Dissident Postmodernists Barthelme Coover Pynchon:

Dissident Postmodernists Paul Maltby, 2016-11-11 Critics who hold that postmodernist art is essentially adversarial and apolitical have ignored the historical context of the postmodern focus on the problems of language Paul Maltby examines a major current of postmodernist fiction that can be read as a dissident response to developments of late capitalism that have transformed the field of language and communication

Dissident Postmodernists Paul Leon Maltby, 1989 The Cambridge Companion to Thomas Pynchon Inger H. Dalsgaard, Luc Herman, Brian McHale, 2012 This essential Companion to Thomas Pynchon provides all the necessary tools to unlock the challenging fiction of this postmodern master

Rethinking Postmodern Subjectivity Zuzanna Ladyga, 2009 What is postmodern literary subjectivity How to talk about it without falling in the trap of negative hyper essentialism or being seduced by exuberant lit speak One way out of this dilemma as this book suggests is via a redefinition of the concept in the context of Emmanuel Levinas and his radical ethics By defining subjectivity as an ethically charged act of language Levinas provides a fresh perspective on the often trivialized aspects of postmodern poetics such as referentiality and affect construction strategies The foregrounding of the ethical dimension of those poetic elements has far reaching consequences for how we read postmodern texts and understand postmodernism in general Thus to prove the benefits of the Levinasian approach the author applies it to the work of the canonical American postmodernist Donald Barthelme and explains the distinctly ethical character of his apparently surfictional experiments

The Cruft of Fiction David Letzler, 2017-06 A 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title What is the strange appeal of big books The mega novel a genre of erudite tomes with encyclopedic scope has attracted wildly varied responses from fanatical devotion to trenchant criticism Looking at intimidating mega novel masterpieces from The Making of Americans to 2666 David Letzler explores reader responses to all the seemingly random irrelevant pointless and derailing elements that comprise these mega novels elements that he labels cruft after the computer science term for junk code In The Cruft of Fiction Letzler suggests that these books are useful tools to help us understand the relationship between reading and attention While mega novel text is often intricately meaningful or experimental sometimes it is just excessive and pointless On the other hand mega novels also contain text that though appearing to be cruft turns out to be quite important Letzler posits that this cruft requires readers to develop a sophisticated method of attentional modulation allowing one to subtly distinguish between text requiring focused attention and text that must be skimmed or even skipped to avoid processing failures The Cruft of Fiction shows how the attentional maturation prompted by reading mega novels can help manage the information overload that increasingly characterizes contemporary life

Understanding Robert Coover Brian Evenson, 2003 This text takes on the work of Robert Coover a major figure of postmodern metafiction In an analysis of Coover's short stories and novels it demonstrates how Coover writes in several different modes that cross over into one another

Beyond the Red Notebook Dennis Barone, 2011-09-16 The novels of Paul Auster finely wrought self reflexive filled with doublings coincidences and mysteries have captured the imagination of readers and the admiration of many critics of contemporary literature In Beyond the Red Notebook the first book devoted to the works of Auster Dennis Barone has assembled an international group of scholars who present twelve essays that provide a rich and insightful examination of Auster's writings The authors explore connections between Auster's poetry and fiction the philosophical underpinnings of his writing its relation to detective fiction and its unique embodiment of the postmodern sublime Their essays provide the fullest analysis available of Auster's themes of solitude chance and paternity found in works such as The Invention of Solitude City of Glass Ghosts The Locked Room In the Country of Last Things Moon Palace The Music of Chance and Leviathan This volume includes contributions from Pascal Bruckner Marc Chenetier Norman Finkelstein Derek Rubin Madeleine Sorapure Stephen Bernstein Tim Woods Steven Weisenburger Arthur Saltzman Eric Wirth and Motoyuki Shibata The extensive bibliography prepared by William Drenttel will greatly benefit both scholars and general readers

