Disturbing Pleasures Learning Popular Culture:

Disturbing Pleasures Henry A. Giroux, 2012-11-12 In Disturbing Pleasures Henry Giroux demonstrates how his well known theories of education critical pedagogy and popular culture can be put to use in the classroom and in other cultural settings Adding an entirely new dimension to his thinking about the cultural sites at which pedagogical practice takes place Giroux illustrates how professors school teachers and other cultural workers can appropriate what he refers to as a pedagogy of cultural studies

Democracy and Music Education Paul Woodford, 2005 Counterpoints Music and Education Estelle R Jorgensen editor

Handbook of Research in the Social Foundations of Education Steven Tozer, Bernardo P. Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05 This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study

Youth, Arts and Education Anna Hickey-Moody, 2013 How are the arts important in young people's lives In Youth Arts and Education Anna Hickey Moody explores how the arts are ways of belonging resisting being governed and being heard Drawing on the thought of Gilles Deleuze she develops the theory of affective pedagogy which explains the process of learning that happens through aesthetics

Fugitive Cultures Henry A. Giroux, 2012-12-06 Fugitive Cultures examines how youth are being increasingly subjected to racial stereotyping and violence in various realms of popular culture especially children's culture But rather than dismissing popular culture Henry Giroux addresses its political and pedagogical value as a site of critique and learning and calls for a reinvigorated critical relationship between cultural studies and those diverse cultural workers committed to expanding the possibilities and practices of democratic public life

The Pedagogies of Cultural Studies Andrew Hickey, 2016-03-31 This volume provides an exploration of the manifold ways pedagogy is enacted in cultural studies practice Pedagogy in the book comes to stand as far more than simply the art of teaching contributors explore how pedagogy defines and shapes their practice as cultural studies scholars Chapters variously highlight the role of pedagogy in cultural studies practice including formal classroom situations where cultural studies is deployed to teach as part of degree or coursework programs but importantly also as something removed from the formal classroom as situated within the research act via public engagement or through social activism as a public pedagogy In so doing the book charts a course for understanding cultural studies as an active and engaged discipline interested in understanding cultural flows and production as sites of learning and exchange

Chicano Art Inside/Outside the Master's House Alicia Gaspar de Alba, 2010-07-05 In the early 1990s a major exhibition Chicano Art Resistance and Affirmation 1965-1985 toured major museums around the United States As a first attempt to define and represent Chicano art for a national audience the exhibit attracted both praise and controversy while raising fundamental questions about the nature of multiculturalism in the U S This book presents the first interdisciplinary cultural study of the CARRA exhibit Alicia Gaspar de Alba looks at the exhibit as a cultural text in which the Chicano community affirmed itself not as a subculture within the U

S but as an alter Native culture in opposition to the exclusionary and homogenizing practices of mainstream institutions She also shows how the exhibit reflected the cultural and sexual politics of the Chicano Movement and how it serves as a model of Chicano a popular culture more generally Drawing insights from cultural studies feminist theory anthropology and semiotics this book constitutes a wide ranging analysis of Chicano a art popular culture and mainstream cultural politics It will appeal to a diverse audience in all of these fields The Expediency of Culture George Yúdice,2004-01-23 Deals with global flows of capital information and popular culture questions of hybridity identity politics postcoloniality and the state with a focus on Latin America The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story New Perspectives on Curriculum, Learning and Assessment David Scott,2015-11-03 This book offers a detailed analysis and assessment of the state of education round the world The argument is made that education and curriculum practices are deficient for two reasons The first is the adoption by governments policy makers and practitioners of a set of knowledge practices that can be broadly characterised as empiricist and technicist and which has come to dominate how curricula are constructed and certainly how education systems and their work can be described The second is the adoption of a model of curriculum that is both backward looking and in its own terms confused and muddled This book then sets out an alternative model which is more cogent and better focused on human wellbeing Sport, Culture and Advertising Steven J. Jackson,David L. Andrews,2004-11-10 Sport has a close relationship with advertising both where advertisers sponsor sports as well as where sport and fitness lends its perceived positive imagery to a wide range of consumer goods Sport Culture Advertising explores the themes of The Critical Pedagogy Reader Antonia Darder,Kortney Hernandez,Kevin D. Lam,Marta Baltodano,2023-11-01 Since its publication The Critical Pedagogy Reader has firmly established itself as the leading collection of classic and contemporary essays by the major thinkers in the field of critical pedagogy While retaining its comprehensive introduction this thoroughly revised fourth edition includes updated section introductions expanded bibliographies and up to date classroom questions The book is arranged topically around such issues as class racism gender sexuality language and literacy and classroom issues for ease of usage and navigation New reading selections cover topics such as youth activism agency and affect and practical implementations of critical pedagogy Carefully attentive to both theory and practice this new edition remains the definitive source for teaching and learning about critical pedagogy Counternarratives Henry A. Giroux, Colin Lankshear, Peter McLaren, Michael Peters, 2013-05-13 To understand contemporary times we must appreciate the extent to which our lives are affected by the cultural and political struggle between official narratives and the counternarratives which emerge as oppositional responses Counternarratives develops a concept of postmodern counternarratives as a frame for exploring the politics of media technology and education within everyday struggles for human identities and loyalties The authors identify two forms of counternarratives One functions as a critique of the modernist propensity for grand narratives The second concept which is the focus of the book builds on the first the idea of little stories addressing cultural and political opposition to the official narratives used to manipulate public consciousness Each marks an important point of contestation within contemporary education and culture curriculum pedagogy literacy media representations and applications of new technologies Advocacy Research in Literacy Education Meredith Rogers Cherland, Helen Harper, 2023-05-31 This book reviews what the authors term advocacy research in literacy education research that explicitly addresses issues of social justice equity and democracy with the distinct purpose of social transformation It surveys what educational researchers who are working for social justice have accomplished describes current challenges and outlines future possibilities The first section maps the terrain of advocacy research in literacy education The authors group this large and expanding body of research into four categories Critical Literacy Radical Counternarratives in Literacy Research Literacy as Social Practice and Linguistic Studies Each chapter describes the research area traces its history provides example studies and assesses the contributions of research to advocacy work now and potentially in the future The second section provides a deeper consideration of challenges to the field of advocacy research and suggests future directions for research and scholarship this section reflects the need to complicate and trouble the terms and relations between and among social justice ethics democracy freedom and literacy As a whole this book is a response to the current popular understandings of literacy education that limit the efficacy of advocacy work in these troubled times understandings that support the proliferation of standardized testing teacher testing and scripted lessons and programs along with the privileging of particular forms of research Intended for those who work or soon will work in literacy education students teacher educators researchers and practitioners this book represents the authors belief that it is time for advocacy workers to strengthen and intensify their efforts to promote the most principled effective literacy education for democratic life It is their hope that this book will contribute to such an effort Critical Essays on Major Curriculum Theorists David Scott, 2008 This book is a critical appreciation of the work of sixteen leading curriculum theorists taking account of the writings of a balance of established thinkers and curriculum analysts from the fields of education philosophy sociology and psychology Together these commentators offer a broad perspective with views from the UK the US and Europe and from a range of political stances ranging from radical conservatism through liberalism to socialism and libertarianism The theorists include major names such as Lev Vygotsky Jerome Bruner Maxine Greene Basil Bernstein Micheal Foucault Elliott Eisner John White Michael Apple and more Ideal for students on all teacher training courses looking for an introduction to some of the key educational thinkers of our time this key text can also be used as a companion volume to the Routledge four volume set on curriculum theory

