Dissolving Boundaries:

Transitions and Dissolving Boundaries in the Fantastic Christine Lötscher, Petra Schrackmann, Ingrid Tomkowiak, Aleta-Amirée von Holzen, 2014 By creating hybrid zones of autonomy the fantastic a subgenre of literary works provides alternatives to conventional understandings of the world knowledge or identity The fantastic raises a number of significant questions about cultural and social developments and challenges existing boundaries With regard to fantastic fiction in literature and different media representations the articles in this volume explore crossings into other worlds time travel metamorphoses hybrid creatures and a variety of other transitions and transgressions The book analyzes hybrid genres inter media adaptations transpositions into new media as well as various forms of crossover as exemplified in the increasing trend of generation spanning all age literature Series Research in the Fantastic Fantastikforschung Vol 2 Crossing Borders, Dissolving Boundaries Hein Viljoen, 2013 Borders separate but also connect self and other and literary texts not only enact these bordering processes but form part of such processes This book gestures towards a borderless world stepping as it were with thousand mile boots from south to north even across the Atlantic from South Africa to Scandinavia It also shows how literary texts model and remodel borders and bordering processes in rich and meaningful local contexts The essays assembled here analyse the crossing and negotiation of borders and boundaries in works by Nadine Gordimer Ingrid Winterbach Deneys Reitz Janet Suzman Marlene van Niekerk A S Byatt Thomas Harris Frank A Jenssen Eben Venter Antjie Krog and others under different signs or conceptual points of attraction These signs include a spiritual turn eventfulness self understanding ethnic and linguistic mobilization performative chronotopes the grotesque the carceral the rhetorical and the interstitial Contributors Ileana Dimitriu Heilna du Plooy John Gouws Anne Heith Lida Kr ger Susan Meyer Ad le Nel Ellen Rees Johan Schimanski Tony Ullyatt Phil van Schalkwyk Hein Viljoen The Tantric Path of Indestructible Wakefulness Chögyam Trungpa, 2013-04-08 Ch gyam Trungpa explores the the vajrayana teachings of the tantric path in this final volume of his masterpiece on Tibetan Buddhism This three volume collection presents in lively relevant language the comprehensive teachings of the Tibetan Buddhist path of the hinayana mahayana and vajrayana Considered Ch gyam Trungpa s magnum opus The Profound Treasury of the Ocean of Dharma will resonate with new and senior students of Buddhism In this third and final volume Ch gyam Trungpa s examines the vajrayana teachings of the tantric path The vajrayana or diamond vehicle also referred to as tantra draws upon and extends the teachings of the hinayana and mahayana As with the hinayana and the mahayana the formal acceptance into the vajrayana is marked by a vow in this case the samaya vow There is an emphasis at this stage on the student teacher relationship and on the quality of devotion Generally students must complete preliminary practices called ng ndro to prepare themselves for initiation into the vajrayana path before going further Having done so they then receive the appropriate empowerments to begin tantric practices There are empowerment ceremonies of many kinds called abhishekas The vajrayana includes both form practices such as visualizations and sadhanas ritual liturgies and formless practices based on allowing the mind to rest naturally in its inherent clarity and emptiness Although on the surface there is much greater complexity in tantric practices the principles of mindfulness and awareness and the cultivation of compassion and skillful action continue to be of central importance The tantric path requires complete engagement and fierce dedication It is said to be a more rapid path but it is also more dangerous There is a quality of directness abruptness and wholeheartedness Tantrikas or vajrayana practitioners recognize that the most challenging aspects of life the energies and play of confused emotions and frightening obstacles can be worked with as gateways to freedom and realization Other topics covered in detail in this volume include the four reminders the mandala principle mahamudra atiyoga and more

