Divided Lives Lyndall Gordon, 2014-06-19 Lyndall Gordon was born in 1941 in Cape Town a place from which a ship takes fourteen days to reach anywhere that matters Born to a mother whose mysterious illness confined her for years to life indoors Lyndall was her secret sharer a child who grew to know life through books story telling and her mother s own writings It was an exciting precious world pure and rich in dreams and imagination untainted by the demands of reality But a daughter grows up Despite her own inability to leave home for long Lyndall s mother believed in migration a belief that became almost a necessity once the horrors of apartheid gripped their country Lyndall loves the rocks the sea the light of Cape Town but struggling to achieve a life approved by her mother she tries and makes a failure of living in Israel and then back once again in her beloved South Africa she marries and moves with her husband to New York It s in America in 1968 when suddenly Lyndall realises she cannot be and does not want to be the woman the daughter and the mother her mother wants her to be This is a wonderfully layered memoir about the expectations of love and duty between mother and daughter The particular time and place the people and the situation are Lyndall s but the division between generations the pain and the joy of being a daughter are everywoman s The God of Peace John Dear, 2005-03-08 The God of peace is never glorified by human violence Thomas Merton The God of Peace John Dear s classic theology of nonviolence broke new ground when it was first published as a breakthrough toward a new understanding of scripture theology social concerns and churches issues from the perspective of Gospel nonviolence in the tradition of Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Dorothy Day This ground breaking study begins not just with the culture of violence but the nonviolence of God and the revolutionary nonviolence of Jesus From the start John Dear explores traditional areas of theology such as Christology Trinitarian Theology anthropology sin redemption theodicy salvation ecclesiology eschatology spirituality liturgy Catholic social teaching the just war theory feminism liberation theology and the consistent ethic of life This text will help university and theology students pursuing the theology and spirituality of nonviolence as well as ordinary Christians and activists interested in the crucial connection between war and violence and God and nonviolence Hearings on Child Care United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor, 1989 Oscar Wilde Frank Harris, 2007 A biography of Oscar Wilde this book offers a look at Wilde s rise and fall Still Jewish Keren R. McGinity, 2009-02-01 Over the last century American Jews married outside their religion at increasing rates By closely examining the intersection of intermarriage and gender across the twentieth century Keren R McGinity describes the lives of Jewish women who intermarried while placing their decisions in historical context The first comprehensive history of these intermarried women Still Jewish is a multigenerational study combining in depth personal interviews and an astute analysis of how interfaith relationships and intermarriage were portrayed in the mass media advice manuals and religious community generated literature Still Jewish dismantles assumptions that once a Jew intermarries she becomes fully assimilated into the majority Christian population religion and culture Rather than becoming lost to the Jewish community women who intermarried later in the century were more likely to raise their children with strong ties to Judaism than women who intermarried earlier in the century Bringing perennially controversial questions of Jewish identity continuity and survival to the forefront of the discussion Still Jewish addresses topics of great resonance in a diverse America Faith Unplugged Jason Jackson,2006 Just as unplugged music gives you pure and unfiltered music FAITH UNPLUGGED gives God's pure truth on hard hitting topics relevant to teens Our Favorite Sins Todd D. Hunter,2012 In Our Favorite Sins Hunter cracks open the problem of temptation and points to practical biblically based time tested solutions First revealing the role played by our disordered desires Hunter shows how different temptations trip us up and how we can resist them even if we've fallen prey to them for decades Free at Last Derrick McCarson,2015-03-04 Grace is supposed to be amazing but all too often the Christian life can be more about keeping stuffy rules than enjoying a relationship with Christ The tendency to add works to salvation has been a thorny problem since the gospel was first preached Legalism the doctrine of salvation by works robs the Christian of the grace filled life The book of Galatians is like an emancipation proclamation that says If the Son has set you free then you are free at last The liberating message of Galatians says believers are free from sin regulations and guilt Free from the need to measure up Free to be loved by Christ and changed by his grace Galatians is a guide for recovering Pharisees and in Free at Last Derrick McCarson takes us on a verse by verse journey through Paul's bondage busting manifesto You may be surprised to learn that Paul's message of grace is still as relevant today as it was centuries ago While the culture has changed much in those intervening years mankind's inherent desire for performance based religion has not This book is a timely reminder to Christians everywhere that if we aren't living by grace then we have succumbed to spiritual slavery The Hollywood Curriculum Mary M. Dalton,2004 The Hollywood Curriculum is a sophisticated and thoughtful look at the portrayal of teachers in film and television in an exceptionally accessible way Dalton draws on some of the most relevant and exciting theory to evaluate teacher films and demonstrates a masterful insight into the worlds of education and film studies This book is a must read for those interested in exploring the intersection of teaching curriculum film television and society and is an outstanding contribution to the literature Alan S Marcus Associate Professor of Curriculum and Instruction University of Connecticut Author of Celluloid Blackboard Teaching History with Film and Teaching History with Film Strategies for Secondary Social Studies Book Jacket Silas Burroughs, the Man who made Wellcome Julia Sheppard,2022-01-01 Silas Burroughs arrived in London from America in 1878 and proved himself an exceptional entrepreneur taking the pharmaceutical business by storm He was the brains and energy behind Burroughs Wellcome Co With his business partner Henry Wellcome he created an internationally successful firm the legacy of which can be found in the charity the Wellcome Trust yet few now remember him and the impact he made in his short lifetime A consummate salesman Burroughs was also an astute businessman with new ideas for marketing advertising and manufacturing his writings describe sales trips around the world and the people he met

