Born in Flames Howard Hampton, 2007-01-15 Twenty years as an outsider scouring the underbelly of American culture has made Howard Hampton a uniquely hard nosed guide to the heart of pop darkness Bridging the fatalistic intensely charged space between Apocalypse Now Redux and Nirvana s Smells Like Teen Spirit his writing breaks down barriers of ignorance and arrogance that have segregated art forms from each other and often from the world at large In the freewheeling spirit of Pauline Kael Lester Bangs and Manny Farber Hampton calls up the extremist underground tendencies and archaic forces simmering beneath the surface of popular forms Ranging from the kinetic poetry of Hong Kong cinema and the neo New Wave energy of Irma Vep to the punk heroines of Sleater Kinney and Ghost World Born in Flames plays odd couples off one another pitting Natural Born Killers against Forrest Gump contrasting Jean Luc Godard with Steven Spielberg defending David Lynch against aesthetic ideologues invoking The Curse of the Mekons against Fredric Jameson s Postmodernism and introducing D H Lawrence to Buffy the Vampire Slayer We are born in flames sang the incandescent Lora Logic and here those flames are a source of illumination as well as destruction warmth as well as consumption From the scorched earth works of action movie provocateurs Seijun Suzuki and Sam Peckinpah to the cargo cult soundscapes of Pere Ubu and the Czech dissidents Plastic People of the Universe Born in Flames is a headlong plunge into the passions and disruptive power of art

Film Noir Jennifer Fay, Justus Nieland, 2009-12-04 The term film noir still conjures images of a uniquely American malaise hard boiled detectives fatal women and the shadowy hells of urban life But from its beginnings film noir has been an international phenomenon and its stylistic icons have migrated across the complex geo political terrain of world cinema This book traces film noir s emergent connection to European cinema its movement within a cosmopolitan culture of literary and cinematic translation and its postwar consolidation in the US Europe Asia the Middle East and Latin America The authors examine how film noir crosses national boundaries speaks to diverse international audiences and dramatizes local

Japanese Cinema Alastair Phillips, Julian Stringer, 2007-12-18 From the Seven Samaruai and Godzilla to the Ring this is an outstanding collection of twenty four articles on key films of Japanese cinema from the silent era to the present day that presents a full introduction to Japanese cinema history culture and society

In Praise of Cinematic Bastardy Sébastien Lefait, Philippe Ortol, 2012-03-15 Cinema may be called a bastard art in both meanings of the word because it is usually defined as a hybrid art form obviously but also and perhaps more importantly because it has been able to become formally as well as generically innovative mostly through adulterous relationships thus making illegitimacy its grounding principle by preferring a blurred lineage to a legible succession Trying to find what film is referred to in a sequence therefore amounts to establishing a clear family tree which takes no account of the illegitimate unions natural children and forgotten ancestors that are nevertheless part and parcel of film history If that quest should still be conducted its object it seems should not be one sole point of reference The aim of this book is to create the opportunity of studying and perhaps of rehabilitating those shadowy corners of cinematographic creation and film memory and to provide film studies but also literature and Arts studies altogether with a newly productive way of using such familiar notions as difference quotation reference blending hybridity miscegenation or crossbreeding fragmentary montages and methods of dialogue delivery and movement Detailing connections between cinematic artifice and topics such as politics gender and genre Stages of Reality allows readers to develop a clear sense of the multiple purposes and uses of theatricality in film Exile Cinema Michael Atkinson,2008-03-13 Outside the shrinking American film culture market there is a vast movie crazed world where madmen geniuses and apostates roam freely subject to a relatively minimal degree of corporate industry and spin control In Exile Cinema prominent film critics profile the oeuvres of working thriving international filmmakers from Bela Tarr to Judith Helfand from Kiyoshi Kurosawa and Guy Maddin to Chantal Akerman and Michele Soavi from Chris Marker to the newest thresholds of contemporary film These filmmakers battle the greatest odds a modern artist can face the opposition of mass culture at large and a medium that requires enormous expenditures in every stage of production and distribution Naturally the average American moviehead rarely gets a chance to see these marginalized directors work and often knows about them only through dazzled rumors and rhapsodic hearsay Whimsical and deeply subjective the viewpoints and evangelisms in Exile Cinema will serve as salve for the cineaste's lonesome fury
