Alpha 94 Unesco Institute for Education, 1994 Resources in Education , 1999-04 Unesco List of Documents and Publications Unesco, 1994 International Handbook of Educational Policy Nina Bascia, Alister Cumming, Amanda Datnow, Kenneth Leithwood, David Livingstone, 2008-05-14 Nina Bascia Alister Cumming Amanda Datnow Kenneth Leithwood and David Livingstone This Handbook presents contemporary and emergent trends in educational policy research in over fifty chapters written by nearly ninety leading researchers from a number of countries It is organized into five broad sections which capture many of the current dominant educational policy foci and at the same time situate current understandings historically in terms of both how they are conceptualized and in terms of past policy practice The chapters themselves are empirically grounded providing illustrations of the conceptual implications contained within them as well as allowing for comparisons across them The serendipity within chapters with respect to jurisdictional particularities and contrasts allows readers to consider not only a range of approaches to policy analysis but also the ways in which policies and policy ideas play out in different times and places The sections move from a focus on prevailing policy tendencies through increasingly critical and outsider perspectives on policy They address in turn the contemporary strategic emphasis on large scale reform substantive emphases at several levels on leadership and governance improving teacher quality and conceptualizing learning in various domains around the notion of literacies and concluding finally with a contrasting topic workplace learning which has had less policy attention and thus allows readers to consider both the advantages and disadvantages of learning and teaching under the bright gaze of policy Literacies in Childhood Laurie Makin, Criss Jones-Diaz, Claire McLachlan, 2007 Understand how children become literate and mold a confident reader with this easy to read resource Rural Literacies Kim Donehower, Charlotte Hogg, Eileen E Schell, 2007 Rural Literacies identifies the problems inherent in trying to understand rural literacy addresses the lack of substantive research on literacy in rural areas and reviews traditional misrepresentations of rural literacy This innovative volume frames debates over literacy in relation to larger social political and economic forces such as the impact of the No Child Left Behind Act on rural schools and the effects of out migration globalization and the loss of small family farms on rural communities Drawing upon traditional literacy and composition research and employing theory from education and sociology the text engages compositionists in broader conversations regarding rural literacies The authors share strategies that will help compositionists participate in pedagogies that are rooted in a richer understanding of rural literacies and work toward sustainability for all communities in a globalized age Portraits of Literacy Across Families, Communities, and Schools Jim Anderson, Maureen Kendrick, Theresa Rogers, Suzanne Smythe, 2005-05-06 This unique global perspective on multiple literacies crosses traditional boundaries between the study of family community and school literacies It calls attention to the ideological nature of literacy education across a broad range of literacy context Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Arthur L. Wilson, Elisabeth

Hayes, 2009-04-27 Sponsored by the American Association of Adult Continuing Education This monumental work is a testimony to the science of adult education and the skills of Wilson and Hayes It is a veritable feast for nourishing our understanding of the current field of adult education The editors and their well chosen colleagues consistently question how we know and upon what grounds we act They invite us to consider not only how we can design effective adult education but also why we practice in a particular socio economic context Jane Vella author of Taking Learning to Task and Learning to Listen Learning to Teach This new handbook captures the exciting intellectual and professional development of our field in the last decade It is an indispensable resource for faculty students and professionals Jack Mezirow emeritus professor Adult and Continuing Education Teachers College Columbia University For nearly seventy years the handbooks of adult and continuing education have been definitive references on the best practices programs and institutions in the field In this new edition over sixty leading authorities share their diverse perspectives in a single volume exploring a wealth of topics including learning from experience adult learning for self development race and culture in adult learning technology and distance learning learning in the workplace adult education for community action and development and much more Much more than a catalogue of theory and historical facts this handbook strongly reflects the values of adult educators and instructors who are dedicated to promoting social and educational opportunity for learners and to sustaining fair and ethical practices A Community-Based Approach to Literacy Programs: Taking Learners' Lives Into Account Peggy A.

Sissel, 1996-11-08 New areas of interest and scholarship are emerging in relation to the needs concerns and contexts of adult learners in literacy programs A learner's gender ethnicity and cultural and educational background in conjunction with the learning setting all affect the Adult Basic Education experience Understanding these aspects of learners' lives is critical to meeting their learning needs Encouraging a community based approach that takes account of the reality of learner's lives this volume offers suggestions for incorporating knowledge about a learner's particular context culture and community into adult literacy programming The purpose is to encourage reflection and discussion among practitioners program developers and policy makers as they work toward meeting the needs of their own communities of various kinds This is the 70th issue in the journal series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page Alpha, 1997 Alpha 97 Unesco Institute for Education, Québec (Province).
