Divine And Contingent Order:

Divine and Contingent Order Thomas F. Torrance, 2005-07-20 This book examines the implications of the Judaeo-Christian claim for our understanding of the universe that it is contingent freely created by God out of nothing and having an existence freedom and rational order of its own while still dependent on him Professor Torrance argues that this claim made possible the development of western empirical science but that Newtonian physics obscured the connection between the rational order of nature and the Christian doctrine of creation He shows how modern relativity and quantum theories have once again drawn attention to the significance of contingency and imply that the universe is found to be consistently rational only if it is dependent on a creative rationality beyond it He considers finally the disorderly elements in the universe both physical and moral and argues that the doctrine of incarnation as well as of creation is necessary to deal with the intellectual problems which they raise

The Promise of Trinitarian Theology Colin E. Gunton, 2003-10-06 A reissue of a brilliant and accessible introduction to Trinitarian thought Colin Gunton argues that the theology of the Trinity has profound implications for all dimensions of human life Central to his work is his argument that the doctrine should offer ways of articulating the being of God and of the world so that we may be better able to live before God and with each other

Transcendence and Spatiality of the Triune Creator Chan Ho Park, 2005 Since Augustine many philosophers and theologians have discussed the relation of God to time whereas the relation between God and space has been rarely discussed This book deals with the relationship of God to space Divine transcendence is one important aspect of the Christian God However God is also immanent in the world of space and time The author investigates the concept of divine spatiality and presents case studies of three modern theologians Torrance Pannenberg and Moltmann He also analyses divine spatiality by using Dyrness's three categories relationship agency and embodiment

Persons, Powers, and Pluralities Eric G Flett, 2012-05-31 Through an intimate conversation with the writings of Thomas F Torrance Flett articulates a Trinitarian theology of culture Torrance's work suggests that Christian assumptions in the areas of God creation and humanity had an important influence upon the development of Western scientific culture This book develops each of these areas of Torrance's thought in order to articulate a theology of culture rooted in a Christian understanding of God as triune creation as contingent and human persons as stewards created in the image of God Drawn together these three areas of Torrance's thought suggest that human culture and cultural plurality ultimately originate in the creative action of a triune God mediated through the creative activity of the human creature as it engages a contingent created order in its attempts to foster human flourishing and to bear embodied witness to its Creator The result is not only a unique contribution to the emerging secondary material on Torrance's work but also a contribution to the field of theology of culture as a systematic locus in its own right

The Word Became Flesh David Graham Griffin, 2016-05-16 Is following Jesus natural Many would say no but this book argues yes Saying no suggests that grace and human nature are alternate moral categories Saying yes implies that our humanity is gracious in origin capacity and intent Much of this discussion hangs on what is meant by nature and natural and this book explores these ideas creationly and christologically Part One considers natural law as commonly found in the classical Christian tradition Part Two explores the radical christological tradition of Anabaptism Part Three then proposes the two nature christology of the Chalcedonian definition as a theological resource enabling their reconciliation The Chalcedonianism of the modern Barth and the ancient Maximus the Confessor are appropriated along with scientific theology of T F Torrance and Nancey Murphy If Chalcedon correctly affirms Jesus s humanity as being homoousios one nature with our humanity created like Adam s through the eternal Spirit then Jesus s life was natural proper to its created intent And as his divine nature was homoousios with the Father s nature he is the human expression of the divine Word which gives creation its contingent moral rationality As such the life of Jesus Anabaptists concern is morally normative for all humanity natural law s concern Divine and Contingent Order Don Page,1981 The Modern Theologians David F.

Ford,2013-09-23 This popular text has been updated to ensure that it continues to provide a current and comprehensive overview of the main Christian theologies of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Each chapter is written by a leading theologian and gives a clear picture of a particular movement topic or individual New and updated treatments of topics covered in earlier editions with over half the chapters new to this edition or revised by new authors New section singling out six classic theologians of the twentieth century Expanded treatment of the natural sciences gender Roman Catholic theology since Vatican II and African Asian and Evangelical theologies Completely new chapters on spirituality pastoral theology philosophical theology postcolonial biblical interpretation Pentecostal theology Islam and Christian theology Buddhism and Christian theology and theology and film As in previous editions the text opens with a full introduction to modern theology Epilogue discussing the present situation and prospects of Christian theology in the twenty first century Cleansing the Cosmos E. Janet Warren,2012-11-08 Adaptation of the author s Ph D thesis University of Birmingham 2012 T. F.

