Steve Brestin, Dee Brestin, 2012-10-10 Called for a Purpose The letters of Peter and Jude challenge you to recognize your identity as a chosen friend of God and therefore to live a holy life. Originally addressed to persecuted believers of the first century, these words encourage you to face trials with a living hope, certain of Christ's return, and warn you of the danger of false teaching and spiritual lethargy, advice as timely today as it was for the early Christians. If you are serious about understanding God's purpose for you, you've come to the right place.

Commentary on 1 & 2 Peter and Jude Charles Spurgeon, 2014-03-28 Baptist pastor Charles Haddon Spurgeon is remembered today as the Prince of Preachers. But in addition to his sermons, he regularly read a Bible passage before his message and gave a verse-by-verse exposition rich in gospel insight and wisdom for the Christian life. Sample 1 Peter 1:1-5. 1 Peter 1:1 Peter, an Apostle of Jesus Christ. It must have been very pleasant to his heart to write those words, not Peter who denied his Master, but Peter, full of imperfections and infirmities, the impetuous and changeable one of the twelve, but Peter, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, as truly sent of God as any of the other Apostles, and with as much of the Spirit of his Master resting upon him. Peter, an Apostle of Jesus Christ. 1:2 To the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father. You might go for fifty years to some places of worship and never hear the word elect ever mentioned. Modern ministers seem to be ashamed of the grand old doctrine of election, but it was not so with the Apostles and the early Christians. They were accustomed to speak of one another as the elect of God. The doctrine of election was most precious to their hearts, and therefore Peter writes, elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father. 2 Through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ, grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. We not only need grace, but we need much grace. And also peace. And we need a greatly increased measure of both those blessings. Do not be satisfied, dear brothers and sisters in Christ, with the grace that you already have. Be thankful for it, but ask for the Divine multiplication of it, regard the grace which you have already received as being like the boy's loaves and fishes and expect that Christ will continue to multiply it for you and for thousands of others round about you Grace unto you and peace be multiplied 3 5 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ which according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fades not away reserved in Heaven for you who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time What a vast mass of meaning is packed away in these words Men's books even when they are good are like gold leaf a little precious metal is very thinly hammered out so as to cover a wide surface but almost every Word in the Bible seems to contain a whole mine of heavenly wealth Note Beloved what Peter says concerning your new birth you are begotten by the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ At your first birth you were born in sin But now you have been born again through grace by the almighty power of God Notice also unto what you are born unto a hope that is full of life a lively hope a hope of immortality a hope whose root is in the grave of Christ the empty grave from which He has risen and which is the assurance that because He has risen you also shall rise See further to what you have been born to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fades not away See also how that inheritance is entailed upon you for it is reserved in Heaven for you And see too how you are kept for it for you are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time 1 & 2 Peter and Jude N.T.

Senior, Daniel J. Harrington, 2016-03-16 Crisis in the church is not a new phenomenon In fact the church has always been and probably always will be involved in some kind of crisis Even in the apostolic period which is regarded by many as the church's golden age there were serious crises coming both from the outside as in 1 Peter and from the inside as in Jude and 2 Peter The three short New Testament letters treated in 1 Peter Jude and 2 Peter illustrate the problems early Christians faced as well as the rhetorical techniques and theological concepts with which they combated those problems In the first part of this volume Donald Senior views 1 Peter as written from Rome in Peter's name to several churches in northern Asia Minor present day Turkey in the latter part of the first century C E The new Christians addressed in 1 Peter found themselves aliens and exiles in the wider Greco Roman society and suffered a kind of social ostracism But they are given a marvelous theological Vision of who they have become through their baptism and pastoral encouragement to stand firm They are shown how to take a missionary stance toward the outside world by giving the witness of a holy and blameless life to offset the slander and ignorance of the non Christian majority and possibly even to lead them to glorify God on the day of judgment In the second part of this volume Daniel Harrington interprets Jude and 2 Peter as confronting crises in the late first century that were perpetrated by Christian teachers who are described polemically as intruders in Jude and as false teachers in 2 Peter In confronting the crises within their churches the authors appeal frequently to the Old Testament and to early summaries of Christian faith While Jude uses other Jewish traditions 2 Peter includes most of the text of Jude as well as many distinctively Greek terms and concepts It is clear that for the authors despite their different social settings what was at stake was the struggle for the faith Daniel J Harrington SJ is a professor of New Testament at Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge Massachusetts and general editor of New Testament Abstracts He is a past president of the Catholic Biblical Association of America and the editor of the Sacra Pagina series He also wrote The Gospel of Matthew in the Sacra Pagina series Donald Senior CP is a professor of New Testament studies and president of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago He was recently appointed by Pope John Paul II to the Pontifical Biblical Commission General editor of The Bible Today he also co edited The Collegeville Pastoral Dictionary of the Bible and the 22 volume international commentary series New Testament Message and he wrote the four volume The Passion series published
