Boy Inside The A Journey Through Life And Epilepsy:

The Boy Inside Jonathan Trumbull, 2005-04 The seizure is a beast It invades without remorse and drives me to the floor in an instant The child I was is now lost hiding and alone The animal that I have become cares not for the boy It demands only to be released In violence and pain I surrender to the beast and can only watch in helplessness as my body begins to vibrate from the spasms that are the voice of this particular seizure The bliss of unconsciousness does not come I ache for it and wish for it but am resigned in the knowledge that it will not save me today Instead the beast slams me face first into the floor and I taste the blood run down my throat as my nose begins to bleed For me this is all too routine A Child's Journey
