Shi-xu, Manfred Kienpointner, Jan Servaes, 2008-08-22 Read the Cultural Other contains studies on non Western discourse It has two principal aims Firstly it argues that the study of non Western non White and Third World discourses should become a legitimate necessary and routine part of international discourse scholarship Hitherto non Western non White and Third World discourses have been relegated and marginalized to a local particular or other place in or one might argue outside the mainstream To reclaim their place the book deconstructs the rhetoric of universalism and the continued preoccupation with Western discourse in the profession and stresses the cultural nature of discourse both ordinary and disciplinary as it outlines a culturally pluralist vision Secondly in order to take the multicultural view seriously it explores the complexity diversity and forms of otherness of non Western discourse by examining the case of China and Hong Kong's discourses of the decolonization of the latter Far too often non Western discourse has been stereotyped as externally discrete internally homogeneous and formally containable within a universal general or integrated model The present work focuses on China and Hong Kong's discourses which have been marginalized by their Western counterparts Through culturally eclectic linguistic analysis and local cultural analysis it identifies and highlights the specific ways of speaking of China and Hong Kong their concepts concerns aspirations resistance verbal strategies etc with respect to similar or different issues The culturally pluralist view and analytical practice proffered here call for a radical cultural change in international scholarship on language communication and discourse     Allyn and Bacon Quick Guide to the Internet for Sociology Stephen F.