Fables of Subversion Steven Weisenburger, 1995 Drawing on more than thirty novels by nineteen writers Fables of Subversion is both a survey of mid twentieth century American fiction and a study of how these novels challenged the conventions of satire Steven Weisenburger focuses on the rise of a radically subversive mode of satire from 1930 to 1980 This postmodern satire says Weisenburger stands in crucial opposition to corrective normative satire which has served a legitimizing function by generating through ridicule a consensus on values Weisenburger argues that satire in this generative mode does not participate in the oppositional subversive work of much twentieth century art Chapters focus on theories of satire early subversions of satiric conventions by Nathanael West Flannery O'Connor and John Hawkes the flowering of Black Humor fictions of the sixties and the forms of political and encyclopedic satire prominent throughout the period Many of the writers included here such as Vladimir Nabokov William Gaddis Kurt Vonnegut Robert Coover and Thomas Pynchon are acknowledged masters of contemporary humor Others such as Mary McCarthy Chester Himes James Purdy Charles Wright and Ishmael Reed have not previously been considered in this context Posing a seminal challenge to existing theories of satire Fables of Subversion explores the iconoclastic energies of the new satires as a driving force in late modern and post modern novel writing Beyond Suspicion Marc Chenetier,1996-01-29 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Book for 1996 John Barth and the Anxiety of Continuance Patricia Tobin,2016-11-11 During the sixties and seventies the fictional reinventions of John Barth along with his misread and influential essay The Literature of Exhaustion established the comic novelist as a leading practitioner and theorist of what was then coming to be called postmodern literature In more recent years however Barth's reputation has been called into question within the ongoing critical debate over the criterion of originality and the status of literary repetition imitation and parody In her spirited defense of Barth Patricia Tobin employs Harold Bloom's theory of belatedness to confront and explode this issue For Bloom the later the artist the greater the burden of the past against which he must rebel and the more hopeless his task However Tobin argues Barth revels in his belatedness and celebrates the opportunity to survey a rich literary past and to bring back to life its dead forms genres and styles by completing fulfilling and exhausting them Not a retrospective and negative anxiety of influence then but a wholly prospective and positive anxiety of continuance has propelled Barth through a distinguished career Throughout Tobin elaborates the conjunctions and disjunctions between Bloom and Barth with surprising results Most notable perhaps is her examination of how Bloom's model of a map of misreading helps to elucidate and even predict the ways in which Barth sets each new novel in antithetical relation to the one before Along the way much is said about modernism and postmodernism repetition and difference and what it means poetically and willfully to intend a career John Barth and the Anxiety of Continuance will be of interest to scholars of American fiction and critical theory The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of World War II Marina MacKay,2009-01-22 The literature of World War II has emerged as an accomplished moving and challenging body of work produced by writers as different as Norman Mailer and Virginia Woolf Primo Levi and Ernest Hemingway Jean Paul Sartre and W H Auden This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of the international literatures of the war both those works that recorded or reflected experiences of the war as it happened and those that tried to make sense of it afterwards It surveys the writing produced in the major combatant nations Britain and the Commonwealth the USA Japan Germany France Italy and the USSR and explores its common themes With its chronology and guide to further reading it will be an invaluable source of information and inspiration for students and scholars of modern literature and war studies The Mourning After Neil Edward Brooks,Josh Toth,2007 Have we moved beyond postmodernism Did postmodernism lose its oppositional value when it became a cultural dominant While focusing on questions such as these the articles in this collection consider the possibility that the death of a certain version of postmodernism marks a renewed attempt to re negotiate and perhaps re embrace many of the cultural literary and theoretical assumptions that postmodernism seemingly denied outright Including contributions from some of the leading scholars in the field N Katherine Hayles John D Caputo Paul Maltby Jane Flax among others this collection ultimately comes together to perform a certain work of mourning Through their explorations of this current epistemological shift in narrative and theoretical production these articles work to get over postmodernism while simultaneously celebrating a certain postmodern inheritance an inheritance that can offer us important avenues to understanding and affecting contemporary culture and society

Modern Confessional Writing Jo Gill,2006-03-29 This collection of essays provides a critique of the popular and powerful genre of confessional writing Contributors discuss a range of poetry prose and drama including the work of John Berryman Anne Sexton Ted Hughes and Helen Fielding

Contemporary American Fiction Kenneth Millard,2000 Millard leads the interpretation of post 1970 fiction by addressing particular authors and themes

