Divine And Human Comedy Of Andrew M Greeley:

The Divine and Human Comedy of Andrew M. Greeley Allienne R. Becker, 2000-08-30 The volume approaches Greeley's novels by comparing him to the 19th century French writer Honoré de Balzac. A prolific and popular author, Balzac recorded his milieu in tremendous detail, created a fictional universe peopled by hundreds of characters, and explored the role of Catholicism in his world. Because of his training as a sociologist, Greeley brings to his novels a thorough knowledge of popular culture and social theory. And because of his experience as a Roman Catholic priest, he has gained special knowledge of vice, virtue, and the workings of the Church. Like Balzac, now a major canonical author, Greeley has created a world of numerous fictional persons, mapped the details of his culture, and explored the place of Catholicism in contemporary life. Andrew M. Greeley Allienne R. Becker, 2002-04-29 Andrew M. Greeley's Blackie Ryan stories are reviewed and explicated in this study of the author's novels featuring the delightful and leprechaun-like detective. The book surveys detective fiction in which the unique, irresistible, and sometimes irrepressible Blackie Ryan, who is sometimes but not always a persona for the author, appears. A composite portrait of Blackie is drawn for the reader. The themes, both sociological and religious, that occur in the fiction are highlighted and explored, as are the various literary devices that the author employs to create his stories. The book includes a Foreword written by Andrew M. Greeley, world-renowned sociologist, priest, and Professor of Social Science at the University of Chicago. Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Tracey Watson, 2005-04 A biographical and bibliographical guide to current writers in all fields, including poetry, fiction, and nonfiction, journalism, drama, television, and movies. Information is provided by the authors themselves or drawn from published interviews, feature stories, book reviews, and other materials provided by the authors/publishers. Book Review Index, 2003 Vols. 8-10 of the 1965-1984 master cumulation constitute a title index. Midamerica, 2002 The Post-Utopian Imagination M. Keith Booker, 2002-01-30 In America, the long 1950s were marked by an intense skepticism toward utopian alternatives to the existing capitalist order. This skepticism was closely related to the climate of the Cold War, in which the demonization of socialism contributed to a dismissal of all alternatives to capitalism. This book studies how American novels and films of the long 1950s reflect the loss of the utopian imagination and mirror the growing concern that capitalism brought routinization, alienation, and other dehumanizing consequences. The volume relates the decline of the utopian vision to the rise of late capitalism, with its expanding globalization and consumerism, and to the beginnings of postmodernism. In addition to well-known literary novels such as Nabokov's Lolita, Booker explores a large body of leftist fiction, popular novels, and the films of Alfred Hitchcock and Walt Disney. The book argues that while the canonical novels of the period employ a utopian aesthetic, that aesthetic tends to be very weak and is not reinforced by content. The leftist novels, on the other hand, employ a realist aesthetic but are utopian in their exploration of alternatives to capitalism. The study concludes that the utopian energies in cultural productions of the long 1950s are very weak and that these works tend to dismiss utopian thinking as naïve or even sinister. The weak utopianism in these works tends to be reflected in characteristics associated with postmodernism Choice ,2001

Impossible to Say L. Lamar Nisly,2002-06-30 Nisly English Bluffton College pairs two writers from Catholic and two from Judaic tradition to examine similar representations of religious mystery among them He finds that the religious mystery of both Catholicism and rabbinic Judaism occupies a middle position between rationality and indeterminacy and focuses his study on that dimension that is beyond final explanation but maintain a firm foundation c Book News Inc Anne Sexton and Middle Generation Poetry Philip McGowan,2004-09-30 Evaluating the poetry of Anne Sexton 30 years after her death this text examines the possibilities of language to convey an individual s response to their own existence the project of defining love and the purpose of the aesthetic in our understanding of these entities John Steinbeck Stephen K.

George,2002-11-30 One hundred years after his birth this volume presents a stimulating range of perspectives on Steinbeck s life and work with over a dozen pieces written by sons wives and close friends such as Arthur Miller and Tom Wolfe and 15 more written by critics scholars biographers and enthusiasts from around the world Includes about a dozen b w photographs Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Bibliographic Index ,2001 Word, Birth, and Culture Daneen

Wardrop,2002-04-30 Poe Whitman and Dickinson form an engaging triad of poets who considered together enrich the poetics of each other the works of the three poets address language birth and scientific aspects of culture in ways that frame new perceptions of sex roles Exacerbating 19th century American expectations for sexually constructed experience they employ tactics that disrupt patriarchal signification The first book to group these three poets together this volume examines the daring language experiments in which they engage It explores their use of pseduoscientific and scientific studies of alchemy hydropathy and botany to inform their understanding of language and birth and to discover expressions that challenge expectations for 19th century poetry The rising awareness of women s rights which concurred with the antebellum call for a new American literature also informed the emerging sense of the feminine that prompts the poets to use the maternal in their poetry While they do not address the woman question of the 19th century in concrete ways they nonetheless relied upon the female experience of birthing to create a new relationship with language and to question the nature of signification

