La natura come amante Luca Maria Francesco Fabris,2010 Highland Park and River Oaks Cheryl Caldwell Ferguson,2014-08-27 In the early twentieth century developers from Baltimore to Beverly Hills built garden suburbs a new kind of residential community that incorporated curvilinear roads and landscape design as picturesque elements in a neighborhood Intended as models for how American cities should be rationally responsibly and beautifully modernized garden suburban communities were fragments of a larger if largely imagined garden city the mythical good city of U S city planning practices of the 1920s This extensively illustrated book chronicles the development of the two most fully realized garden suburbs in Texas Dallas s Highland Park and Houston s River Oaks Cheryl Caldwell Ferguson draws on a wealth of primary sources to trace the planning design financing implementation and long term management of these suburbs She analyzes homes built by such architects as H B Thomson C D Hill Fooshee Cheek John F Staub Birdsall P Briscoe and Charles W Oliver She also addresses the evolution of the shopping center by looking at Highland Park s Shopping Village which was one of the first in the nation Ferguson sets the story of Highland Park and River Oaks within the larger story of the development of garden suburban communities in Texas and across America to explain why these two communities achieved such prestige maintained their property values became the most successful in their cities in the twentieth century and still serve as ideal models for suburban communities today Landscape Architecture Magazine's Product Profiles and Directory ,2000 Your source for products and services for landscape construction design and maintenance Forest and Garden Melanie Louise Simo,2003 How wild and managed or artificially arranged environments coexist has long been a matter of intense debate among foresters and landscape professionals Creating Outdoor Classrooms Lauri Macmillan Johnson,Kim Duffek,2010-01-01 Schoolyards have come a long way from the barren playgrounds that many people remember Today s school campuses often feature gardens in which students can learn about native plants and wildlife grow vegetables and fruit explore cultural traditions practice reading and math skills and use their imaginations to create fun play spaces And for a growing number of urban students these schoolyard gardens offer the best if not the only opportunity to experience the natural world firsthand and enjoy its many benefits This book is a practical hands on guide for creating a variety of learning environments in the arid Southwest Filled with clear easy to use information and illustrated with photographs drawings and plans the book covers everything necessary to create schoolyard gardens An introduction to schoolyards as outdoor classrooms and several types of habitats including art gardens cultural history gardens ecological gardens literacy gardens and vegetable gardens Design theory including a history of garden styles and design principles and design elements Beginning the design process including identifying participants and writing a design program that sets out goals and requirements Conducting site research and synthesizing design elements to arrive at a final design Design essentials including project funding and design features maintenance accessibility safety and project evaluation and revision Wildlife ecology including elements needed for survival such as food and shelter Creating gardens for pollinators and other wildlife including hummingbirds butterflies bees moths bats and flies as well as pest control Lists of native plants for various kinds of habitats and nurseries that sell native plants as well as books web sites and other resources for learning more about native plants and wildlife This guide will be essential for landscape architects school personnel parents and students Indeed its principles can be used in designing schoolyard habitats across the country while its information on gardening with native plants and wildlife will be useful to homeowners across the Southwest Landscape Architecture ,2001 Refining Nature Scott Jennings Melbourne,2022-03-21 Peter Walker born in 1932 is one of the most seminal and prolific figures in contemporary landscape design both as a teacher and as practitioner His career now spans six decades Amongst his best known works are Nasher Sculpture Garden in Dallas Novartis Campus in Basel and the September 11 Memorial in New York His generous landscapes are characterized by minimalist forms theses spaces are classical but also entirely modern Scott Melbourne s review looks at this unique oeuvre in retrospective and pays close attention to how Walker s urban squares and parks have fared over time He studies the main design features and provides a comparative analysis of their effects In the second and updated edition of this book foreword and bibliography were revised and a subject index was added