Corcoran, 2002 The Republican Alternative André Holenstein, Thomas Maissen, Maarten Roy Prak, 2008 The Republican Alternative seeks to move beyond the mere notion of scholarly inquiry into the republic the subject of recent rediscovery by political historians interested in Europe s intellectual heritage by investigating the practical similarities and differences between two early modern republics as well as their self images and interactions during the turbulent seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Among the world s most economically successful societies Switzerland and the Netherlands laid much of the foundation for their prosperity during the early modern period discussed here This volume attempts to clarify the special character of these two countries as they developed including issues of religious plurality the republican form of government and an increasingly commercially driven agrarian society Intimate Relations Christine Weder, 2024 Shows that engagement with art and literature was essential to the programmatic sexual theories of the late 1960s and early 70s and that the period s aesthetic theories were characterized by forms of sexual obsession In the period around and after 1968 sexuality and the arts entered into a remarkably intimate and mutually beneficial relationship on one hand scientific theories of sexuality and their pop psychological counterparts incorporated lengthy reflections on art movements and literary texts since artistic media were understood as crucial to the project of inventing radically new modes of human living and loving On the other hand the aesthetic ambitions that informed new conceptions of sexuality had their mirror image in the varying forms of sexual obsession that characterized contemporary aesthetic theories Approaches as diverse as those of Theodor W Adorno Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Leslie A Fiedler Peter Gorsen and Herbert and Ludwig Marcuse all contributed to a dramatic eroticization of the arts Christine Weder s interdisciplinary study explores this largely neglected relationship providing a dual insight into an era of profound transformation she demonstrates how and why the engagement with art and literature was essential to the programmatic theories of the new Eros At the same time she offers a fresh historical perspective on aesthetics around 1968 Whereas aesthetic developments in the late sixties have conventionally been conceived in terms of politicization Weder demonstrates that the sexualization of the arts was no less profound and in doing so contributes to a fundamental reframing of this tumultuous period Young Citizens in the Digital Age Brian D. Loader, 2007-08-07 A social anxiety currently pervades the political classes of the western world arising from the perception that young people have become disaffected with liberal democratic politics Voter turnout among 18-25 year olds continues to be lower than other age groups and they are less likely to join political parties This is not however proof that young people are not interested in politics per se but is evidence that they are becoming politically socialized within a new media environment This shift poses a significant challenge to politicians who increasingly have to respond to a technologically mediated lifestyle politics that celebrates lifestyle diversity personal disclosure and celebrity This book explores alternative approaches for engaging and understanding young people's political activity and looks at the adoption of information and ICTs as a means to facilitate the active engagement of young people in democratic societies Young Citizens in a Digital Age presents new research and the first comprehensive analysis of ICTs citizenship and young people from an international group of leading scholars It is an important book for students and researchers of citizenship and ICTs within the fields of sociology politics social policy and communication studies among others Learning by Wandering Marie Martin, 2010 This book uncovers an ancient Irish perspective of learning and reconfigures it to offer a vitality restoring vision for education in our digital age Its aim is to help re-engage learners of the Net generation meaningfully and with enjoyment in the learning process The proliferation of new technologies in the classroom has generally not been accompanied by new pedagogical thinking and the discourse is still framed almost exclusively in terms of the utilitarian mindset of the Western world Consequently education is too often delivered within a context that is unfit for purpose The author argues that we need to bring the wisdom of different cultural perspectives to bear on our understanding of the nature and purpose of learning and on the role of technology in the learning process She shares an energising vision of education based on the ancient Irish understanding of learning as nourishment for the human spirit expressed as learning by wandering Illustrating the universal and timeless relevance of this understanding she demonstrates from personal experience how a synthesis of ancient wisdom and new technologies can transform the learning process This book offers a new dimension to the ongoing debate on the future of education in the Western world One Simple Change Makes Life Easy , Integrating Mission and Strategy for Nonprofit Organizations James A. Phills, 2005-07-21 James A Phills applies/adapts the core body of general management knowledge about mission strategy execution to help nonprofit leaders deal with the special challenges they face He strives to draw on this knowledge in a way that recognises the unique features of the nonprofit sector
