Ghulam Ahmad, 2004 Narratives of Islamic Legal Theory Rume Ahmed, 2012-03-15 In the critical period when Islamic law first developed a new breed of jurists developed a genre of legal theory treatises to explore how the fundamental moral teachings of Islam might operate as a legal system Seemingly rhetorical and formulaic these manuals have long been overlooked for the insight they offer into the early formation of Islamic conceptions of law and its role in social life In this book Rume Ahmed shatters the prevailing misconceptions of the purpose and form of the Islamic legal treatise Ahmed describes how Muslim jurists used the genre of legal theory to argue for individualized highly creative narratives about the application of Islamic law while demonstrating loyalty to inherited principles and general prohibitions These narratives are revealed through careful attention to the nuanced way in which legal theorists defined terms and concepts particular to the legal theory genre and developed pictures of multiple worlds in which Islamic law should ideally function Ahmed takes the reader into the logic of Islamic legal theory to uncover diverse conceptions of law and legal application in the Islamic tradition clarifying and making accessible the sometimes obscure legal theories of central figures in the history of Islamic law The book offers important insights about the ways in which legal philosophy and theology mutually influenced premodern jurists as they formulated their respective visions of law ethics and theology The volume is the first in the Oxford Islamic Legal Studies series Satisfying the growing interest in Islam and Islamic law the series speaks to both specialists and those interested in the study of a legal tradition that shapes lives and societies across the globe The series features innovative and interdisciplinary studies that explore Islamic law as it operates in shaping private decision making binding communities and as domestic positive law The series also sheds new light on the history and jurisprudence of Islamic law and provides for a richer understanding of the state of Islamic law in the contemporary Muslim world including parts of the world where Muslims are minorities obtaining Purity of Body and Soul This discussion is based on Chapter 4 An Nisa Verses 43 57 of the Holy Quran O you who have believed do not approach prayer while you are intoxicated until you know what you are saying or in a state of ritual impurity except those passing through a place of prayer until you have washed your whole body And if you are ill or on a journey or one of you comes from the place of relieving himself or you have contacted women had sexual intercourse and find no water then seek clean earth and wipe over your faces and your hands with it Indeed Allah is ever Pardoning and Forgiving Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture purchasing error in exchange for it and wishing you would lose the way And Allah is most knowing of your enemies and sufficient is Allah as an ally and sufficient is Allah as a helper Among the people of the book are those who distort words from their proper places i e usages and say We hear and disobey and Hear but be not heard and R in twisting their tongues and defaming the religion And if they had said instead We hear and obey and Wait for us to understand it would have been better for them and more suitable But Allah has cursed them for their disbelief so they believe not except for a few O you who were given the Scripture believe in what We have sent down the Holy Quran confirming that which is with you before We obliterate faces and turn them toward their backs or curse them as We cursed the sabbath breakers And ever is the matter decree of Allah accomplished Indeed Allah does not forgive association with Him but He forgives what is less than that for whom He wills And he who associates others with Allah has certainly fabricated a tremendous sin Have you not seen those who claim themselves to be pure Rather Allah purifies whom He wills and injustice is not done to them even as much as a thread inside a date seed Look how they invent about Allah untruth and sufficient is that as a manifest sin Have you not seen those who were given a portion of the Scripture who believe in superstition and false objects of worship and say about the disbelievers These are better guided than the believers as to the way Those are the ones whom Allah has cursed and he whom Allah curses never will you find for him a helper Or have they a share of dominion Then if that were so they would not give the people even as much as the speck on a date seed Or do they envy people for what Allah has given them of His bounty But We had already given the family of Abraham the Scripture and wisdom and conferred upon them a great kingdom And some among them people of the book believed in it and some among them were averse to it And sufficient is Hell as a blaze Indeed those who disbelieve in Our signs We will drive them into a fire Every time their skins are roasted through We will replace them with other skins so they may taste the punishment Indeed Allah is ever Exalted in Might and Wise But those who believe and do righteous deeds We will admit them to gardens beneath which rivers flow wherein they abide forever For them therein are purified spouses and We will admit them to deepening shade Implementing the lessons discussed will aid one to Adopt Positive Characteristics Adopting Positive Characteristics Leads to Peace of Mind and Body

Quest for Divinity Mohamed A. Mahmoud,2015-02-01 A highly influential Sudanese reformist thinker Mahmud Muhammad Taha is regarded as a product of a dual legacy rooted in mystical Islam on the one hand and in the tradition of modernity on the other Publicly executed in 1985 following his conviction of apostasy Taha offered distinctly original interpretations of the Qur an and a radical theory of Islamic prayer In Quest for Divinity Mohamed Mahmoud presents an in depth and balanced treatment of Taha s controversial yet significant thought The author s ability to provide access to relevant literature in both Arabic and English offers readers a rare view of the considerable nuance in Taha s thought With rich detail Mahmoud explores Taha s theories of human freedom and his social message referred to as the second message of Islam with its emphasis on political economic and social equality Taha s embrace of modernity is further assessed relative to his position on science law and art areas that have always attracted Muslim modernists Quest for Divinity will attract attention to Taha s compelling but little known intellectual contribution as a seminal modern reformer of Islam Such recognition is long overdue and will enrich the current debates on Islam and modernity