Songs of the Reconstructing South Suzanne Disheroon-Green,Lisa Abney,2002-03-30 The South has a rich cultural legacy and that of Louisiana is especially strong and diverse Despite its similarities with the rest of the South Louisiana has a distinct cultural identity rooted in the colonial impulses of France and Spain the evolution of gender roles the importance of religion and the dramatic shift in racial politics after the 1803 Louisiana Purchase Perhaps because of its diversity it has inspired numerous writers some of whom have contributed greatly to American literature This book explores the influences at work on Louisiana writers and those writing about Louisiana from the end of the Civil War through World War II These writers reflect the effects of Louisiana s culture politics and colonial heritage Such writers as Alice Dunbar Nelson Lyle Saxon and George Washington Cable characterize the racial caste system pointing out the flaws in its construction and its effects on relationships Ruth McEnery Stuart Kate Chopin and Sallie Rhett Roman depict the lives of women in Louisiana and their struggles when taking on nontraditional roles And William Faulkner and Arna Bontemps draw upon narrative and folk traditions which provide the foundations for their works Chapters are grouped in sections devoted to three of the broadest influences on writers of the era women work and culture during Reconstruction the impact of Modernism and issues of race and class

Songs of the New South Suzanne Disheroon Green, Lisa Abney, 2001-03-30 The works of Louisiana authors differ from the works of other Southern writers in significant ways Strong French Spanish Native American and African American traditions shaped Louisiana culture and Louisiana writers reflect that cultural diversity in their works So too historical and religious influences caused Louisiana to develop in a distinct way and these influences have similarly affected Louisiana writers The narrative styles employed by these writers generally differ from the styles of other Southern authors While contemporary Louisiana writers have contributed a substantial body of work to Southern literature their writings have not received adequate scholarly attention This book provides a critical introduction to Louisiana literature and gives special attention to how Louisiana literature and culture depart from the rest of the South The volume is the first collection of scholarly studies focusing on Louisiana writers from the 1930s to the present Drawing together discussions of 15 of Louisiana's current premier fiction writers the collection is organized into three broad sections The first examines Louisiana narratives and folk traditions the second influences of religious traditions on Louisiana writers including Protestantism Catholicism and Paganism and the third the construction of gender and race in Louisiana culture Included are discussions of such writers as Ernest J Gaines Anne Rice James Lee Burke Moira Crone John Dufresne Michael Lee West Rebecca Wells and Robert Olin Butler

Teaching Faulkner Stephen Hahn, Robert W. Hamblin, 2001 For decades now literary critics have universally praised Faulkner as one of the greatest writers of the modern era yet students assigned to read his novels in university college and high school classes continue to struggle to make sense of his convoluted plots prolix style and complex characterizations The broadest treatment to date of a topic of increasing concern this book is designed to provide fresh strategies and practical suggestions for the classroom study of several of Faulkner's finest novels and stories including The Sound and the Fury Absalom, Absalom! Light in August The Unvanquished and Go Down, Moses The contributors all noted Faulkner scholars who regularly teach Faulkner works in their courses employ a variety of critical theories and approaches In each chapter theory is subordinated to tested classroom methods that both motivate and assist students in reading the texts and in understanding why Faulkner remains relevant for contemporary readers The teaching strategies described in this book draw upon such diverse matters as cultural and social analysis historical context reading and rhetorical theory film and stage techniques comparative studies and race class and gender issues

American Carnival Philip McGowan, 2001-07-30 Through the presentation and representation of the deemed exotic and unconventional American carnival forms operate in alternative ways to European variations typically delineated through a suspension of time and ordinary social conventions Using an analysis of overt carnival forms the book demonstrates how America reads society and culture through a dualistic vision contoured by race class ethnic and gender concerns It then examines a range of 19th and 20th century texts by such authors as Hawthorne Faulkner Fitzgerald Hemingway and Bellow to identify the operations and mutations of American carnival forms American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 God in the Movies Andrew M. Greeley,2017-07-05 The religious imagination is alive and well in the movies Contrary to those who criticize Hollywood popular movies very often have metaphorically represented God on the screen From Clint Eastwood as an avenging angel in Pale Rider and Nicolas Cage as a lovesick angel in City of Angels to Jessica Lange as an angel of death in All That Jazz and from George Burns as God in Oh God to Audrey Hepburn in Always to pure white light in Fearless and Flatliners God is very much present in the movies The Great Mysteries Andrew M. Greeley,2007-08 The Great Mysteries responds with passion and skill to the growing concerns of spiritual seekers and teachers of the Catholic faith In radical refreshing fashion Greeley explores 12 essential questions of faith and grounds them in human experience