Landscape Architecture News Digest ,1998 Art Index Retrospective ,2000 Landscape as Urbanism Charles Waldheim,2022-03-15 A definitive intellectual history of landscape urbanism It has become conventional to think of urbanism and landscape as opposing one another or to think of landscape as merely providing temporary relief from urban life as shaped by buildings and infrastructure But driven in part by environmental concerns landscape has recently emerged as a model and medium for the city with some theorists arguing that landscape architects are the urbanists of our age In Landscape as Urbanism one of the field s pioneers presents a powerful case for rethinking the city through landscape Charles Waldheim traces the roots of landscape as a form of urbanism from its origins in the Renaissance through the twentieth century Growing out of progressive architectural culture and populist environmentalism the concept was further informed by the nineteenth century invention of landscape architecture as a new art charged with reconciling the design of the industrial city with its ecological and social conditions In the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries as urban planning shifted from design to social science and as urban design committed to neotraditional models of town planning landscape urbanism emerged to fill a void at the heart of the contemporary urban project Generously illustrated Landscape as Urbanism examines works from around the world by designers ranging from Ludwig Hilberseimer Andrea Branzi and Frank Lloyd Wright to James Corner Adriaan Geuze and Michael Van Valkenburgh The result is the definitive account of an emerging field that is likely to influence the design of cities for decades to come The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Homes through American History Olivia Graf, Melissa Wells Duffes, Elizabeth B. Greene, Nancy Blumenstark Mingus, Leslie Humm Cormier Ph.D., Neal V. Hitch, Mark Edward Braun, Jane C. Busch, Brenda Kayzar, Thomas W. Paradis, 2008-03-30 Beginning with the homes of the first European settlers to the North American colonies and concluding with the latest trends in construction and design of houses and apartments in the United States Homes through American History is a four volume set intended for a general audience From tenements to McMansions from wattle and daub construction in early New England to sustainable materials for green housing these books provide a rich historical tour through housing in the United States Divided into 10 historical periods the series explores a variety of home types and issues within a social historical and political context For use in history social studies and literature classes Homes through American History identifies A brief historical overview of the era in order provide context to the discussion of homes and dwellings Styles of domestic architecture around the country Building material and manufacturing Home layout and design Furniture and decoration Landscaping and outbuildings The School in a Garden Gordon T. Millichap, J. Gordon Millichap, 2000 Beatrix Farrand Judith B. Tankard, 2009-09-29 Presents the life and work of one of the foremost landscape designers of the early 1900s Born into a prominent New York family the niece of Edith Wharton Farrand eschewed the social life of the Gilded Age to pursue her passion for landscape and plants Many of her clients were members of the highest society with estates in Newport the Berkshires and Maine but Farrand ultimately became a consultant for university campuses including Yale and Princeton and for public gardens including the Santa Barbara Botanic Garden and the Rose Garden at The New York Botanical Garden Perhaps her best known work is Dumbarton Oaks originally a private residence and now a research institute of Harvard University Known for broad expanses of lawn with deep swaths of borders in a subtle palette of foliage and flowers her gardens have been photographed at their peak for this book and complemented by watercolor wash renderings of her designs From publisher description Cultivating and Preserving American Wild Flowers, 1890-1965 John Thomas Fitzpatrick, 2006 Dictionary of Today's Landscape Designers Pierluigi Nicolini, Francesco Repishti, 2003 The aim of the book is to illustrate the different ways of understanding landscape creating a dictionary that can convey not just the scope of the designing processes and their related actors but to provide a first key for interpreting the various approaches to this discipline that has given rise to an entirely new dimension in designing the cityscape turning the open space of the city into a space for art and sculpture for garden and architecture and into a new field for cultural activity It documents the surprising extent of the planning experience and profiles world renowned architects engineers landscape architects artists and photographers It also provides the reader with a key interpretation of the different approaches to an experience that has introduced a new dimension in the physical transformation of our environment The dictionary features leading figures from the international scene including Tadao Ando Emilio Ambasz Daniel Buren Tony Cragg Walter de Maria Michael Heizer Nancy Holt Toyo Ito Anish Kapoor Rem Koolhaas Maya Lin Richard Long and James Turrell to name a few Over the last decade the concept of landscape has dramatically changed References to the discipline of landscape architecture can be found in urban planning in projects that reconstruct large disused areas in the design of public spaces parks and private gardens in Land Art and in photography This field has come to greater prominence with the increase in public projects and by keeping pace with new theoretical approaches and design practices This volume will be an invaluable reference for anyone involved in urban planning public art landscape architecture and landscape design