He was also a visionary employer who supported the eight hour working day profit sharing and numerous social and radical political movements including the single tax movement free travel Irish Home Rule and world peace In this first biography of Burroughs Julia Sheppard explores his American origins his religion and marriage and his philanthropic work as well as re evaluating the dramatic deterioration of his relationship with his partner Wellcome Early Auden, Later Auden Edward Mendelson, 2017-04-25 Presented in one volume for the very first time and updated with new archival discoveries Early Auden Later Auden reintroduces Edward Mendelson s acclaimed two part biography of W H Auden 1907 73 one of the greatest literary figures of the twentieth century This book offers a detailed history and interpretation of Auden s oeuvre spanning the duration of his career from juvenilia to his final works in poetry as well as theatre film radio opera essays and lectures Early Auden Later Auden follows the evolution of the poet s thought offering a comparison of Auden s views at various junctures over a lifetime With penetrating insight Mendelson examines Auden s early ideas methods and personal transitions as reflected in poems manuscripts and private papers The book then links changes in Auden s intellectual emotional and religious experience with his shifting public role showing the depth of his personal struggles with self and with fame and the means by which these internal conflicts were reflected in his art in later years Featuring a new preface by the author Early Auden Later Auden is an engaging and timeless work that demonstrates Auden s remarkable range and complexity paying homage to his enduring legacy Morning and Evening Meditations from the Word of God Michael J. Akers, 2014-03-18 There are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them This book is different in two respects The first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all The second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging Most of these writings were based on author Michael J Akers s teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God Lives of Their Own Martha Watson, 1999 Explores how five turn of the century women Frances Willard Anna Howard Shaw Elizabeth Cady Stanton Emma Goldman and Mary Church Terrell crafted autobiographies that became persuasive models for the women of their generation and lead to movements for social change Domesticated Glory Gale Heide, 2010-09-01 Domesticated Glory critically examines the marriage between Evangelicalism and American politics The study begins by engaging popular political pundits who wish to transform Christianity into an arm of the state It then moves to examine some of the theological foundations proposed as support for the church s propping up of American political ideology Finally the study provides a more robust politics of the church by outlining how the church might act as a politics in itself Thus the church may gain a political voice as church in such a way as to make the world know it stands in need of redemption This is a far cry from the liberal attempt of the Social Gospel and many modern evangelicals to transform the world into a pseudo church by cultural or social control Unlike attempts to engage culture on its own terms in the political arena or to escape politics by avoiding any public testimony to the Gospel this study lays out a way for the church to act as church in the public square witnessing to a Gospel concerned primarily about the universe's King and His future Kingdom

Lincoln's America Joseph R. Fornieri, Sara Vaughn Gabbard, 2008-11-07 To fully understand and appreciate Abraham Lincoln's legacy it is important to examine the society that influenced the life character and leadership of the man who would become the Great Emancipator Editors Joseph R Fornieri and Sara Vaughn Gabbard have done just that in Lincoln's America 1809-1865 a collection of original essays by ten eminent historians that place Lincoln within his nineteenth century cultural context Among the topics explored in Lincoln's America are religion education middle class family life the antislavery movement politics and law Of particular interest are the transition of American intellectual and philosophical thought from the Enlightenment to Romanticism and the influence of this evolution on Lincoln's own ideas By examining aspects of Lincoln's life his personal piety in comparison with the beliefs of his contemporaries his success in self schooling when frontier youths had limited opportunities for a formal education his marriage and home life in Springfield and his legal career in light of broader cultural contexts such as the development of democracy the growth of visual arts the question of slaves as property and French visitor Alexis de Tocqueville's observations on America the contributors delve into the mythical Lincoln of folklore and discover a developing political mind and a changing nation As Lincoln's America shows the sociopolitical culture of nineteenth century America was instrumental in shaping Lincoln's character and leadership The essays in this volume paint a vivid picture of a young nation and its sixteenth president arguably its greatest leader The Other

Women's Movement Dorothy Sue Cobble, 2005-08-21 American feminism has always been about more than the struggle for individual rights and equal treatment under the law In this book the author retrieves an alternative tradition of women's reform that sought answers to questions increasingly pressing today how to balance work and family and how to address growing economic inequalities This book traces the history of American social justice feminism from the 1930s into the present and to link that continuous tradition with the leadership of labor women Back cover Magazines for the Millions

Helen Damon-Moore, 1994-08-12 Argues that the two popular women's magazines were pivotal in the combining of gender and commercialism at the turn of the century and that publishers and advertisers conspired to create both a gendered commercial discourse and a commercial gender discourse for both men and women Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Filmonomics André de Palma, Luc Leruth, 2025-04-08 What could movies as diverse as The Last Samurai Cl o

from 5 to 7 or Dr Strangelove have in common Filmonomics has a simple yet intriguing answer economics as the main driving force of the plot or as the main motivation of the characters actions This book analyses how movie makers use economic and financial motives in their plots or to build their characters Have they done it in line with economic theory Or are they proposing a new angle a new perspective that economists should take note of The authors here do not discuss wages in the film industry or the economics of movies What interests them is the economic motivations underpinning the behaviour of fictional characters in their favourite films They argue that credible movie characters can behave in irrational ways and movie makers occasionally introduce new ideas that economists should take note of A unique contribution this book will be of interest to readers eager to discover what economists have to say about films and film directors It will be indispensable for students and researchers of economics media studies film studies and cultural studies
