the first substantial treatment in English of Rich's magnum opus Sean Doherty introduces Luther's sermon on usury situates it in its context then provides a commentary on this work discussing how Luther brings key theological motifs to bear on a particular economic question The study proceeds with a sketch of Arthur Rich's life and work and presents Rich's method as set out in Wirtschaftsethik Doherty illuminates Rich's understanding of ethics his approach to Scripture and his adoption of the thought of Max Weber and John Rawls Bringing insights from the study of Luther to bear in an analysis of Rich's method Doherty questions some of Rich's assumptions and notes ways in which a more self critical approach could have made his project more successful Finally the book makes tentative suggestions as to the wider applicability of these findings for a Christian approach to economic ethics Christianity and Resistance in the 20th Century Soren von Dosenrode, Sören Zibrandt von Dosenrode-Lynge, 2009 How is the Christian supposed to act when his or her government misbehaves Should one suffer and obey the authority or should one render resistance and if so should it be passive or active and if active should it be violent or not This book will not provide the answer to this question but it will describe and analyse important persons of the 20th century who were placed in a situation where they did not merely turn the other cheek but felt that they had to resist a regime a decision which had consequences for them all Thus the book provides insight to a central and current question of Christian and indeed religious thinking Christianity and Resistance in the 20th Century Søren Dosenrode, 2008-11-30 How is the Christian supposed to act when his or her government misbehaves Should one suffer and obey the authority or should one render resistance and if so should it be passive or active and if active should it be violent or not This book will not provide the answer to this question but it will describe and analyse important persons of the 20th century who were placed in a situation where they did not merely turn the other cheek but felt that they had to resist a regime a decision which had consequences for them all Thus the book provides insight to a central and current question of Christian and indeed religious Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics Paul S. Chung, 2013-10-23 Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics is a groundbreaking attempt to present constructive missional theology in an integrative and interdisciplinary framework as it provocatively utilizes and contextualizes Reformation theology and hermeneutics concerning ethical theology embedded within the wider horizon of World Christianity Mission as constructive theology is explored and refined in an hermeneutical and interdisciplinary fashion underlying a new horizon of postcolonial theology and mission in light of God's act of speech Missional church founded up God's grace of justification and Christ's diakonia of reconciliation becomes ethically oriented public church as it is engaged in mutireligious diversity of people s lives and lifeworld in the postcolonial context of World Christianity Property for People, Not for Profit Ulrich Duchrow, Franz J. Hinkelammert, 2013-07-04 The issue of private property and the rights it confers remain almost undiscussed in critiques of globalization and free market economics Yet property lies at the heart of an economic system geared to profit maximization The authors describe the historically specific and self consciously explicit manner in which it emerged They trace this history from earliest historical times and show how in the hands of Thomas Hobbes and John Locke in particular the notion of private property took on its absolutist nature and most extreme form a form which neoliberal economics is now imposing on humanity worldwide through the pressures of globalization They argue that avoiding the destruction of people's ways of living and of Nature requires reshaping our notions of private property They look at practical ways for social and ecumenical movements to press for alternatives Liberation Theology for a Democratic Society Heinrich Bedford-Strohm, 2018 Public Theology is an indispensable dimension of the calling of the church As minister bishop and academic teacher Heinrich Bedford Strohm in this collection of articles in English language draws on a multitude of experiences in theological reflection as well as in pastoral praxis The contributions of this volume include fundamental reflections on the role of churches and religion in the public sphere But they also deal with issues of material ethics such as human rights economic justice overcoming violence ecology or interreligious dialogue The volume shows how theology can give moral guidance not only for the church but also for society as a whole Eco-Reformation Lisa E. Dahill, Jim B. Martin-Schramm, 2016-10-31 In 2017 Christians around the world will mark the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation In the midst of many appeals for reformation today a growing number of theologians scholars and activists around the world believe Reformation celebrations in 2017 and beyond need to focus now on the urgent need for an Eco Reformation The rise of industrial fossil fuel driven capitalism and the explosive growth in human population endanger the fundamental planetary life support systems on which

