Haa Tuwunáagu Yís, for Healing Our Spirit Nora Dauenhauer, Richard Dauenhauer, 1990 Haa Tuwunaagu Yis for Healing Our Spirit is the first publication of Tlingit oratory recorded in performance. It features Tlingit texts with facing English translations and detailed annotations, photographs of the orators and the settings in which the speeches were delivered, and biographies of the elders. There are thirty-two speeches by twenty-one Tlingit elders. Most were taped between 1968 and 1988, but two speeches were recorded on wax cylinders by the Harriman Expedition in Sitka in 1899 and are the oldest known sound recordings of Tlingit. The book is of importance both to native and non-native readers alike. For those of Native American heritage, it articulates concepts understood and practiced by elders but difficult for them to explain and often bewildering to younger generations. For people around the world interested in Northwest Coast culture, it offers new insights into a traditional world view and the classics of Tlingit oral literature. Careful attention is given to transcription, translation, and annotation by the collaboration of Nora Marks Dauenhauer, a native speaker of Tlingit and a published poet with a degree in anthropology, and her husband Richard Dauenhauer, a translator of European poetry and a former poet laureate of Alaska with a Ph.D. in comparative literature.

Born in the Blood Brian Swann, 2011 An anthology of essays on the translation of Native American languages and literatures by top scholars in the field.

Buffalo Inc Sebastian Braun, 2008 Buffalo as a business on the Cheyenne River Sioux Reservation. Some American Indian tribes on the Great Plains have turned to bison ranching in recent years as a culturally and ecologically sustainable economic development program. This book focuses on one enterprise on the Cheyenne River Sioux Reservation to determine whether such projects have fulfilled expectations and how they fit with traditional and contemporary Lakota values. Drawing upon on-site fieldwork and using anthropological, economic, and ecological approaches, Sebastian Felix Braun examines the creation of Pte Hca Ka Inc and its management styles as they evolved over fifteen years. He paints a compelling picture of cultural change. Braun traces Pte Hca Ka from its origin as a self-sustaining project that sought to combine traditional values with modern technology. He shows how the company tried to operate on cultural and ecological ideals until the tribal government shed its cultural agenda in favor of a pure business orientation. Braun describes these changes and presents the arguments of both sides. In Buffalo Inc, bison serve as a test case for a broader analysis of issues such as sustainability, economic development, tribal politics, and cultural identity.

Uncommon Prayer Michael Plekon, 2016-09-15 In Uncommon Prayer: Prayer in Everyday Experience, Michael Plekon wants to change our minds on what constitutes prayer. In doing so, he makes a theological claim that commonplace aspects of the Christian life are best understood as prayer, whereby encouraging us to see that everyday life carries religious import. Prayer and the religious life are not restricted to special places and times but are open to all believers at all times. Plekon examines the works of diverse authors, including many who have challenged the status quo of institutional churches. He asks us to listen to what poets, writers, activists, and others tell us about how they pray at work and at home with colleagues family and friends in all the experiences of life from joy to suffering sadness to hope Among them are Sarah Coakley Rowan Williams Heather Havrilesky Sara Miles Thomas Merton Mary Oliver Christian Wiman Mary Karr Barbara Brown Taylor Dorothy Day Maria Skobtsova Paul Evdokimov Seraphim of Sarov and Richard Rohr Plekon argues that prayer encompasses a much wider variety of activity than formal and liturgical prayers and that by recognizing such aspects of prayer the believer is made more receptive to transformative aspects of prayerful attitudes Qanemcit Amllertut/Many Stories to Tell Alice Rearden,Ann Fienup-Riordan,2017-11-15 This bilingual collection shares new translations of old stories recorded over the last four decades through interviews with Yup ik elders from throughout southwest Alaska Some are true qulirat traditional tales while others are recent Some are well known like the adventures of the wily Raven while others are rarely told All are part of a great narrative tradition shared and treasured by Yup ik people into the present day The elders and translators who contributed to this collection embrace the great irony of oral traditions that the best way to keep these stories is to give them away By retelling these stories they hope to create a future in which the Yup ik view of the world will be both recognized and valued Provided by publisher Living Our Cultures, Sharing Our Heritage Aron A.