Korea 2011 ,2011-08-25 This book is the fifth in an annual series It provides up to date information on the politics economy and society of both South and North Korea Each volume is structured as follows The first part offers the reader an up to date analysis and commentary on the following topics Domestic Politics and the Economy in South Korea Domestic Politics and the Economy in North Korea Relations between the two Koreas and Foreign Relations of the two Koreas A detailed chronology of relevant events in the year preceding publication complements this first part The second part consists of some eight to ten refereed original articles with contributions on contemporary Korean affairs in fields such as politics economy and society For regular and professional observers of Korea in business politics the media and academia this book series is an indispensable resource both for keeping track of developments and for gathering new insights American

Educational History Journal J. Wesley Null,2007-08-01 The American Educational History Journal is a peer reviewed national research journal devoted to the examination of educational topics using perspectives from a variety of disciplines The editors of AEHJ encourage communication between scholars from numerous disciplines nationalities institutions and backgrounds Authors come from a variety of disciplines including political science curriculum history philosophy teacher education and educational leadership Acceptance for publication in AEHJ requires that each author present a well articulated argument that deals substantively with questions of educational history Teaching Popular Culture David

Buckingham,2002-01-04 Teaching about the media and popular culture has been a major concern for radical educators Yet in recent years the hyperbolic rhetoric of critical pedagogy has come under attack not only from theoretical perspectives such as feminism anti racism and postmodernism but also in The Light Of Actual Classroom Experience The Notion That Teachers Might liberate students through rationalistic forms of ideological critique has been increasingly questioned not only on the grounds of its political arrogance but also because of its ineffectiveness in practice This book seeks to move beyond the limitations of these debates and to explore positive alternatives It contains a broad international range of contributions covering practice from primary schools right through to higher education The authors draw on diverse perspectives including poststructuralism postmodernism cultural studies anti racism and feminism yet they share a willingness to challenge radical orthodoxies and to offer positive practical alternatives International Handbook of Media Literacy Education Belinha S. De Abreu,Paul Mihailidis,Alice Y.L. Lee,Jad Melki,Julian McDougall,2017-04-21 At the forefront in its field this Handbook examines the theoretical conceptual pedagogical and methodological development of media literacy education and research around the world Building on traditional media literacy frameworks in critical analysis evaluation and assessment it incorporates new literacies emerging around connective technologies mobile platforms and social networks A global perspective rather than a Western centric point of view is explicitly highlighted with contributors from all continents to show the empirical research being done at the intersection of media education and engagement in daily life Structured around five themes Educational Interventions Safeguarding Data and Online Privacy Engagement in Civic Life Media Creativity and Production Digital Media Literacy the volume as a whole emphasizes the competencies needed to engage in meaningful participation in digital culture

Current Perspectives in Media Education P. Fraser, J. Wardle, 2013-09-12 This book emerged from the online project A Manifesto for Media Education and takes forward its starting points by asking some of the original contributors to expand upon their view of the purpose of media education and to support their perspective with accounts of practice
