Alberta A New History:

Alberta Formed - Alberta Transformed Alberta 2005 Centennial History Society, 2006-04-18 Alberta Formed Alberta Transformed is a two volume set spanning a remarkable 12 000 years of history and showcasing the work of 34 of Alberta's most respected scholars Volume 1 sets the stage from human beginnings in Alberta to the eve of Alberta's inauguration as a province in 1905 while Volume 2 takes readers through the twentieth century and up to the 2005 centennial Eric J. Hanson's Financial History of Alberta, 1905-1950 Eric John Hanson, 2003 Eric Hanson Alberta's first and arguably greatest economist wrote a number of influential books on federal provincial relations education finance health care finance and energy economics His doctoral thesis was entitled A Financial History of Alberta 1905-1950 and was found by Paul Boothe at the University of Alberta library while Boothe was doing research on Alberta government spending almost forty five years after it was written This forgotten gem sheds light on the institutional economic and public development of the province from a financial perspective With a detailed and analytical introduction this edited work provides historical perspective on the perennial problems facing Alberta's fiscal managers wildly fluctuating revenues in migration seemingly insatiable demands for infrastructure high quality public services and resistance to taxes while exuding an optimistic attitude for the future

The Other Alberta Doreen Barrie, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2006 Children's Health Issues in Historical Perspective Cheryl Krasnick Warsh, Veronica Strong-Boag, 2006-01-01 From sentimental stories about polio to the latest cherub in hospital commercials sick children tug at the public's heartstrings However sick children have not always had adequate medical care or protection The essays in Children's Issues in Historical Perspective investigate the identification prevention and treatment of childhood diseases from the 1800s onwards in areas ranging from French colonial Vietnam to nineteenth century northern British Columbia from New Zealand fresh air camps to American health fairs Themes include the role of government and or the private sector in initiating and underwriting child public health programs the growth of the profession of pediatrics and its views on proper mothering techniques the role of nationalism as well as ethnic and racial dimensions in child saving movements normative behaviour social control and the treatment of deviant children and adolescents poverty wealth and child health measures and the development of the modern children's hospital This liberally illustrated collection reflects the growing academic interest in all aspects of childhood especially child health and originates from health care professionals and scholars across the disciplines An introduction by the editors places the historical themes in context and offers an overview of the contemporary study of children's health Government and Politics in Alberta Allan Tupper, Roger Gibbins, 1992 Alberta's politics are changing in response to powerful economic social and political forces The contributors focus on developments since the election of the Progressive Conservatives in 1971

Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework Richard Connors, John M. Law, University of Alberta. Centre for Constitutional Studies, 2005-11 Forging Alberta's Constitutional Framework analyzes the principal events and processes that precipitated the emergence and formation of the law and legal culture of Alberta from the foundation of the Hudson's Bay in 1670 until the eve of the centenary of the Province in 2005. The formation of Alberta's constitution and legal institutions was by no means a simple process by which English and Canadian law was imposed upon a receptive and passive population. Challenges to authority, latent lawlessness, interaction between indigenous and settler societies, periods pre and post 1905 of jurisdictional confusion and demands for individual group and provincial rights and recognitions are as much part of Alberta's legal history as the heroic and mythic images of an emergent and orderly Canadian west patrolled from the outset by red-coated mounted police and peopled by peaceful and law-abiding subjects of the Crown. Papers focus on the development of criminal law in the Canadian west in the nineteenth century, the Natural Resources Transfer Agreement of 1930, the National Energy Program of the 1980s, Federal-Provincial relations and the role and responsibilities of the offices of Justices of the Peace and of the Lieutenant Governor and the legacies of the Lougheed and Klein governments. Alberta Premiers of the Twentieth Century University of Regina, Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004. From the optimism associated with provincial status in 1905 through the trials of Depression and war, the boom times of the post-war period and the economic vagaries of the 1980s and the 1990s, the twentieth century was a time of growth and hardship, development and change for Alberta and its people. And during the century, twelve men from a variety of political parties and from very different backgrounds led the government of this province. The names of some like William Aberhart, Ernest Manning and Peter Lougheed are still household names, while others like Arthur Sifton, Herbert Greenfield and Richard Reid have been all but forgotten. Yet each in his unique way, for better or for worse, helped to mould and steer the destiny of the province he governed. These are their stories. To be a Cowboy Barbara Holliday, Oliver Christensen, 2003. Spanning a period from the late 1800s to the mid 1900s, To Be a Cowboy recounts the dreams and realities of Otto Christensen, a Denmark immigrant and his son Oliver. No Ordinary Woman Janice Sanford Beck, 2001. Artist, photographer, writer, world traveler and above all explorer, Mary Schaffer Warren overcame the limited expectations of women at the turn of the nineteenth century in order to follow her dreams. Mary, born into a wealthy Quaker family in Pennsylvania, was a precocious child who excelled at school. She was much more interested in the arts and traveling. A trip across Canada in 1889 proved the turning point in Mary's life. Not only did she meet her future husband, doctor and botanist Charles Schaffer, she also fell hopelessly in love with the mountains. After Charles' death, Mary embarked on explorations into the Canadian Rockies at a time when it was not thought proper for a woman to do so. Her most famous trips of 1907 and 1908 resulted in the rediscovery of Maligne Lake and the highly regarded book Old Indian Trails of the Canadian Rockies. Mary eventually settled in Banff and there married her handsome young guide Billy Warren. Since her death in 1937, she continues to inspire young people and women in particular. The Bar U & Canadian Ranching History S. M. Evans, 2004. For much of its 130-year history, the Bar U Ranch can claim to have been one of the most famous ranches in Canada. Its reputation is firmly based on the historical role that the ranch has played, its size and longevity and its association with some of the remarkable people who have helped develop the cattle business and build the Canadian West The long history of the ranch allows the evolution of the cattle business to be traced and can be seen in three distinct historical periods based on the eras of the individuals who owned and managed the ranch These colourful figures beginning with Fred Stimson then George Lane and finally Pat Burns have left an indelible mark on the Bar U as well as Canadian ranching history The Bar U and Canadian Ranching History is a fascinating story that integrates the history of ranching in Alberta with larger issues of ranch historiography in the American and Canadian West and contributes greatly to the overall understanding of ranching history Where the Mountains Meet the Prairies Graham MacDonald,2000

MacDonald historian Parks Canada Calgary presents the history of one of the most popular parks in western Canada From a discussion of the British naturalist Charles Waterton to explorations of such topics as conservation Native traditions and townsite development this study provides a broad interpretive history of the area The text is supported with bandw

Mary-Ellen Kelm,2012-07-01 The rodeo cowboy is one of the most evocative images of the Wild West The master of the frontier he is renowned for his masculinity toughness and skill A Wilder West returns to rodeo s small town roots to explore how rodeo simultaneously embodies and subverts our traditional understandings of power relations between man and nature women and men settlers and Aboriginal peoples An important contact zone a chaotic and unpredictable place of encounter rodeo has challenged expected social hierarchies bringing people together across racial and gender divides to create friendships rivalries and unexpected intimacies At the rodeo Aboriginal riders became local heroes and rodeo queens spoke their minds A Wilder West complicates the idea of western Canada as a white man s country and shows how rural rodeos have been communities in which different rules applied Lavishly illustrated this creative history will change the way we see the West s most controversial sport American Empire and the Canadian Oil Sands George A.
