broader audience The Distinctiveness of Christian Ethics Charles E. Curran, Richard A. McCormick, 1980 Includes 6 volumes Secret Faith in the Public Square Jonathan Malesic, 2009-09-01 In this groundbreaking and provocative book Jonathan Malesic argues that the best way for Christians to be caretakers of their tradition and to love their neighbors selflessly is to conceal their religious identity in American public life The alternative insisting on Christianity's public visibility in politics the marketplace and the workplace risks severely compromising the distinctiveness of Christian identity Delving deep into the Christian tradition Malesic explains that keeping Christian identity secret means living fully in the world while maintaining Christian language prayer and liturgy in reserve He shows how major thinkers Cyril of Jerusalem Søren Kierkegaard and Dietrich Bonhoeffer sought to protect Christian identity from being compromised by the public sphere He then shows that Christians' dual responsibilities for the tradition and for the neighbor must be kept secret Catholic Education: Distinctive and Inclusive J. Sullivan, 2013-03-09 How coherent is the claim that Catholic education is both distinctive and inclusive This question so crucial both for the adequate articulation of a raison d'être for Catholic schools all over the world and also for the promotion of their healthy functioning has not hitherto been addressed critically Here it receives penetrating analysis and constructive resolution in a comprehensive treatment that integrates theological philosophical and educational perspectives The argument draws on wide ranging scholarship offering new insights into the relevance for Catholic education of thinkers whose work has been relatively neglected The advance in understanding of how distinctiveness relates to inclusiveness is underpinned by the author's lengthy experience of teaching and leadership in Catholic schools it is further informed by his extended and continuing dialogue with Catholic educators at all levels and in many different countries Theology Against Religion Tom Greggs, 2011-12-29 A constructive approach from a theological perspective about the category of religion in Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Karl Barth Participatory Learning Chris A. M. Hermans, 2003-01-01 Annotation Hermans professor of identity of Catholic schools and religious education Catholic U of Nijmegen the Netherlands analyzes religious education in the context of globalization as a cultural phenomenon a phenomenon characterized by processes of rationalization fragmentation and transformation He explores the changing nature of tradition in terms of Christian concepts of transcendence and immanence as it relates to education After attempting to define the characteristics of religion as experience language and practice he proposes a concept of religious instruction based on participation Participatory learning is defined as developmental social mediated and meaningful learning Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Religion in America Julia Corbett Hemeyer, 2016-02-19 Religion in America 7th Edition provides a comprehensive yet concise introduction to the changing religious landscape of the United States Extensively revised and updated to reflect current events and trends this new edition continues to engage students in reflection about religious diversity Julia Corbett Hemeyer presents the study of religion as a tool for developing appreciation of communities of faith other than one's own and for understanding the dynamics at work in religion in the

Knitter,2005-01-25 A new model of Christian theology the pluralistic model is taking shape moving beyond the traditional models of exclusivism Christianity as the only true religion and inclusivism Christianity as the best religion toward a view that recognizes the possibility of many valid religions In this volume a widely representative group of eminent Christian theologians Protestant and Catholic male and female from East and West First and Third Worlds explores genuinely new attitudes toward other believers and traditions expanding and refining the discussion and debate over pluralistic theology Contributors are Gordon D Kaufman John Hick Langdon Gilkey Wilfred Cantwell Smith Stanley J Samartha Raimundo Panikkar Seiichi Yagi Rosemary Radford Ruether Marjorie Jewitt Suchocki Aloysius Pieris Tom F Driver and Paul F Knitter Christian Democratic Parties in Europe Since the End of the Cold War Steven Van Hecke,Emmanuel Gerard,2004 The period since the end of the Cold War has been characterised by an acceleration in the European integration process a changing pattern of political ideologies and the emergence of new political parties and issues This book assesses the impact of these phenomena on Christian Democratic parties in the current and future member states of the European Union and highlights some of the particularities and universalities of European Christian Democracy from a comparative and transnational perspective Political scientists and historians from various universities examine the way in which Christian Democratic parties have responded to these challenges for instance by a rapprochement with non Christian Democrats and explain how those responses have resulted in failure in some cases and success in others
