National Narcissism Eric Beckett Weaver, 2006 National Narcissism offers a groundbreaking anthropological and sociological approach to nationalism through an expos of the belief systems and psychology of extreme nationalists for whom nationalism is a form of religion This theoretical approach is illustrated with examples primarily taken from Hungary with a special focus in two chapters on the role of gender in nationalism The state of politics and society in Hungary is also examined in a way that steps beyond the usual simplistic flat narratives of what Hungarians are like by stressing the broad variety of viewpoints current in Hungarian society the milieu in which a small minority of extreme nationalists are able to make their voice heard out of proportion to their numbers or political support The theory offered by National Narcissism has wide ranging implications for the future study of extremist nationalism in nation states throughout the world Sociologists anthropologists nationalism studies specialists social psychologists and historians of the recent past in Hungary will find that this theoretical book richly illustrated with examples from Hungarian society challenges positive and negative stereotypes about nationalism extremism post communism central and eastern Europe the European Union and not least about Hungarians themselves

Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy

Foundations of Modernity Isa Blumi, 2017-06-16 Innovatively looking at the complex interactions between indigenous peoples and modern imperialism in Arabia and Balkans Foundations of Modernity challenges previous analytical models that attempt to capture the complexity of human interactions during the 1800-1912 period in ways that instigates the paradigmatic shift of the Euro centric perspective of modern world history

collection of papers on contemporary issues in Albanian history and anthropology covers a broad range of approaches and forms of analysis The book includes research on parts of the country that have rarely made an appearance in international scholarship including recent research on various aspects of urban life in Albania with several chapters being set in Shkodra Tirana Elbasan and Gjirokastra Issues of local self organization or identity processes are presented as well A third core aspect that is addressed is the continued analysis of new and revealing demographic sources that shed light on the structure and history of the Albanian family Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 9 Audiovisual Media and Identity Issues in Southeastern Europe Eckehard Pistrick,Nicola Scaldaferri,Gretel Schwörer,2011-05-25 The edited volume Audiovisual Media and Identity Issues in Southeastern Europe is an attempt to meet the challenges of text based scholarship to break medial one dimensionality dictated by textuality and to shift the focus to the aural and visual dimensions of identity in a part of Europe heavily marked by the dynamics of political cultural and social change particularly during the last decades The objective of this endeavour is to examine identity in Southeastern Europe by means of its communication media specifically that of the photographic image and the sound recording How are identities communicated How are they performed and made physically perceptible Brought to a point the primary issue is one of how people perceive themselves and their environment on the basis of communication media seen through a lens of different disciplines social anthropology ethnomusicology media studies sociology and history and methodologies from the point of view of scholars from Southeastern Europe and their Western European colleagues The book pursues a distinct comparative and historical perspective examining the media representations from socialist and pre socialist periods in relation to the role media play in the postsocialist discourse Another focus is laid on local media representations and their impact on local self images This distinct historical and local approach allows new insights into how identities are constructed performed and negotiated in the light of media resulting in different forms of interpreting re appropriating and re evaluating the past and traditions This opens up questions on the role of media in relation to cultural policies and their potential to preserve or to transform local cultural heritage The book is also an important contribution to the field of postsocialist studies in anthropology It sheds a distinct cultural view on postsocialist transformation processes Through a wide range of examples and first hand results of basic field research from Greece Bulgaria Romania Serbia Albania and Slovenia this volume provides an opportunity for a comparative reconsideration of similar phenomena across national borders It may serve also as a methodological reference work for scholars who are interested in the different ways of how to develop and practice media reflexivity in their own field research A Theory of De Facto States Lucas Knotter,2023-12-12 A Theory of De Facto States offers a new perspective on the phenomenon of de facto states political communities that manifest forms of statehood in international politics but lack international legal recognition zooming in on two prominent examples Somaliland and Kosovo Employing a thorough understanding of classical realist theories of international relations this book provides a fresh critique of the common ways in which existing research tends to identify the ostensible state features of these communities In contrast to the prevalent portrayals of such features in terms of international legal discursive and or everyday logics this book argues that de facto states can be most fundamentally characterised as exceptional polities in international relations Showcasing how the statehood and sovereignty of de facto states is based in international political crises this book concludes that these entities function as recurring disruptions of any supposed international political order A Theory of De Facto States will therefore be of interest to researchers of secession de facto statehood and International Relations theory alike The International Element, Statehood and Democratic Nation-building Dren Doli,2019-02-19 This book represents a unique endeavor to elucidate the story of Kosovo s unilateral quest for statehood It is an inquiry into the international legal aspects and processes that shaped and surrounded the creation of the state of Kosovo Being created outside the post colonial context Kosovo offers a unique yet controversial example of state emergence both in the theory and practice of creation of states Accordingly the book investigates the legal pathways strategies developments and policy positions of international agencies actors and regional players in particular the EU that helped Kosovo to establish its independence and gradually acquire statehood Although contested Kosovo and its quest for statehood represents a unique example of successful unilateral secession The book therefore explores and analyses patterns of state formation and nation building in Kosovo and its transition to democracy It presents a three level assessment First seen from a historical perspective the book examines the validity of the right of Kosovar Albanians to self determination and remedial secession Second from a legal positivist perspective it scrutinizes all of the legalist arguments that support Kosovo s right to statehood and claims that both traditional and legality based criteria for statehood remain insufficient to determine whether Kosovo has achieved statehood Third from a post factum perspective the book analyzes the scope and extent to which the internationally blended element was decisive in Kosovo s state formation and state building processes It explains how the EU s involvement as an internationally blended element in Kosovo s efforts to achieve statehood was instrumental and played a crucial role in shaping the emerging state In particular the book elaborates on how the EU was able to streamline its mode of intervention in the context of state building and reform A Legal Geography of Yugoslavia's Disintegration Ana S. Trbovich,2008-02-05 The author explains the violent break up of the former Yugoslavia in the early 1990s in the context of two legal principles sovereignty and the self determination of peoples She also offers an analysis of Kosovo s future status international recognition of secession implications for other conflicts and much more Kosovo Denisa Kostovicova,2005 While exploring events that led to the bloodshed in Kosovo in 1999 Denisa Kostovicova shows that the legacy of ethnic segregation is one of the major obstacles the international community faces in its efforts to establish an integrated multi ethnic society in this territory Of interest to academics and students of nationalism and politics as well as practitioners and journalists this book is an important advance in research on one of the most tragic European conflicts of recent times Jacket Reinstating the Ottomans I. Blumi,2011-05-09 This book focuses on the western Balkans in the period