life as we know it has evolved The collective impact of human production consumption and reproduction is undermining the ecological systems that support human life on Earth If human beings do not reform their relationship with God's creation unspeakable suffering will befall many especially the weakest and most vulnerable among all species. The conviction at the heart of this collection of essays is that a gospel call for ecological justice belongs at the heart of the five hundredth anniversary observance of the Reformation in 2017 and as a if not the central dimension of Christian conversion faith and practice into the foreseeable future Like Luther's Ninety Five Theses this volume brings together critical biblical pastoral theological historical and ethical perspectives that constructively advance the vision of a socially and ecologically flourishing A Luta Continua . . . (The Struggle Continues) David Arthur Haslam, 2016-07-15 From battling apartheid to saving the environment fighting racism to urging tax justice and Sunday preaching to visiting the sick this book tells the story of nearly fifty years of active church ministry The writer has ministered to congregations in three English cities traveled to five continents sometimes with his congregations and engaged in the major dimensions of Christian mission today The story begins in the late sixties at the Fourth Assembly of the World Council of Churches Chapters cover the struggle against apartheid the Program to Combat Racism the rise of Transnational Corporations local ministry the challenge of climate change movements against racism and caste discrimination and the growing campaign for tax justice Each chapter ends with a reflection on a theologian who has influenced and encouraged the author They range from Dietrich Bonhoeffer through Gustavo Gutierrez and Ann Morisy to James Cone and Tissa Balasuriya The book mixes experiences of the local and global congregational life and international engagement It offers a sweep of concern and action enlivened by humorous incidents Readers will gain insight into how broad contemporary ministry can be and how the churches can still make a contribution to bringing God's peace with justice to today's world Eradication of Poverty and Empowerment of the Poor Amal Raj Chellakan, 2007 Healing a Broken World Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda, 2002-08-08 Moe Lobeda shows how the advent of globalization places a new horizon on the spiritual quest for religious experience Healing a Broken World places spirituality and contemplative experience in relation to today s most pressing problems Journal of Latin American Theology, Volume 18, Number 2 Lindy Scott, 2024-01-30 This issue of the Journal of Latin American Theology features articles with pastoral perspectives for postpandemic times as well as reflection on justice and theological education Edesio Sanchez Cetina addresses the difference between how disease is dealt with in the Bible and modern understandings of illness and healing Fabio Salguero Fagoaga wrestles with COVID related suffering in light of Christian hope in the resurrection Mary Luz Reyes Bejarano proposes an interdisciplinary model of pastoral care that puts victimology in dialogue with psychology and theology She does this within the framework of a regional program in Colombia for women dealing with the aftermath of violence Daniel S Schipani develops a psycho theology of lament and offers keys for walking alongside and supporting companioning people facing crisis situations Luis Cruz Villalobos identifies eleven positive keys to coping evidenced by Paul in 2 Corinthians and these become the basis of a proposed hermeneutic of post traumatic Christian praxis Esteban M Voth discusses how the Hebrew term tsedeq is rendered in Bible translations in English righteousness and Spanish justicia justice He then connects the impact of the translation to how followers of Jesus live out their theology Dieumeme Noelliste celebrates the collaborative nature of advanced degree programs and the prophetic missional approach taken by many institutions of theological education in the global South Four book reviews a film review and one poem close out this volume

A Vexing Gadfly Eliseo Perez-Alvarez, 2011-10-27 This essay on Soren Kierkegaard and economic matters from a theological perspective is well grounded in the Dane's journals In these writings the late nineteenth century thinker shows his solidarity with rural residents 90 percent of the population and urbanite menial workers Topics include the option for the poor the ideology of impotence the denouncing of a competitive society the correlation of wealth and poverty media church university and theatre as social institutions shaping reality Christendom and the retribution doctrine Hans-Dirk van Hoogstraten, 2001 Both true and false notions of connection exist in society and in the human imagination In this work economic and ecological claims of supposed connectedness are compared on a profound level Starting with an historical analysis of the ethical and economic thought of Aristotle and Adam Smith the two main representatives of the first and second waves of Enlightenment this discussion clarifies the value of the term deep economy Concern about current ecological problems often confronts us with the history theories and experiences of natural and spiritual connectedness This book adds an indispensable factor It urges us to take into serious account the actual state of economic affairs Discussion of the clash between ecology and economy has long been avoided due to the paralysis it threatens Dr Van Hoogstraten however searched for a paramount view and found it in religion In his in depth discussion of the character of both ecology and economy the hidden religious pretensions of both fields are uncovered A merely moral approach to the economy s devastating effects is deemed ineffective the author offers readers a perspective beyond good and evil The adoption of this Nietzschean approach he calls facing the fate Exposing unexplored forgotten treasures in Jewish wisdom Deep Economy lays out a possible way to proceed towards a new connectedness He confronts us with the necessity of rethinking conceptions of life and death sex and birth wealth and work He convincingly questions and explores hidden places both in society as a whole and in human imagination where basic decisions concerning living together are made Unlike established economic thought Deep Economy leads us through global economy s aspects of exclusion