Divine Passion:

The Passion of God Warren McWilliams, 1985-06 Ancient Passions Raymond Creed, 2020-03-25 ANCIENT PASSIONS is a work that boldly assumes humanity is facing an immense global spiritual crisis. It addresses this crisis by offering a well organised collection of lively exhortations, meditations, poems, prayers and other creative pieces. These are designed to appeal to Christians of all traditions who are interested in spirituality, bible prophecy or are concerned about the direction that both the church and society is taking. Written over the course of forty four years, they attempt to probe the overarching psychological and spiritual passions governing human behaviour in its relationship with God. PART A explores grim themes like sin, judgement and the rise of anti Christ. Emphasis is given to God's holiness and His wrath against sin. PART B explores more joyful themes including redemption, forgiveness, revival and the second coming of Christ. Emphasis is given to God's love and His mercy to sinners. ANCIENT PASSIONS challenges, confronts and comforts people in these perilous times. Practicing Passion Kenda Creasy Dean, 2004-04-26 Youth and the Quest for a Passionate Church

Pilgrimage of Love Joy Ann McDougall, 2005-10-13 This book engages one of the liveliest theological debates at the turn of the twenty first century: the significance of the doctrine of the Trinity to the Christian concept of God and to its life of faith.

Passionate Spirituality Elizabeth Dreyer, 2005 Passionate Spirituality explores the roots and meanings of passion in Western culture and then examines how passion is expressed in the works of two medieval women mystics, Hildegard of Bingen and Hadewijch of Brabant, and in the lives of contemporary Christians seeking to deepen their own spiritual journeys. Too often the term passion is associated only with steamy films, sexual sin and emotional excess, cutting off the breadth of its meaning and expression for positive good. But the great mystics succeed precisely because they hold together both the affective and the intellectual aspects of the spiritual life in creative and convincing ways. Their accounts of their mystical experience are important resources for information and understanding about how to talk about God more formally and for what it means to be passionately in love with God and the world. We know it has a dynamic evolutionary character. How might we understand this world in relationship to God? Partaking of God builds on the foundations of the dynamic trinitarian theology of Athanasius. It develops into a theology of the Word as the divine Attractor and the Spirit as the Energy of Love in evolutionary emergence. Then it explores God's suffering with creatures, the humility of God in creation, church teaching on the human soul in relation to neuroscience and grace and original sin in relationship to evolution. It culminates in a Christian theology of ecological conversion. Religion and

Community Keith Ward, 2000 Religion is an important social force both for good and evil in the modern world. In the final volume of his comparative theology, Keith Ward considers the main ways in which religion and society interact and the ways in which the major world religions need to adapt themselves in the modern world. These religions are examined as forms of social life ranging from communities which seek to renounce the world to those which seek to embody the laws of God in society those which see religions in critical dialogue with social structures and those which see religion as a primarily individual matter The ideas of eretz Yisrael the umma of Islam the Buddhist sangha the Christian church and the Hindu sampradaya are critically analysed Ward also considers the doctrine of the church in Aquinas Calvin Schleiermacher and Tillich and develops a view of the church in a global perspective by means of both a historical and thematic approach He proposes a radical vision of the church as a person affirming world transforming society in the emerging global community of many faiths and cultures The relation of religious belief and morality and the ambiguous role of religion in society is investigated and the need for a new religious paradigm is defended expressing a global perspective without insistence on uniformity

Kim, 2022-11-16 How does an almighty and all loving God respond to his beloved human creatures who are made in his image and yet implicated in sin and suffering What is the origin of human suffering Is it sin or the limitations of human beings Is God moved by our suffering If he sympathizes and co suffers with us can he deliver us out of our miseries Thousands and perhaps millions of people have asked these questions and are searching desperately for their answers Two major views have been advanced in the history of Christian theology to describe God's response to the suffering of the world divine impassibility and divine passibility More recently a third mediating position between impassibilism and passibilism has arisen which affirms both the impassibility and the passibility of God This position can be identified as modified classical theism an approach that grasps the perfect and relational nature of God Following this mediating position this book sets out its own constructive understanding of a mediating position with the help of a new way of understanding the way in which the eternal actions and corresponding passions of the divine persons condition one another the dynamic reciprocity model A Germ of Severe Ethical Analysis, Pure Philosophy and Inflexible Truth, etc Robert F. Renewing Pastoral Practice

Neil Pembroke, 2016-04-08 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the relationship between the doctrine of the Trinity and pastoral care and counselling Neil Pembroke contends that an in depth reflection on the relational dynamics in the Godhead has the capacity to radically renew pastoral practice Pembroke applies the notion of relational space to care in a parish setting The life of the triune God is defined by both closeness and open space The divine persons indwell each other in love but they also provide space for the expression of particularity This principle of closeness with space is applied in three different pastoral contexts namely community life spiritual friendship and pastoral conversations The specialized ministry of pastoral counselling is the focus in the second half of the book Informing the various explorations is the principle of participation through love the divine persons participate in each other's existence through loving self communication Pembroke shows how this trinitarian virtue is at the centre of three key counselling dynamics the counselling alliance empathy and mirroring