The Practice of Misuse Raymond Malewitz,2014-10-01 In the age of Ikea Hackers and salvagepunks this book charts the emergence of rugged consumers who creatively misuse reuse and repurpose the objects within their environments to suit their idiosyncratic needs and desires Figures of both literary and material culture whose behavior evokes an American can do ethic rugged consumers mediate between older mythic models of self sufficiency and the consumption driven realities of our passive post industrial economy Through their unorthodox encounters with the material world rugged consumers show that using objects properly is a conventional behavior that must be renewed and reinforced rather than a naturalized process that persists untroubled through time and space At the same time this Utopian ideal is rarely met most examples of rugged consumerism conceal rather than foreground the ideological problems to which they respond and thus support or ignore rather than challenge the structures of late capitalist consumerism By analyzing convergences and divergences between subjective material practices and collectivist politics Raymond Malewitz shows how rugged consumerism both recodes and reflects the dynamic social history of objects in the United States from the 1960s to the present

Shirley Jackson's American Gothic Darryl Hattenhauer,2012-02-01 Best known for her short story The Lottery and her novel The Haunting of Hill House Shirley Jackson produced a body of work that is more varied and complex than critics have realized In fact as Darryl Hattenhauer argues here Jackson was one of the few writers to anticipate the transition from modernism to postmodernism and therefore ranks among the most significant writers of her time The first comprehensive study of all of Jackson s fiction Shirley Jackson s American Gothic offers readers the chance not only to rediscover her work but also to see how and why a major American writer was passed over for inclusion in the canon of American literature

Experimentation and Versatility Casey Clabough,2005 Experimentation and Versatility considers Chappell s first four novels and his short fiction the novels chronologically and the short stories thematically in order to demonstrate the unique range and importance of his fictional prose Rather than inserting Chappell s fictional variables into a single theoretical formula Clabough traces and celebrates their various and multifaceted excursions into genres as disparate as Appalachian pastoralism and experimental science fiction Containing both an interview with Chappell and a previously unpublished short story Experimentation and Versatility also offers new primary sources on Chappell s work even as it contextualizes him as one of our most exciting and multi talented contemporary writers Investigating the complexities of Chappell s work Clabough s study offers new ways of considering Chappell who has been characterized variously as a Appalachian Southern and fantasy writer However as Clabough demonstrates he is in fact all and none of these things a writer of immense gifts constantly reinventing himself through his experiments in seemingly disparate genres

Crime Fiction and National Identities in the Global Age Julie H. Kim, 2020-05-25 To read a crime novel today largely simulates the exercise of reading newspapers or watching the news The speed and frequency with which today's bestselling works of crime fiction are produced allow them to mirror and dissect nearly contemporaneous socio political events and conflicts This collection examines this phenomenon and offers original critical essays on how national identity appears in international crime fiction in the age of populism and globalization These essays address topics such as the array of competing nationalisms in Europe Indian secularism versus Hindu communalism the populist rhetoric tinged with misogyny or homophobia in the United States racial religious or ethnic others who are sidelined in political appeals to dominant native voices and the increasing economic chasm between a rich and poor More broadly these essays inquire into themes such as how national identity and various conceptions of masculinity are woven together how dominant native cultures interact with migrant and colonized cultures to explore insider outsider paradigms and identity politics and how generic and cultural boundaries are repeatedly crossed in postcolonial detective fiction

The Black Female Body in American Literature and Art Caroline Brown, 2013-02-28 This book examines how African American writers and visual artists interweave icon and inscription in order to re present the black female body traditionally rendered alien and inarticulate within Western discursive and visual systems Brown considers how the writings of Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Edwidge Danticat Jamaica Kincaid Andrea Lee Gloria Naylor and Martha Southgate are bound to such contemporary postmodern visual artists as Lorna Simpson Carrie Mae Weems Kara Walker Betye Saar and Faith Ringgold While the artists and authors rely on radically different media photos collage video and assembled objects as opposed to words and rhythm both sets of intellectual activists insist on the primacy of the black aesthetic Both assert artistic agency and cultural continuity in the face of the oppression social transformation and cultural multiplicity of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book examines how African American performative practices mediate the tension between the ostensibly de racialized body politic and the hyper racialized black female body reimagining the cultural and political ground that guides various articulations of American national belonging Brown shows how and why black women writers and artists matter as agents of change how and why the form and content of their works must be recognized and reconsidered in the increasingly frenzied arena of cultural production and political debate