Torrance and Eastern Orthodoxy Matthew Baker,Todd Speidell,2015-11-05 A properly ecumenical theology T F Torrance believed points the church to Christ as the only source and reality of its own unity Its only hope for unity must be discovered in him and unveiled to the church rather than pieced together and manufactured through ecumenical slogans and well meaning intentions Acting on this belief Torrance initiated an international dialogue of Reformed and Orthodox Churches which culminated when the World Alliance of Reformed Churches and the Orthodox Church issued a groundbreaking joint statement of agreement concerning the Trinity in 1991 a move beyond the filioque controversy that has divided East and West for a millennium The current volume on T F Torrance and Eastern Orthodoxy continues the theological and ecclesial work of the reintegration of Western and Eastern traditions on a classical patristic foundation Reflections on Grace Thomas A. Langford,2007-06-23 For about the last fifteen years of his life Thomas A Langford pondered how grace is central to Christian theology This book records his reflections and provides numerous gems of mature Christian insight From beginning to end the book is christologically focused Grace is not something that God gives us rather it is the way God gives us himself Grace is a person God present to human beings Grace is not a gift but rather a giver Grace is Jesus Christ The central contribution of this work is its personalization of grace its sharp focus on God present in Jesus Christ Because its focus on grace gives the reader such a clear and thematically developed entry point this work is a great introduction to theology and the life of the church the kind that pastors and parishioners would certainly benefit from confronting

Evidence of God Nick Hawkes,2012-03-23 Nick Hawkes has written a book on science and Christian faith that is attractive intelligent and accessible to general readers It shows clearly that Christian faith and science are not opposed to each other but in need of each other This book will be of great interest not only to committed Christians seeking to see how their biblical faith relates to contemporary science but also to all those searching for an authentic Christian spirituality for the twenty first century Denis Edwards Flinders University Nick Hawkes looks at arguments for and against the existence for God and comes to the conclusion that faith can no more dispense with science than science can dispense with God Both complete one another He knows the terrain well and is able to explain complex ideas in ordinary language Dr Hawkes concludes by saying that Christian theology rather than undermining science actually provides science with a solid ground of meaning on which to stand Mark Worthing Tabor College Adelaide This book should have a prominent position on the shelves of pastors church leaders teachers and anyone who is interested in proclaiming Christianity in our secular society Dr Hawkes uses modern science to put forward a reasoned defense of orthodox Christianity Ken Smith The University of Queensland

In the Shadow of Christ Derek Joseph Wiertel,2025-05-29 In the Shadow of Christ presents a fresh theological interpretation of nature s violent and suffering character as determined by God s self interpretation in Jesus Christ Grounded in the rich spiritual tradition of premodern natural theology Wiertel retrieves a figural reading of nature that interprets the entire span of created existence through Scripture s symbolic landscape This restored vision of the two books rooted in God s creative and redemptive word establishes an interpretive framework that sees all of creation its beauty its strangeness and its tragedies through the creative dynamics of God s revelatory speech In this essay Wiertel critically embraces scriptural figuration with its profoundly Christocentric metaphysical orientation to offer a rich theological vision of creational suffering By engaging Scripture and the natural world figurally and in critical dialogue with contemporary philosophy ethics and biology Wiertel unfolds an expansive theological narrative He maps creation s suffering within the mystery of Jesus Christ inviting readers to see all of natural history as a divine gift ordered toward its eschatological transformation Knowledge, Freedom, and Taste Konstantin Pollok,2024-09-03 This volume presents original contributions from former students of Paul Guyer the 2024 recipient of the International Kant Prize The authors engage with central aspects of Guyer s work on Kant s critical philosophy including his metaphysics ethics and aesthetics Thomas F. Torrance Paul D. Molnar,2016-02-17 This book provides an important study of the theology of Thomas F Torrance who is generally considered to have been one of the most significant theologians writing in English during the twentieth century with a view toward showing how his theological method and all his major doctrinal views were shaped by his understanding of the doctrine of the Trinity Torrance pursued a theology that was realist because he attempted to think in accordance with the unique nature of the object that is known In holding to such a methodology he drew an analogy between theology and natural science This book demonstrates how for Torrance God relates with humanity within time and space so that creation finds its meaning in relation to God and not in itself this enabled him to avoid many theological pitfalls such as agnosticism subjectivism and dualism while explaining the positive implications of various Christian doctrines in a penetrating and compelling manner This book offers an important resource for students of theology and for scholars who are interested in seeing how serious dogmatic theology shapes and should shape our understanding of the Christian life

Psychology, Religion, and Spirituality James M.

