postmodern and postcolonial era Flippin' Luis Francia, 1996 The Philippines America's showcase of democracy and its only former colony in Asia remains enigmatic to most Americans What we know of this archipelago is very often condensed filtered or distorted by Western preconceptions and interpretations Here for the first time are Filipino and Filipino American writers telling their lives in their own words Here are stories of passion and betrayal home and exile the politics of the self and a nation in search of itself Here are poems of such power and beauty that can rank among the best in the world In these pages the reader will find familiar figures the greedy Marcoses teenage gangs game shows rock star clones as well as characters and themes of every stripe and hue from gay youngsters checking out surfer jocks in Hawai'i to Westernized girls coming out of convent school from a searing recollection of gang rape to meditations on the spirit Altogether these works provide a deeper image of the Philippines and of Filipinos in America as seen by some of the best writers from both sides of the world Ultimately it gives a unique and vivid perspective of America as well Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial

Epifanio San Juan, 1996 In this incisive and polemical book E San Juan Jr the leading authority on Philippines U S literary studies goes beyond fashionable postcolonial theory to bring to our attention the complex history of Philippines U S literary interactions In sharp contrast to other works on the subject the author presents Filipino literary production within the context of a long and sustained tradition of anti imperialist insurgency and foregrounds the strong presence of oppositional writing in the Philippines After establishing the historical context of U S intervention and Filipino resistance San Juan examines the work of two very significant writers The first Carlos Bulosan a journalist and union activist became in the author's words a tribune of the people Bulosan's writings which combine critique and prophecy do not allow us to forget the atrocities inflicted on the Filipino people The other Jos Garcia Villa lapsed into premature obscurity on account of the complexity of his writings about the Filipino predicament Read through San Juan's eyes these writers are revealed as multifaceted thinkers and activists not stereotypical ethnic artists San Juan goes beyond literary studies and contemporary debates about nationalism and politics to point the way to a new direction in radical transformative writing He uncovers hidden agendas in many previous accounts of U S Philippine relations and this book exemplifies how best to combine activist scholarship with historically grounded cultural commentary Author note E San Juan Jr is Fellow of the Center for the Humanities and Visiting Professor of English Wesleyan University and Director of the Philippines Cultural Studies Center He was recently chair of the Department of Comparative American Cultures Washington University and Professor of Ethnic Studies at Bowling Green State University Ohio He received the 1999 Centennial Award for Literature from the Philippines
