Coaching Ministry Teams Kenneth O. Gangel, 2006-10-18 In competitive sports we prize teamwork We know that a mature team will usually beat an astounding collection of individual players The burden of creating such esprit de corps falls to the coach and the team of leaders he has assembled After all a team without a coach cannot win But what happens when the coach himself does not understand the dynamics of teamwork In a similar manner every leader of every church is a coach of sorts with a ministry team responsible for the life of the church The question put to you as a pastor is this Are you a team player Even more to the point Whose team are you building Too many church leaders writes author Kenn Gangel have fallen into the trap of personal kingdom building a focused concern on one's own and present ministry without a wider recognition of kingdom participation The net effect of this condition has led to narrow vision stunted church growth and frustrated relationships within the body of Christ In contrast Gangel explores broad and penetrating support throughout the Word of God for team based inclusive cooperative leadership From Jethro's advice to Moses all the way to Jesus's approach to discipleship biblical leadership is viewed as a tool to be shared a model of servanthood mentoring and the mutual interdependence of gifts Along the way Gangel explores the character attributes of successful biblical leadership common things like humility patience and quiet dignity From there he reveals how these qualities open an authentic leader up to the wide and thrilling possibilities of working hand in hand with others in the Lord's work together

Does God Love All or Some? Ronnie W. Rogers, 2019-04-19 The term extensivism describes my position regarding the doctrine of salvation Specifically extensivism believes that man was created in the image of God with otherwise choice God's salvation plan involves an all inclusive unconditional offer of salvation to every person reception of which is conditioned upon grace enabled faith rather than Calvinism's exclusive plan of a limited actual offer of salvation to only the unconditionally elected Generally it replaces the term non-Calvinism These are the five primary objectives of the book First my considerations would result in a deeper understanding of God Second I will demonstrate that God salvationally loves every single person Third I intend to offer a precise and respectful critique of Calvinism's internal and biblical inconsistencies these are largely due to its commitment to compatibilism and unconditional election Fourth I will demonstrate that God's free choice to endow man with libertarian freedom is a more biblical perspective Fifth because a significant percentage of people who become Calvinists do not actually understand Calvinism I seek to present Calvinism and extensivism in language that is precisely and consistently reflective of the commitments of each perspective regarding God's sovereignty salvific love foreknowledge and man's freedom this so a person can make an informed choice about Calvinism
