Disputed Questions On Being A Christian Journeys In Faith:

My Quests for Hope and Meaning Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2013-10-02 This book is an autobiography tracing Rosemary Radford Ruether's intellectual development and writing career. Ruether examines the influence of her mother and family on her development and particularly her interactions with the Roman Catholic religious tradition. She delves into her exploration of interfaith relations with Judaism and Islam as well. Her educational formation at Scripps College and the importance of historical theology is also a major emphasis. Mental illness has also affected Ruether's nuclear family in the person of her son and she details the family's struggle with this issue. Finally in this intellectual autobiography Ruether explores her long concern and involvement with ecology feminism and the quest for a spirituality and practice for a livable planet.

Comparative Religious Ethics Darrell J. Fasching, Dell deChant, David M. Lantigua, 2011-05-02 This popular textbook has been thoroughly revised and updated to reflect recent global developments whilst retaining its unique and compelling narrative style approach. Using ancient stories from diverse religions it explores a broad range of important and complex moral issues resulting in a truly reader friendly and comparative introduction to religious ethics. A thoroughly revised and expanded new edition of this popular textbook yet retains the unique narrative style approach which has proved so successful with students. Considers the ways in which ancient stories from diverse religions such as the Bhagavad Gita and the lives of Jesus and Buddha have provided ethical orientation in the modern world. Updated to reflect recent discussions on globalization and its influence on cross cultural and comparative ethics economic dimensions to ethics Gandhian traditions and global ethics in an age of terrorism. Expands coverage of Asian religions quest narratives the religious and philosophical approach to ethics in the West and considers Chinese influences on Thich Nhat Hanh's Zen Buddhism and Augustine's Confessions. Accompanied by an instructor's manual coming soon see www.wiley.com/go/fasching which shows how to use the book in conjunction with contemporary films.

Between Faith and Doubt: An Evolving Faith Journey Samuel Cardillo, 2020-12-10 Many Christians embark on a faith journey at one time or another and some do repeatedly. When Sam Cardillo unintentionally set out on his personal faith journey he wasn't sure what he would discover. Would his lifelong convictions be altered? How would he process through the weakening of certitudes that had always sustained his faith? Between Faith and Doubt: An Evolving Spiritual Journey is a candid account of what it looks like to experience and navigate through a crisis of faith. Through a retelling of his own faith journey Cardillo encourages his readers to take an honest and fearless look at their own faith. Unlike other similar books you will have the opportunity to see the vulnerability and uncertainty that come with being in the middle of such a personal journey. Follow Sam as he talks about what it looks like to work openly and seriously through an unresolved faith journey a journey in progress.

Narrative Research in Ministry Carl E. Savage, Dr William Presnell, 2008 We are in a real sense our stories. Who we are what we think and how we act are all shaped by the many large and small stories that make up the discourse embedded in our multi sensory social experience. It is this postmodern understanding of identity and reality that has prompted the authors to fashion a new way of thinking about doing research in faith communities today particularly through a Doctor of Ministry program It is our belief that in order for faith communities to define themselves and to know what to do in ministry they must first understand the multiple stories which intersect with a given ministry situation in their specific context

Mutuality Dawn M. Nothwehr, 2005-07-25 By selecting as her focus mutuality Nothwehr brings to the fore an issue of perennial importance in Christian social ethics that of power As she shows feminist theology invites religious ethicists to reconceive normative questions of power from the vantage point of its dynamic mutual sharing a sharing that encompasses not only individual relations but society and the natural world She also demonstrates how attention to relations of mutuality sheds light on the spectrum of classical Christian theological and moral topics revealing dimensions of our traditions that standard assumptions about power as domination tend to obscure Christine Firer Hinze Associate Professor of Theology Marquette University This book allows mutuality to take its rightful place along with love and justice in Christian social ethics Written with great clarity with excellent scholarship and with the thinking of key historical figures in mind this book focuses on the thinking of four contemporary Christian feminists Beverly Wildung Harrison Carter Heyward Elizabeth Johnson and Rosemary Radford Ruether to show that mutuality is at the heart of ethics But it does more It shows that mutuality at the heart of the human at the heart of the divine and at the heart of the meeting between the two John J Shea visiting Associate Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Boston College Dawn Nothwehr employs a corrective category mutuality At first blush the term would seem too tender and nebulous to address the splits in our consciousness but this theologian brings well informed care to its definition It becomes in her hands a critical tool which can do healing surgery on many foundational categories of Catholic theology and indeed on much of modern thinking beyond the pale of Catholicism Mutuality calls attention to the essential interdependency of all that is in our cosmos Daniel C Maguire Professor of Theological Ethics Marquette University