1820 1912 in particular on the peoples and social groups that the later national history would claim to have been Albanians providing a revisionist exploration of national identity prior to the establishment of the nation state Remitting, Restoring and Building Contemporary Albania Nataša Gregorič Bon, Smoki Musaraj, 2021-12-14 The edited collection is a fresh contribution to the anthropological sociological and geographical explorations of time space in Southeast Europe and Albania in particular By delving into various levels of people's daily lives such as literature relation to the environment the urbanization process art photography trauma and remembering processes of modernity the volume vividly portrays various realms that are lived and perceived It largely builds on the premise that structural resemblances of the past continuously reappear in particular social and cultural moments and seek to restore and build the individual and collective lives in contemporary Albania Bittersweet Europe Adrian Brisku, 2013-08-01 From the late nineteenth century to the post communist period Albanian and Georgian political and intellectual elites have attributed hopes to Europe yet have also exhibited ambivalent attitudes that do not appear likely to vanish any time soon Albanians and Georgians have evoked experienced and continue to speak of Europe according to a tense triadic entity geopolitics progress culture which has generated aspirations as well as delusions towards it and themselves This unique dichotomy weaves a nuanced historical account of a changing Europe continuously marred by uncertainties that greatly affect these countries domestic politics as well as foreign policy decisions A systematic and rich account of how Albanians and Georgians view Europe this book offers a fresh perspective on the vast East West literature and more broadly on European intellectual cultural and political history
