Roraback, 2017-04-18 In his pioneering study The Philosophical Baroque On Autopoietic Modernities Erik S Roraback argues that modern culture contemplated over its four century history resembles nothing so much as the pearl famously described by periodizers of old as irregular barroco Reframing modernity as a multi century baroque Roraback steepens texts by Shakespeare Henry James Joyce and Pynchon in systems theory and the ideas of philosophers of language and culture from Leibniz to such dynamic contemporaries as Luhmann Benjamin Blanchot Deleuze and Guattari Lacan and i ek The resulting brew high in intellectual caffeine will be of value to all who take an interest in cultural modernity indeed all who recognize that modernity was and remains a congeries of competing aesthetic economic historical ideological philosophical and political energies A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15 A History of British Publishing John Feather, 2003-09-02 This comprehensive history first published in 1987 covers the whole period in which books have been printed in Britain Though Gutenberg had the edge over Caxton England quickly established itself in the forefront of the international book trade The slow process of copying manuscripts gave way to an increasingly sophisticated trade in the printed word which brought original literature translations broadsheets and chapbooks and even the Bible within the purview of an increasingly broad slice of society Powerful political forces continued to control the book trade for centuries before the principle of freedom of opinion was established In the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the competition from pirated USA editions where there were no copyright laws provided a powerful threat to the trade This period also saw the rise of remaindering cheap literature and many other modern features of the trade The author surveys all these developments bringing his history up to the present age Jozef IJsewijn. Humanism in the Low Countries Jozef IJsewijn, 2015-09-23 Professor Jozef IJsewijn s most relevant essays collected in one volume Jozef IJsewijn Humanism in the Low Countries contains twenty one essays written by the late Professor Jozef IJsewijn during the period 1966 1996 All essays were selected by his pupil Professor Gilbert Tournoy who collaborated with him since the foundation of the Seminarium Philologiae Humanisticae in 1966 until his untimely death in 1998 They are now published in one volume in homage to the most brilliant scholar in the field of Neo Latin Studies of the twentieth century A number of contributions focus on the life and or work of a single humanist from the Netherlands others have a more general nature and deal with the very beginning and the later blossoming of Neo Latin literature in the Low Countries or with the relationship between humanism in the Low Countries and in other European countries Hidden in a less known journal or a Festschrift for a colleague these studies are nowadays not always easy to find This volume brings the most relevant essays of IJsewijn together and aims to contribute to the research and study of humanism and Neo Latin