WomanProphet Elizabeth Love, 2019-04-30 Most women are raised in a context of feminine values whether they are aware of those values or not Some of the values specific to this feminine culture are interdependence caring and relationality In our time many women cross over into a masculine value culture when they take on what were traditional male roles in male evolved institutions Eventually women become aware that their own values conflict with some assumed male values They then have to compromise and adjust in order to be productive in those environments The women I have focused on in this study have because of a significant external event or events and an emerging inner vision left both structures They then however lack others around them whose values structures can reinforce adherence When these women are by themselves they experience something like a dark night of the soul Once they get beyond the pain and a sense of meaninglessness they begin to realize that they can move the constructs of reality that they can write history as well as read it An essential concern is to determine what their values are After this process their own personal vision becomes clear But the cycle isn't complete until they bring that new vision back to their people And bringing it back in a holistic sense helps to raise the moral sights of others who are influenced by that experience      A God of Many Understandings? Todd

Religion and Values James Arthur, Terence Lovat, 2013-08-21 The academic fields of religion and values have become the focus of renewed interest in contemporary thinking about human activity and its motivations The Routledge International Handbook of Education Religion and Values explores and expands upon a range of international research related to this revival The book provides an authoritative overview of global issues in religion and values surveying the state of the academic area in contributions covering a wide range of topics It includes emerging controversial and cutting-edge contributions as well as investigations into more established areas International authorities Arthur and Lovat have brought together experts from across the world to examine the complexity of the field of study The handbook is organised around four key topics which focus on both the importance of religion and values as broad fields of human enquiry as well as in their application to education inter-agency work and cross-cultural endeavours The Conceptual World of Religion and Values Religion and Values in Education Religion and Values in Inter-agency Work Religion and Values in Cross-cultural Work This comprehensive reference work combines theoretical and empirical research of international significance and will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics in the field of education      Voices of Feminist Liberation Emily Leah

Silverman, Dirk von der Horst, Whitney Bauman, 2014-10-14 Voices of Feminist Liberation brings together a wide range of scholars to explore the work of Rosemary Radford Ruether one of the most influential feminist and liberation theologians of our time Ruether's extraordinary and ground-breaking thinking has shaped debates across liberation theology feminism and eco-feminism queer theology social justice and inter-religious dialogue At the same time her commitment to practice and agency has influenced sites of local resistance around the world as well as on globalised strategies for ecological sustainability and justice Voices of Feminist Liberation examines the potential of Ruether's thinking to mobilize critical theology social theory and cultural practice The scholars gathered here present their personal engagements with Ruether's thinking and teaching The book will be invaluable to scholars policy makers and activists seeking to understand how colonial and patriarchal oppression in the name of religion can be confronted and defeated      A Salesman's Journey to Mission

James E. Balraj, 2003 Memoirs of the author former Director Council for Technical and Vocational Training of the Church of South India      Outline of Christian Doctrine Wilfried Harle, 2015-04-14 In this book Wilfried Harle so distills Protestant

Christian teaching as to bring fresh insight both to new students and to experienced readers of systematic theology Outline of Christian Doctrine however is not merely a translation of Harle's classic German text Nicholas Sagovsky has also entirely adapted the original work to the needs and resources of English speaking readers Biblically rooted contextually sensitive alert to philosophical issues and relevant with respect to debates about the world as we know it today Hrle s Outline of Christian Doctrine An Evangelical Dogmatics is an ideal contemporary theology book for both class use and individual study

Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris,2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation The Pursuit of Belief - Christian Classics Collection Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,Martin Luther,Henryk Sienkiewicz,Dante Alighieri,Henry Van Dyke,David Hume,James Allen,Ralph Waldo Emerson,Andrew Murray,John Bunyan,Grace Livingston Hill,Thomas Paine,Voltaire,Lew Wallace,John Milton,Charles M. Humbling Faith Peter Admirand, 2019-03-22 This is a book hoping to embolden doubt and sharpen unanswerable questions all in the context of loving the self and one another Ridiculously it believes the world can be healed through such a hope It is especially addressed to those allergic to the word faith and others who feel confident and proud in the faith they profess or system of thought they live by Humbling Faith helps us see how our beliefs or non beliefs our belongings and identities often remain flawed myopic self absorbed unredeemed The hope is that such awareness of our brokenness can fuel greater ethical partnerships and dialogue promoting peace from our recognized need for one another Humbling Faith is not only a resource towards humbling other faiths but most importantly your own

Syncretism in Religion Anita Maria Leopold, Jeppe Sinding Jensen, 2016-05-06 Long a fascinating but problematic category of religious studies syncretism is an elastic term that describes a wide range of practices characterized by the mixing or overlap of traditions Syncretism in Religion offers the student a broad selection of essays both classical contributions to the study of syncretism and new essays commissioned especially for this volume Some important selections appear here in English for the first time Also included is a list of references for further reading

Religious Pluralism and Pragmatist Theology Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2019-07-22 Inspired by pragmatism this book addresses religious plurality with the aim of bringing forth how it may be approached constructively by Christian theology Accordingly not doctrine but practices are focussed in its analyses of interreligious topics Henriksen argues that engagement with the diversity of religious traditions should be grounded in openness towards the other and resistance against making others similar to oneself Accordingly the book presents a theological approach where interaction between religious practitioners is considered a benefit and a necessity for the positive future of religious traditions It will be of interest to anyone who is interested in the understanding of religious pluralism from the point of view of Christian theology
