Broadcasting in Africa Sydney W. Head, 1974 Tonregie Tonrundrunktechnik Bildtelegrafienetz Fernsehnetz Kabelfernsehnetz Radiobetrieb Fernsehbetrieb Radiostation Afrika Geschichte African Broadcast Cultures Richard Fardon, Graham Furniss, 2000 Radio has played a pivotal role in situations of conflict crisis change and development on the African continent Local radio stations are as important as international broadcasters being both the barometers and agents of change North America Praeger

Mass Media in Sub-Saharan Africa Louise M. Bourgault, 1995-06-22 Bourgault mass communication Northern Michigan U Marquette analyzes the historical political economic social cultural and stylistic factors that have shaped media products in African radio television and newspapers She investigates the three major influences of the precolonial legacy of the oral tradition the presence of an alienated managerial class and the domination of African nations by systems based on patronage and looks at recent developments in technology and the move toward privatization Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

Mass Media, People, and Politics in Nigeria Luke Uka Uche, 1989 This Study Brings To The Fore The Precarious Predicament Of The Mass Media Of A Country Whose Political Culture Is Characterised By Divergent And Powerful Interest Groups With Insatiable Political And Economic Demands On The Larger Political Entity It Demonstrates How Nigeria S Development As A Nation State Has Similarly Influenced The Way And Manner Of The Organisation Administration And Contents Of Her Mass Media Systems Encyclopedia of Radio 3-Volume Set Christopher H. Sterling, 2004-03 Produced in association with the Museum of Broadcast Communications in Chicago the Encyclopedia of Radio includes more than 600 entries covering major countries and regions of the world as well as specific programs and people networks and organizations regulation and policies audience research and radio s technology This encyclopedic work will be the first broadly conceived reference source on a medium that is now nearly eighty years old with essays that provide essential information on the subject as well as comment on the significance of the particular person organization or topic being examined

Broadcasting in the Arab World Douglas A. Boyd, 1982 Boyd communication journalism and telecommunications U of Kentucky Lexington discusses aspects of radio and television broadcasting in the Arab world addressing the international national and regional radio and television media in the Middle East and North Africa through detailed examination of the system in each country and its relationship with the country s language politics economics culture and religion Updates from the 1993 edition include a new chapter on international broadcasting and information on new developments in Palestinian rights to radio and television programming and the impact of direct broadcast satellites

The Handbook of Comparative Communication Research Frank Esser, Thomas Hanitzsch, 2013-06-19 The Handbook of Comparative Communication Research aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of comparative communication research It fills an obvious gap in the literature and offers an extensive and interdisciplinary discussion of the general approach of comparative research its prospect and problems as well as its applications in crucial sub fields of communications The first part of the volume charts the state of the art in the field the second section introduces relevant areas of communication studies where the comparative approach has been successfully applied in recent years the third part offers an analytical review of conceptual and methodological issues and the last section proposes a roadmap for future research Press Freedom and Communication in Africa Festus Eribo, William

Jong-Ebot, 1997 Recent years have seen considerable growth in the media in Africa with increases in the number of newspapers and radio and television stations At the same time there has been an increase in the number of arrests of journalists and broadcasters and various forms of censorship have been introduced The essays in this volume examine press censorship past and present and bring a fresh perspective to the position of the mass media in the African continent

Africa's Media, Democracy and the Politics of Belonging Francis B. Nyamnjoh, 2005-05 An overview of the press and mass media in Africa today and their contribution to democratization Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976 Aspects of Colonial Tanzania History E.Y. Mbogoni, 2012-11-20 Aspects of Colonial Tanzanian History is a collection of essays that examines the lives and experiences of both colonizers and the colonized during colonial rule in what is today known as Tanzania Dr Mbogoni examines a range of topics hitherto unexplored by scholars of Tanzania history namely excessive alcohol consumption the sundowners adultery and violence among the colonial officials attitudes to inter racial sexual liaisons especially between Europeans and Africans game poaching European settler vigilantism radio broadcasting film production and the nature of Arab slavery in Zanzibar A particularly noteworthy case related to European vigilantism is examined the trial of Oldus Elishira a Maasai for the murder of a European settler farmer in 1955 The victim Harold M Stuchbery was speared to death when he attempted to arrest a group of Maasai young men who were passing through his farm The event highlighted the differences in the concepts of justice held by Maasai and the imported justice systems from the colonizers It also raised vexing questions about the colonial judges acquittal of Oldus Elishira while the Maasai who should have been satisfied with that decision decided to take it upon themselves to mete out an appropriate punishment to Elshira instead of total acquittal and to compensate Mrs Stuchbery for the death of her husband by giving her a number of heads of cattle World Broadcasting Alan Wells, 1996 As mass communication is a major topic of interest in American colleges there is also a growing interest in comparative mass media in other countries This book is designed to put current practices in the United States in comparative perspective and thus shed new light on American media practices It is designed as a resource for the growing number of courses dealing with international media and a recommended supplement for basic mass communications courses that provide a global perspective Planet TV Lisa Parks, Shanti Kumar, 2003 Provides an overview of the rapidly changing landscape of global television combining previously published essays by pioneers of the study of television with new work by cutting edge television scholars who refine and extend intellectual debates in the field The World Television Industry Peter

Dunnett,2010-12-31 First published in 1990 The World Television Industry uses economic analysis to examine recent changes in the television industry It uses the theory of public good and a model of industrial organization to identify the major forces determining the nature of the television product in the late twentieth century The forces of supply and demand for an unusual product often requiring a double sale to a consumer and to an advertiser are examined as are alternative methods of financing The all pervading role of government is discussed at length Media Information Australia ,1982 NAB Broadcasting Bibliography ,1984 Media Asia ,1982 Encyclopedia of journalism. 6. Appendices Christopher H. Sterling,2009-09-25 The six volume Encyclopedia of Journalism covers all significant dimensions of journalism including print broadcast and Internet journalism US and international perspectives history technology legal issues and court cases ownership and economics Broadcasting Around the World William E. McCavitt,1981 Negotiating Democracy Isaac A. Blankson,Patrick Murphy,2012-02-01 Negotiating Democracy addresses issues that have defined the challenges and consequences of media transformation faced by new and emerging democracies These issues include the dismantling of national broadcasting systems the promotion of private independent and pluralistic media the clash between liberal democratic and authoritarian political traditions negotiations about the appropriate broadcast language and the potential for free press and for freedom of speech The contributors use examples from countries such as Cambodia Bulgaria Iran Nigeria and Taiwan to not only provide detailed analysis of regional and or nation specific cases of media but also to identify transnational patterns that help deepen the understanding of the media s role in globalization