and enrichment of curse and blessing to the author s unique world view presented in this book Call it a provoking textbook for class discussion a talking piece for politicians and political scientists a philosophical work for economists an interpretative study for theologians and philosophers to work with or call it Deep Economy The Greatest Story Oversold: Understanding Economic Globalization Duncan, Stan G. ,2014-04-10 Free trade was touted as a way to make economies more efficient and productive and a strategy that would also benefit small businesses and workers Instead as author Stan Duncan says Corporate and political powers have contorted and stacked the decks of the financial machinery that runs the earth in such a way that rewards the rich and extracts payments from the poor The Greatest Story Oversold helps general readers understand the various global economic forces at work today In non technical language Duncan explains the rules and general practices of transnational corporations and global lenders like the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund He connects the dots between what happens here and what happens there addressing the impact of specific issues like the global banking crisis third world debt NAFTA and Free in Deed Craig L. Nessan, 2022-01-11 Free in Deed serves as a primer in Lutheran ethics for faith and the church as the body of Christ It captures the fruit of Craig L Nessan's teaching of ethics and his research and reflection on Christian ethical existence over his entire career The heart of Lutheran ethics Nessan claims involves serving neighbors When Christ sets us free indeed John 8 36 we are set free to serve others in deed Ethics involves intentional and disciplined reflection together in community on the choices we must make in living out our lives in the world While the focus on loving the neighbor is not unique to Lutheran ethics the author contends in this book that it is the most distinctive feature of ethics in the Lutheran perspective To that end Nessan explores biblical authority and Lutheran hermeneutics alongside the authority of the traditional elements of tradition reason and experience He moves on to explore what gospel freedom looks like in the current American context Nessan acknowledges the misinterpretation of Luther's two kingdoms teaching opting to describe Luther's two kingdoms as God's two strategies to bring forth the kingdom shalom of God Also addressed are the themes of justification and sanctification the vocation of the universal priesthood the ethics of the cross Lutheran ethics and political advocacy and the ethics of forgiveness The book is accessibly written with theology students pastors and interested lav readers in mind The Business of God Sheryl Johnson, Dannis Matteson, 2025-08-14 The theoretical framework of the Industrial Complex explores how institutions established with a purpose external to themselves can become focused on their own self perpetuation pursuing power growth and profits in ways that may well contradict and undermine that original purpose Much theorizing has engaged issues such as the military healthcare and prison industrial complexes This book explores the framework of the Industrial Complex in relation to churches How do churches intended to in part worship God preach the gospel nurture discipleship and serve those in need become focused on factors such as profit accumulation limitless growth and expansion consolidation of power How do systems like colonialism capitalism white supremacy and patriarchy play a contributing role to these phenomena What are the impacts of the Church Industrial Complex on various facets of church life and parties involved and impacted Finally what can be done to resist these temptations and where are the corners of the church that have and continue to witness to an alternate approach This accessible book is designed for anyone who is concerned about these questions church leaders and members theological students and anyone who is curious about the dynamics at play in contemporary church life Religion and Social Development in Post-apartheid South Africa Ignatius Swart, Hermann Rocher, Sulina Green, Johannes Erasmus, 2010-10-01 It reflects original research and contributes to new developments in the field of theology and religion with regard to its developmental role within a transformation context The book may easily stand out in future as seminal in the way that it promoted the social development debate of the church and its organisational structures from an interdisciplinary focus Prof Antoinette Lombard Department of Social Work and Criminology University of Pretoria Pentecostalism, Catholicism, and the Spirit in the World Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-10-17 This volume s essays are an ecumenical ensemble of the best scholars and leading practitioners in the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements from all four corners of the world The contributors bring together various denominational perspectives and dialogue for understanding the present momentum of these Spirit movements in the world church Their diverse methodologies transverse the traditional and new approaches to studying these movements Pointing the way forward the authors highlight some of the lessons learned in their scholarly engagement with Spirit movements These lessons offer significant insight and viewpoints for the academy in the historical analysis of these movements They also serve as a good guide for pastoral discernment and accompaniment for God's people in their daily lives as well as for social ministries in the world church This volume addresses questions of salvation and eschatology health and healing prosperity and poverty suffering and death fear and faith despair and hope Other topics include the conflict between charism and institution and the tension between cultic clericalism and the affirmation and use of the gifts and talents of lay members of Christ's faithful in the church