Nelson, 2009-02-27 Over a century ago psychologists who were fascinated with religion began to study and write about it Theologians and religious practitioners have responded to this literature producing a fascinating dialogue that deals with our fundamental understandings about the human person and our place in the world This book provides an introduction to the important conversations that have developed out of these interchanges The dialogue between psychology and religion is difficult to study for a number of reasons First it requires knowledge of both psychology and religion People with a background in psychology often lack a solid understanding of the religious traditions they wish to study and theologians may not be up to date on the latest developments in psychology Second it requires conceptual tools to organize the material and understand the basic problems involved in any attempt to connect the science of psychology with religion These concepts can be found in many places for instance in the writings of philosophers of science but they are complex and often hard to follow for those without a proper theological and philosophical background Finally authors who write on the topic come to the study of psychology and religion from a variety of academic and personal backgrounds This makes for wonderful diversity in conversations but it makes understanding and mastery of the material quite difficult

A Kairos Moment for Caribbean Theology Garnett Roper, J. Richard Middleton, 2013-08-12

The project of developing a contextual theology for the Caribbean was first articulated in the early 1970s in Trinidad and Jamaica In the years since many evangelical churches and theologians in the Caribbean have been ambivalent about the validity of this project assuming that an emphasis on context was somehow antithetical to the pure gospel But the crisis of the times along with a more mature hermeneutic has led to a re evaluation of this assumption Here a group of evangelical Caribbean theologians enter the discussion with substantive proposals for how the gospel addresses the Caribbean context They are joined by other theologians from mainline Protestant and Catholic traditions in the Caribbean The result is an ecumenical dialogue on the diverse ways in which orthodox Christian faith may provide both challenge and hope for the Caribbean context Half the essays in this volume were originally presented at the Forum on Caribbean Theology held in 2010 at the Jamaica Theological Seminary the rest were invited especially for this volume Christianity and Islam Samuel Zinner,2010 An examination of the similarities and differences between Christianity and Islam especially in the areas of ontology philosophy and metaphysics The integration of the heritages of Plato and Aristotle in the Church and in Islam is explored deftly and densely This book invites adherents of Christianity and Islam to understand more deeply their own respective traditions and on this basis to understand and respect the other Several chapters are devoted to a comparison between both Sunnite Sufi and Shi ite Gnostic esoteric traditions especially in the area of Qur anic exegesis This book will be equally challenging and rewarding for the serious reader Person, Personhood, and the Humanity of Christ Hakbong Kim,2021-05-19 The quest for an understanding of humanness has been significant As the ways in which we recognize and define our human being have significant impact wide ranging discussions and questions about the human have taken place with significant theoretical and practical implications In Person Personhood and the Humanity of Christ Hakbong Kim explores Thomas F Torrance s critiques of the dualist and individualistic views concerning human beings in the history of philosophy and theology This book sheds important light on Torrance s understanding of humans as persons in relation the trinitarian personhood as the ontological foundation for human personhood and the humanity of Christ as key to the personalization necessary for a new moral ethical and social life This presents a Christocentric anthropology and ethics which focuses on Christ s ongoing reconciling and humanizing ministry for us The God Who Loves and Is Loved Christian D. Kettler,2019-11-12 Can there be a greater folly than writing a book about love But how can we avoid that most basic of all desires and commands Yet we are very poor lovers as our history demonstrates If God is love though can we find help in considering the love of Jesus Christ and the love of Jesus thought of in terms of what T F Torrance called the vicarious humanity of Christ This would mean that we realize our inability and the Son of God s ability to love on our behalf and in our place Such a love mirrors the love of the Son for the Father in the Spirit a love that reflects his eternal triune love Therefore could we have new perspectives on our relationships the love of ourselves of God and the neighbor How essential is love to being human and what kind of love What does it mean to love your enemies What is the relationship between justice and love And what are the fruits of love the evidence of genuine love Christian D Kettler explores these issues in the context of the living reality of the vicarious humanity of Christ Theosis in the Theology of Thomas Torrance Dr Myk Habets,2013-05-28 Torrance s vision of Theosis deification divinisation is explored through his doctrine of creation and anthropology his characterisation of the incarnation his accounts of reconciliation and union with Christ and his theology of church and sacraments Myk Habets study distinguishes Torrance s Reformed vision of theosis from other possible accounts of salvation as divinisation as they are found for instance within patristic thought and Eastern Orthodoxy This book presents the first critique of the theology of T F Torrance to focus on theosis and examines a model of theosis within the realm of reformed theology built upon Western theology
